Take your jewelry to Schneider & Cooke's for repairs. They do their own work.

Miss C. E. Ellis of Chicago is visiting her sister Mrs. S. C. Dorsey on Second street.

There is something less than a ton of useless Republican campaign literature left up in the old headquarters.

The Reliable Laundry is not backward in publishing a list of their prices, because they are the lowest. See their ad.

L. G. Yoe's family went to Chicago for the winter Wednesday after Mr. Yoe had voted for sound money and prosperity.

For fine Ice Creams, Fruit Ices, Home made Fancy and Plain Cakes, go to Lewis the Caterer, Basye Blk. Phone 451. 23-

The price of milk has gone up to seven cents a quart, and so economical people will buy less and then add a little water.

Miss Lilian Thayer will receive pupils in Voice Culture, Charles Adams method. With Mrs. Ashton, Highland Park. 23

W. F. Edwards is putting a brick foundations under his house, now that McKinley is elected on a basis of protection, prosperity and progress.

We want to thank Mr. Morton for completing the east end of the Boulton cement sidewalk, so that it is now a smooth level surface, above water and slush and so nice for wheeling in this muddy weather.

E. Norman Scott who spent the summer at Ravinook, his third season there, went to Chicago Thursday. He and two other young men will keep bachelors' ball with an occasional day off on the Exmoor golf links.

Miss Minnie L. Streiber, who has been for the last three years or more in the employ the Highland Park Electric Light Co., as book-keeper and cashier, has resigned. Her place is taken by a young man from up north.

A. P. Dunn, the news man has the finest line of magazines for this month we ever saw in a suburban town of this or any other size. Not only is his variety very large, but they are the choice magazines of the day, and he displays them in such an attractive manner that it is a great pleasure to go in there.

Last Sabbath Rev. Pfanstiel preached a sermon on the subject of "Religion in Business and Business in Religion" to a large audience at the Presbyterian church. Continuing the series of practical subjects he will preach next Sabbath morning on the subject, "Gambling." Special and urgent invitation is given to young men to attend.

We understand our neighbor Anderson on Prospect avenue has bought a lot farther down the street toward the lake, and now he and his wife, after the children are snugly tucked in bed, sit up nights studying house plans. The way to his house is to begin with the kitchen, have it open on three sides, the dining room open on two sides, then tuck away your parlors etc. in odd or square corners left unused.

At the new election of officer for the Exmoor club our ex-city secretary, Kenneth R. Smoot was elected secretary and now he finds he has enough to do to use up all his moments, evenings, etc.

The patent heating apparatus in the new high school house is working order and it is expected to thaw out some of the dormant intellects of the kids who stole their way up there.

C. B. Easton, of West Deerfield, rode up in the electric car with us Thursday morning past the big new high school building and he said some things we won't repeat.

Do you know you can have your laundry done cheaper at the Reliable Laundry than you can have it done at home, besides it saves the annoyance. Read their display ad.

The Baker estate has sold to the Gas Company 25 feet of lot 1, block 22, next the Library building for an office we presume, for $712 cash sale.

The Ossoli Club.

The Ossoli Club met on Thursday afternoon at the Highland Park Club House and considered the subject of "Our Nation's New Possessions." The ladies gathered in the lecture room of the club where they listened to a paper on Cuba, by Mrs. R. P. Page Wainwright, of Fort Sheridan, and to one upon Porto Rico, by Mrs. Carleton Moseley. Mrs. D. M. Cobb read extracts from some entertaining letters written by the wife of one of our army officers stationed in the Philippines. Mrs. Woodward, but recently returned from China, was the guest of the club and told the ladies of her experiences during the siege of Peking.

Mrs. A. O. Mason furnished the music, which was Spanish in character, and played a Blerro and Habanera arranged for the piano by Monsieur Lacombe.

Mrs. W. D. Messenger was the hostess for the afternoon while Mrs. Harry Clark and Mrs. J. W. Prindiville poured tea in the ladies' reception room.

Keating-Smith.

On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the brides parents, a company of friends gathered to witness the marriage ceremony which united in wedlock Miss Carolyn E. Smith of this city and Harry J. Keating of Chicago; Rev. A. Haelele being the officiating clergyman. The house was beautifully decorated, the bridal party appeared to best advantage and the marriage supper was all that could be desired and was heartily enjoyed by all. The bride is well known in our city being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith who have lived here for many years. The groom, Mr. Keating has been employed for years in the telephone factory which has just recently been moved to New York city where Mr. and Mrs. Keating will make their future home. The bridal party took their journey for New York on the night of the wedding with many congratulations and good wishes of their friends. Showers of blessings in the shape of rice followed them out of the house and into the car. May their journey through life be blessed and prosperous.

A. G. McPherson, who has been connected with the Electric Light Company from the start, proving a most capable Superintendent, has resigned to give his time to some personal work of his own. Mr. Reeseman, we believe, of Winnetka, needs him. "Mac" is a "natural born" as well as trained mechanical expert in electrically and any other machinery or mechanical line.

Dan Sheahan, the veteran milk man, has a plan for managing the watering of the milk by milk dealers which is so cute the patrons won't complain at all. He will give it to us to publish next week.

In the United Evangelical Church the pastor, A. Haelele, will preach Sunday evening about "The Hereafter of Sin," taking for his text Matt. 25-41.

The Hogan Wedding.

Thursday evening, November 8th, President and Mrs. William F. Hogan celebrated their silver wedding. It was their plan to have a quiet family affair in their own home, but their friends took it to the Odd Fellow's large and pleasant hall, where from 75 to 100 guests, old time friends and neighbors from Highwood, Chicago and elsewhere gathered to do them honor.

Among those from Chicago were: Mr. and Mrs. Siebert, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Meek and daughter, with Miss Finlay, of California; Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Inman. There were some from Lake Forest; Mr. and Mrs. Mullen and others; Editor A. K. Stearns, of Lake Bluff, and a large number of the County board of Supervisors, including Chairman Lamey, of Barrington, who was wholly captured by the blonde belles of Highwood.

The Citizen's band were present and rendered a few pieces, while the music for the dancing was by Messrs. Kalbasa and Sladek, of Chicago. Refreshments were abundant and choice, served in the large and finely equipped dining-room connected with the hall. There were no formal set speeches but a delightful social evening, with dancing for those who wished, led by Mr. Rhodes as general manager.

The presents were numerous and choice. The following is a partial list: Fruit basket, Mr. and Mrs. Muzik; inkstand and penholder, Mr. and Mrs. Moren; tableforks, Mr. and Mrs. Siebert; gravyspoon, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Mullen, of Lake Forest; berryspoon, A. K. Stearns, Lake Bluff; an elegant solid silver handle carving set, from the village officials of Highwood; fine hair brush, Mae Welch; pie spoon and napkin rings, Condon and Holmes; desertspoons, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson; coffee set with tray, "Ed and Susie" (Sheaben); fine berryspoon, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Inman, of Chicago News; pitcher, S. M. Meek and family, Chicago; gold lined berry dish, Miss Mary E. and Smith Latta; set oyster forks, Shelton family, same by John E. Crowley; berryspoon, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clarke, Chicago; entire dinner set of solid silver forks, spoons, etc., in elegant case from Board of Supervisors; berry dish and spoon, Odd Fellow's and Rebecca's; cake dish, John Hickey; gravy dish and tray, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Turner. Altogether it was a delightful and long-to-be remembered affair, a credit to Highwood and a worthy testimonial to Mr. and Mrs. Hogan.

If you are thinking of giving a reception, dinner or card party, give your order to Lewis the Caterer, and you will be artistically served.

Successful Competition.

Mr. Bahr, the florist, brought up some specimens of his prize chrysanthemums, the Major Bonafon and the Mrs. W. C. Egan, which won the first and second prizes in the late flower show in Chicago. The exhibits were large, especially the Bonafons, and hence his success is the more noteworthy. It is also a matter of local pride that our florist should go in there, contending with the big concerns of Chicago and the city parks and capture first prizes. It should also satisfy the most critical of the quality of Mr. Bahr's goods. He furnished the decorations for all our recent weddings. Everyone who has seen the samples on our table is surprised and delighted.

The Halfday Bridge.

The special committee in charge, of which Cassin B. Easton is chairman, of the new steel bridge over the Des Plaines at Vernon, on the Highwood road, met at Waukegan Thursday and settled with the contractors. The bridge is 125 feet long by 18 feet wide, and rests on solid stone piers 17 inches above the grade or level of the old pile bridge. The piers are a fine piece of mason work and cost $2,000.

If your eyes bother you or you have headaches, call at Schneider & Cooke's and have your eyes tested by an expert optician.
