

Man's horse ran away a few days ago in Adams, Mass., our old ground. Some of the horses here don't get out to make them run away. It takes two quarts a day to do that.

Neighbor, ex-Postmaster Willey, would have been nominated for the legislature at the recent convention in Harvard. It has not been for the folly and vanity of the McHenry county. But we think just as of "Will," as though he had

City Marshal S. P. Leesch, who was the police officer at Fort Sheridan, won the prize in the contest there the 26th inst. Judges were Mr. Plow, manager of the park, Sergeant Burns of bar and Station Agent Conrad Sheridan. The award was made the 27th.

James J. Forrest, who until recently has been connected with the NEWS-LETTER office from its first issue in this city Wednesday afternoon and evening. He is keeping a summer resort on the Black River four miles above South Haven. We are glad to know that the "py-go-lucky," his house, is getting better.

Highland Park.

Bazar patterns at Mrs. Bohl's. Last Friday evening Pastor Pfanstiehl made an address before the Holland Society of Chicago at the Union League Club.

Levin, the jeweler, is at A. P. Dunn's store, two doors north of postoffice.

D. M. Erskine has rented his Central avenue house, formerly occupied by George A. Mason, to a Mr. Chas. A. Tuttle, who is now in possession.

Ex-mayor Evans has received a letter from his son Herbert, announcing his safe arrival in San Francisco on his way to Leland Stanford University.

Mrs. Charles H. Warren is spending a few days with Mrs. Pope of Chicago in her summer home at one of the beautiful lakes in Antioch township.

LOST—A full sized brown collie dog, answers to the name of Shep. Reward for return. Address Postoffice box 371, Highland Park, Ill.

The township high school will commence Monday, September 17th, and then school will keep, whether the new school house is done or not, even if teachers and pupils have to set out on the stumps and logs.

John D. Rockefeller is said to have an income of $104,388 per diem from his oil business. If Mr. Rockefeller really wants to make money, he should go into suburban journalism, and give up his job of selling kerosene.

If others fail, try me. French and Father Time a specialty. Levin the jeweler, two doors north from postoffice.

Mr. Ingersoli, a west side laboring man, died Sunday morning leaving his family in very destitute circumstances. Dan P. Sheahan and some others took hold and raised nearly one hundred dollars to pay funeral expenses and tide the family over their immediate needs.

L. O. Van Riper and family returned from their trip to the Paris Exposition, Germany, and their old Scandinavian home and friends. He don't look as though he was much seasick on the voyage. He bought a little bell at the Exposition and entertained the council with it Tuesday evening.

Schneider & Cooke will make your broken spectacles look like new for a reasonable charge.

Dr. J. D. Hill is first assistant secretary of state in Washington, and will now, that he has returned from his vacation, have charge of that department during Secretary Hays' absence. Dr. Hill was the late president of the Rochester University and a very able man. The monarchists of the old world will find it "up-hill" work to down our Hill.

Have you seen the new passenger platform the electric folks have put in, one down against the subway at the head of Sheridan road as you go over to "Wrennville," on the west side. Then another up against the Military Academy entrance as the cut is too deep against Hazel avenue. They have put in a good street crossing so as to make it just as convenient for the public as possible.

The electric railway excursion tickets to the Northwestern Elevated Railway at Wilson avenue, are sold by Cummings, the druggist.

E. Norman Scott returned yesterday from his two and a half week vacation. He divided his time between Bar Harbor, Me., and Placid in the Adirondacks, where he left his sisters, Miss Scott and Evelyn. He has on delightful bronze tints from exposure to sea breezes and the sun. He met our venturesome neighbor, J. Wallace Wakem, on his cruise one day at Bar Harbor.

We regret, as do all our readers, the departure of our associate editor and society reporter. They are off for a month's vacation, their first objective point being Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass. After a brief stay there, they will go to the White Mountains, and so pass the time early October. All recognize the fact that he has done some brilliant society work on the NEWS-LETTER. Hence, illae lacrymae.

Eyes tested free by an optician at Schneider & Cooke's.

We want our readers to bear in mind that a round trip ticket for the day sold only, from Highland Park to Wilson avenue on the electric road, can be bought of George B. Cummings for 40 cents. From Wilson avenue into Chicago, as far south as Siegel & Cooper's big store, the fare on the elevated is 5 cents each way, making the round trip from this city to Siegel & Cooper's store only 50 cents. It is the biggest thing out. We have tried it.

The men at the Railroad Men's Home are living high this summer. About four weeks ago thirty of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen of Chicago, picniced on the "Home" grounds, and Tuesday last about two hundred of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers made them partake of a bountiful repast. Then Thursday the Ladies' Auxiliary to the order of railway conductors, about eighty in number, made them happy—that is if eatables, fruit and confections could do it for they must have bought out one or two good sized fruit stores in the city and brought them along.

Notice.
Mr. Herbert Evans having resigned his position as manager of the NEWS-LETTER, Mr. A. E. Torsey, a printer of extensive experience, will take his place.

Citizens Band of Highwood.
We understand a brass band has been organized at Highwood composed of ex-members of the Highland Park band and others. The Highwood council has promised the council room gratis for them to practice. We congratulate Highwood on the band and the public. They organize just in time to be of service to the political parties in the campaign. We trust the band may be liberally patronized by the public and prove a success.

We understand they are open for engagements. H. M. Prior, leader and F. Denman, secretary.

Warning to the Wise.
Two or three very suspicious characters have been hovering around different houses in Highland Park for several days, or rather several nights. Robberies and burglaries are being committed in other suburban towns, and it behooves the residents of our city to be on the lookout. It is a common custom of a spy who will hover around some dwelling watching the movements of the inmates until he has the place located, and then seize a favorable night to make a haul.
