

g a Specialty.

Stylish Figure. Home Service.

Corset is warranted to be produced at and Healthy. The for Comfort and every pair of Amer- is Guaranteed.

Order Bazar Pat- lay of Combs. Rib- in Velvet.

our store where Ladies see of extra charge.

BOHL'S, McDonald's Bldg. Tel. 102.

S

Improved Real

ANS

ng & Co.

URN!

sell Kero- lowing re-

E - 8c Gal.

- IOC Gal.

ny prod-

order and

OS.,

y Center...

Will take care of uring winter months for

pe. Address P. O. box 400

Park, Ill.

LE OR RENT—Eight

dwelling. Corner of rtington and Vernon avenue.

box 162 Glencoe, Ill.

A good all round sewer ork. Mrs. Bohl.

E - Cheap; fine building feet front, 220 feet deep, avenue. P. O. Box 455.

E - Barred Plymouth

Silver-laced Wyandotte

Call at Railroad Men's

Good sized second-hand

ove. Must be in good

Address NEWS-LETTER

To buy a dozen laying

ALFRED DORSEY, JR.,

Highland Park, Ill.

NEW YORK. BOSTON.

is Floor Finish...

Send for our Booklet.

reatment of Floors

Jarnish Co.,

Dearborn Ave., Chicago.

PHONE EXPRESS 371.

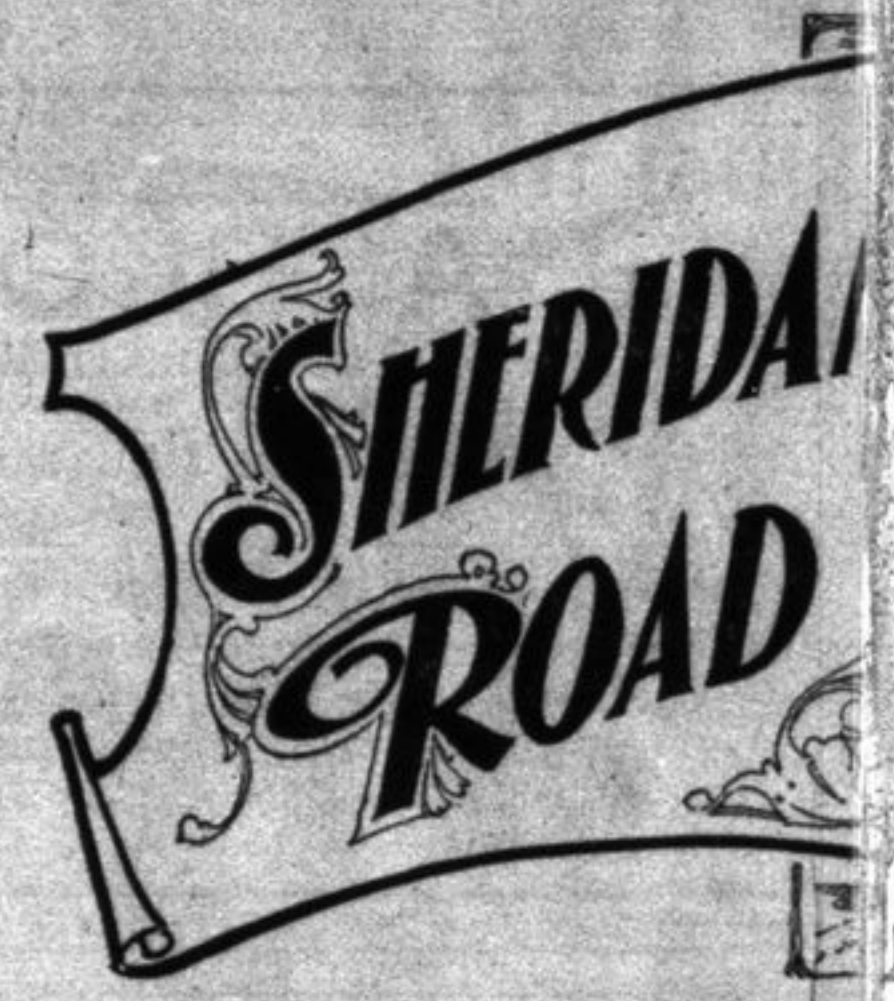

Successful Merchants

Never let up on Advertising. In these days one must advertise to keep business as well as to Increase Business...

The best medium for lake shore enterprises is the News-Letter.

Artistic Caste..

Expert Workmanship

Our Job Printing department has these qualities. That is why our work has such an enviable reputation. Our printing has a Style to Please You..

Send your next printing to the NEWS-LETTER.

LAKE FOREST, HIGHWOOD, FORT SHERIDAN, HIGHLAND PARK, RAVINIA, GLENCOE, WINNETKA, LAKESIDE

VOL VIII.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1900.

NO. 20

Highland Park.

Bazar patterns at Mrs. Bohl's. Mrs. Clothilde Bevilard spent Sunday with friends in the Park.

Mrs. Mary L. Bingham was in the Park Tuesday looking over her old home, Tanglewood.

Take your jewelry to Schneider & Cooke's for repairs. They do their own work.

The Reliable Steam Laundry is doing a rushing business. See their ad and price list on page 4.

Next Sunday evening there will be preaching service in the Baptist church at the usual hour.

Miss Yoe gave a quiet lunch party Thursday to a few special friends. The day was delightful and so was the party.

To a desirable party I will give the use of my horse for his board from November 1st to May 1st next. P. O. Box 511.

Mrs. Kirch, of Almyra, N. Y., spent a few days with Mrs. Phil. Brand. Mrs. Kirch is on her way to Colorado.

If your eyes bother you or you have headaches, call at Schneider & Cooke's and have your eyes tested by an expert optician.

The annual meeting of the Public School National League will be held at the public school on Friday, October 26th, at 3:30 p. m.

The ladies will not miss seeing the fine display window of Mrs. G. Bohl's, McDonald's block. Taste and skill tell in such a matter.

Schneider & Cooke will call for and deliver your clocks. All work warranted or money refunded.

T. E. Pierson having finished his big contract on the Messenger house, on Prospect avenue, is now ready to fill other orders on short notice. His phone is No. 301.

A little girl about ten years old told us Wednesday morning she had been invited to go up to the High School. We hope the Kindergartens will escape the peril.

"Fil" Evans sold us a mammoth sweet potato this week for a nickel. It was so big we had to eat it as the Boers "licked" the British; that is, by doing it in sections.

If you wish to see the neatest design in sofa pillows, in the Northwestern Military Academy colors, go to Mrs. Bohl's fancy store. They are elegant in design and finish.

Our well known musician, H. M. Prior, will give instructions on the violin and cornet this season. Just call and see him about it at his residence, 274 Central avenue west or all him up, phone. 281.

It has been getting mighty lonesome down at Ravinook since Pat Cawley stopped planting peas, beans, squashes, etc., and raising for the Boers in the Dr. Babcock garden.

There are about four holes, some of them very bad, in St. John's avenue up against the Robertson and LeBar homes. A dark night would give a broken buggy in two of the

"On the platform surrounding M. Foss were the following prominent citizens: Messrs. Rice, Millar, Birch, Adams, Bortree, Evans, Cummings, Purdy, Jennings."—Waukegan Sun.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Van Schaick (nee Cheney) will be glad to know that they are very pleasantly located in Pasadena, Cal., and that her health is greatly improved since going there.

The house owned by Mrs. F. P. Hall, on St. John's street, near Fred Rudolph's home, has been thoroughly renovated and Mr. Pierson, the interior decorator and upholsterer, has moved into it.

Waukegan society put on its best and gave Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lyon a royal reception at the elegant Stat street residence of his father, Representative George R. Lyon. It was a very successful and brilliant affair.

A very few pupils are kept out of school because they have been "exposed" to scarlet fever. The board of health are wisely enforcing local quarantine regulations very strictly so as to stamp out the disease at the outset.

Miss Nellie Ogilvie returned last week from her year spent with her brothers in South Carolina. She likes the Southland and kindred there well enough, but the Park and her relatives—the McDonalds—here a little better.

The city council will hold an adjourned meeting next Monday evening. The new leather upholstered chairs are not there yet for the spectators and probably will not be till after election. But business will be done just the same.

If you buy a Jewel range or cook stove of Charles Keyst he will give you a nice yard stick that is 36 inches long, so you can measure all the dress patterns you purchase and see that you get good measure. This is a rare chance.

Mrs. Frank C. Brown, who went to Boston with her daughter, Mrs. Stackpole, some two or three weeks ago, was called to her old home in Champlain this week by the death of her mother, who has been quite feeble for some time.

E. Norman Scott returned from his two weeks' trip to New York Monday night. He reports a delightful time. So many good friends he could not get away. The Misses Scott were passing these lovely autumn days among the Berkshire hills.

The sidewalk mania has struck the town as the hurricane did Galveston. Ex-Alderman John C. Cushman and non-resident William C. Downs are putting down permanent cement walks. If they don't look out they will shame the rest of us into the same thing before we know it.

You folks who did not think the new Trinity house of worship was to be a fine thing architecturally, what do you say now? That it may

The officers of the Postal Telegraph impress you as a little odd or unique is very possible, but that does not prove that it is a fine structure architecturally. We confess to a strong liking for it so far.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Street, with "Father Street," are East for the winter, we hear, while their home is occupied by Mr. Taggart's family, some of whose children are just now afflicted with a mild form of scarlet fever.

The Waukegan Sun seems to think our city a sort of backwoods sort of a place, as it speaks of last week's Republican rally as something "such as it never before had in its history." Without derogating from the success of that affair Highland Park has known several memorable events in its history.

We notice some pretty large boys are abusing the Mayor's permission to ride their wheels on the sidewalks in bad, muddy weather. They ride all the time, when the streets are dry and good, and some of them ride too fast. We shall have to suggest to the policemen that they stroll down Prospect and Laurel avenues occasionally. Such boys will be fined right up to the law.

Benj. J. Cloes, of Lake Bluff, is the Prohibition candidate for the legislature against George R. Lyon and the Democratic candidate. He lazons this motto on his campaign cards:

"The saloon, dear friends, Can only stay Till christian men Vote as they pray."

Some of the poster work being used by the News office is really a surprise to its friends. We simply say that the new manager understands the mechanical features of his work from "A to Isard," or as James Russell Lowell once expressed it:

"Wut he dont know, Aint' wuth the knowin."

Books entered in Public Library:

- FICTION. Bleavened Bread—Robert Grant..... A 882 The Reign of Law—James Lane Allen..... A 883 Ice of Old Vincennes—Maurice Thompson..... A 884 Field and Afloat—Frank H. Stockton..... A 885

JUVENILE.

- Attling for Atlanta—Byron A. Dunn..... C 709

ART ESSAYS AND MISCELLANEOUS.

- History of French Painting—C. H. Stranahan..... F 366

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Co. are sending out the following letter to the public denying a combination of their company with any other: "Persistent rumors are in circulation regarding a pending combination of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, Commercial Cable Company, Western Union Telegraph Company, and American Bell Telephone Company with the Telephone, Telegraph and Cable Company of America.

Company and of the Commercial Cable Company deny emphatically that either company is contemplating any such combination, and state that the control of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company and of the Commercial Cable Company is not for sale."

We were not at all surprised when some of the elder people who attended that pleasant sociable at ex-Mayor Evans' were a little "under the weather" for a day or two after. We saw that bushel basket of old-fashioned doughnuts, all made by Mrs. Evans herself, and knew that they were so good some of us would indulge just a little to freely. The nut cakes or the coffee, or both, drove us to our old friend Carlyle's Cromwell till after the clock marked off the duodecimo measure of time.

Mrs. John W. Sherwood, President of the Public School Art Association of Chicago, addressed the Highland Park Woman's Club, at their regular meeting at Library Hall last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Sherwood's talk on the Influence of Public School Art upon the Home was both delightfully entertaining and instructive. By aid of a number of reproductions of some of the greatest artists, she showed how to select a good picture, both with regard to the technicalities of the work itself, and the influence of the subject upon the mind of children. Mrs. Sherwood has had a large experience along the line of her chosen topic, and by her personality and enthusiasm gave the ladies of the club a most charming and delightful afternoon.

Republican Rally.

Last week Thursday evening was a brilliant one for the G. O. P. in this city. Several officers of the Chicago Rough Riders, Col. and Maj. Davidson, P. A. Montgomery, S. M. Millard, Hugh T. Bird, F. W. Cushing, Major Lehman, with Lieuts. John Jennings, Robert C. Raffin and Orson B. Brand; of our own Rough Riders, with Congressman Foss at Postmaster Fletcher's for a social half hour, while the "Citizen's Band" of Highwood, not the Park band as some papers had it, and the Rough Riders here, and a big detachment of the Winnetka regiment paraded the town and called out the people.

Under this military escort, Mr. Foss and his friends marched over to Goldberg's Opera House, where 600 of the intelligent men and women of this city and other towns filled every chair in the hall and much of the standing room, so that when the procession was in the last foot of space was gone. It was one of the finest audiences that ever gathered for such a purpose on the North Shore. Mr. Foss spoke of the intelligence and good order afterwards as something phenomenal. All those whom we have mentioned, and some others filled the platform, while Mr. Montgomery presided, and the local Republican Quartette sang campaign songs.

Mr. Foss spoke an hour and a half, completely covering the field of this campaign. That other Vermonter promised not to speak—he did not. In fact he was home sick in bed.

The Republicans of this city and vicinity did themselves proud on that occasion, and the whole thing was to the credit of Highland Park, irrespective of all party considerations. As impartial journalists, we record with pleasure and pride such an event as that.

Penny Wise, Pound Foolish.

It is difficult for a broad-minded, tax paying citizen to comprehend the narrow, niggardly, one-cent principle which seems to dictate the policy, of some at least, of our common council in the matter of streets and sidewalks. Whether Mayor Cobb or Alderman Grant, chairman of finance committee, shall direct the public policy in general seems to have been recently a matter of contention among them. In the meantime public interests must suffer and the public purse must be endangered, while the common council haggle over the matter of a few planks on a sidewalk.

The bridge which constitutes the sidewalk on Linden avenue, between the General Flint property and Mr. Boulton's place, is in a dangerous condition, and some day before long it will go down, with the strong probability that the city will have a heavy damage bill to pay, and yet the council refuses to rebuild the bridge, unless the properties abutting will furnish the plank.

It is contrary to precedent in the matter of bridges in this city, it is contrary to justice, it is contrary to common sense, to require Mr. Boulton and the General Flint estate to replank that walk. The walk is for the public, and abutting property owners haven't worn it out. The bridge is of no particular value to them, and we don't suppose either of them care a picayune whether the bridge is rebuilt at all or not, but the general public does care. By and by the snows will come and no man would venture on the bridge with a horse and snow-plow to clear the path. CITIZEN.

TRUST

Your watches, clocks and jewelry to Levin, the jeweler, and you will have good time.

TO LET.

East Side—Barn and Carriage House, large enough for 3 Horses and two carriages. Apply to Manager, News Office.

INDEPENDENT

Of any party or incorporation, but work for the best interest of the people. Levin, the jeweler, third door from the postoffice.

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Co. have made arrangements whereby they will furnish private wires for election bulletin service in November for clubs, hotels, public gatherings, saloons or individuals at a minimum cost. For rates, etc. see

JAS. H. DUFFY, 248 Central Ave. Phone 70.