An Ideal Spot.
 Mrs. Charles H. Smith of Pomona Tenn., has been in the city for a week or ten days, the guest of Mrs. William Millard. We met her at the postoffice and in answer to our inquiries she said Pomona is 2,400 feet above the tide water, is six miles from the new railroad over the Cumberland plateau and they don't want it any nearer; they are going to have a six mile boulevard all the way from the railroad to Pomona.

The climate is delightful and the scenery wonderful; one can take the 7 p. m. train here and the next day dine in her home at Pomona. Her health is excellent; in fact we more than half suspect it is a difficult matter for folks to get sick down there. Evidently Pomona comes very near being an ideal place of residence; they discourage business beyond what is absolutely necessary for existence. They do not have and do not want any manufacturing enterprises located there, but keep it purely for a residence town, really one of Nature's great Sanitariums.

Our Rough Riders.

Albert Lehman, the custodian of the Highland Park club, who served in the German army before coming to this country, conceived the happy idea of organizing the young Republicans of his city and vicinity into a unique striking and effective campaign organization. It took shape as a company of "Rough Riders" to act as infantry except on rare occasions when they will be mounted. The scheme was to take a prairie fire with the boys" and in almost no time about a hundred names were secured and more to follow, provided they will be uniformed in a very striking and attractive costume and so will be the most unique campaign organization in or about Chicago.

About the first they did was to elect officers as follows: Major in command, Albert Lehman; captain (first), Dr. George W. Turner; captain (second), L. O. Ripper; first lieutenants, John Robert Carver; second lieutenants, Robert C. Raffin and one hundred men. "high privates," from all over the old town of Deerfield, so that they do not all belong to this city and that is well. From this it will be seen that the organization is very numerous, as the organization "meets" their first real public appearance was Tuesday night at the Chicago Marquette club, which gave a reception and had some campaign speaking. They made a splendid exhibit and Chicagoans who know what a good campaign managers" took the prize. Thursday they went by special invitation to a fair by special teams as they had a special car Tuesday evening to Chicago.

The first public appearance here is expected to be Saturday, Sept. 22, at a big Republican rally when Congressman Foss is expected with other distinguished speakers. They will then have their first uniforms all complete, be expected in company drill and make a magnificent appearance with H. M. Prior's band from Highwood, we presume, as the musical escort.

Our patriotic "Rough Riders" won't ride rough-shod over anybody or anything except the country's common "iniquity."

Tendency to suicides.

In the last issue under the head of "The Power of Imagination" we called the attention of the law sometimes applied to would-be suicides, but to the harshness in the execution of the law in occasionally giving people whatever another side to the question that is the recent tendency to suicide without any sufficient or adequate cause.

We clip the following from a recent daily paper and leave our readers to judge whether the German officer was not too harsh in calling suicide "cowardice."

Recently an officer in the German army, incensed as well as alarmed by the number of suicides in his command, declared that henceforth persons making attempts upon their lives would be regarded as deserters and punished as such. He denounced suicide as a cowardly act, unworthy of any brave man, and particularly unworthy of a soldier. Cowardice is not assigned as a cause for suicides here or elsewhere, probably because the number of persons who are taking their lives without adequate reason for the act—perhaps it would be well to regard the delicacy which has hitherto prevented us from calling most suicides by their right name.

Highland Park.

Buzar patterns at Mrs. Bohl's.

Frank Shulz of Chicago spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Noerenberg.

Miss Hattie Tapper of Chicago, is visiting her former school mate, Miss Grace Elvey.

Mrs. H. M. Prior has returned to her home after a very pleasant outing at Waukesha, Wis.

J. W. Ramney, a Chicago merchant, drove out his own team last week to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. Leach.

Levin, the jeweler, is at A. P. Dunn's store, two doors north of postoffice.

Frank P. Hawkins has built a new side walk on the south or Laurel avenue side of his lot. Olaf Lindblom is doing the work.

Many people are enjoying the bathing on our beach this season. Among the Chicago people were Miss Mabel Darch and Mr. Albert Langford.

Miss Grace Leach left Friday for her work at the head of kindergarten in Burlington, Iowa. She has been there now some half dozen years and they are more anxious than ever to retain her.

Yes the Filipinos are barbarians. Two of their college bred young ladies are coming to this country and say they will make speeches for Bryan. That settles it, they are barbarians sure, an alien race whose rights and liberties we are not bound to respect.

The finest golf links on this continent, if not in the world, are on the farm of Dr. Seward Webb of Shelburne, Vt. The farms comprize half a township for he has been buying farm after farm these half score or more of years. His wife being a Vanderbilt, he don't have to saw wood or shovel coal for a living.

Schneider & Cooke will make your broken spectacles look like new for a reasonable charge.

Sept. 19-26 the annual National Convention of Christian Workers will be held at the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. Speakers from all parts of the country will take part in the programme. Rev. Pfanstiehl of the Presbyterian church of Highland Park is on the programme for an address on: "Our Boys and How to save them."

Professor King is becoming more and more a fixture in the postoffice. The morning and evening "helping out," is extending to an all day service commendable rapidity. He has the inborn knack of handling mail and there is heaps of difference in that some folks were born to get the hang of the school house "right off." King was born that way.

Two young Filipinos, after a competitive examination, have entered the University of Michigan, the alma mater of Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Smoot. But we thought what the campaign orators say, the Filipinos are "barbarians" and here they are entering our big universities in competition with the bright young men of America. Funny barbarians, these.

The mayor did a good thing at the last council meeting in calling attention to the need of the names of the streets being put up at suitable corners, not perhaps at every one, but often enough for strangers to find their way. We hope the matter will be pushed during the winter so that our summer residents next season can't complain on this ground.

If others fail, try me. French and Father Time a specialty. Levin the jeweler, two doors north from postoffice.

Mrs. J. M. Cutler seemed satisfied with winning prize here at home on the Exmoor line but last week went up to Onwetsia and captured the prize there. Mrs. Cutler and the Exmoor.

A Chicago firm writes for the privilege of placing our fire insurance. Guess not. We have two Davids, one some others in the business here at home, and they have kept from fire and flood, light disasters dire these many years and we will abide with them.

Court Notes.

Some two or three weeks ago Olaf Lindblom built a strip of cement sidewalk in front of W. C. Orum's place. The price and all was agreed upon through Miss Floyd, agent for property. But when Mr. Orum came to see it that in places the lot was needed back filling to hold the foundation to the walk permanently, and because Mr. Lindblom would not put in this back filling he refused to pay him, so Mr. Lindblom brought suit to recover his pay. The case was set for last Saturday, but as Mr. Orum is a non-resident, a continuance of thirty days, till Oct. 5th, was granted by Judge Duoley to take his deposition and so Mr. Lindblom has to wait for his pay.

Some one asked us last week why we did not give the real estate transfers and reports of our local court proceedings. The suggestion is a good one and we will try and give due heed thereunto. By the way, lest we forget it, Mr. Charles M. Green has sold his beautiful home on Laurel and Dale avenues, to Arthur W. Underwood for $15,000.

Books on China.

We thought a few weeks ago, of writing a book on China, it seemed as though there was just one more needed. Just then Miss Scidmore's book came out and we laid down our pen. The August Book Buyer made us a list of books and magazine articles relating to China as follows:

Magazine Articles.....	51
Government Official Reports.....	15
General Works.....	17
Geographical, Topographical.....	29
Descriptive.....	24
Histories of China.....	9
China and Western Nations.....	11
Histories of Chinese Wars.....	4
Missions to China.....	7
Religions of China.....	7
Biographies of Chinese Heroes.....	6
Total.....	180

Since that list was made up from ten to twenty more volumes have been published, so there are, available for one who wishes to "read up" on China, fully 200 volumes, many of them large and compact, and most of them valuable.
