Explanation.

Many of our readers are, doubtless, wondering what has become of the Weekly Supplement, and if it is to be dropped. By no means. We have been putting in a cylinder press, a larger new cutter, a larger motor, and making other additions to our plant, which has made it impossible to run the full size of the paper. We trust next week, to be fully installed, and the Supplement is here to stay. In fact it is only a question of a short time when the NEWS-LETTER will be eight pages instead of six.

John Mohr moved into his new barber shop in the Evans block on Thursday.

Miss Esther A. Schulz, of Chicago, spent Sunday at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. A. E. Dorsey.

Dr. Ingalls says he has a "bone to pick" with us. All right Doctor, let it be that of a good Lake count fattened turkey about Nov. 29th at 1 o'clock p. m. Catch on, don't you?

Some prominent young men of this city have formed a young men's social pleasure club. They will give their first mask ball on November 22 at Goldberg's opera house.

A marriage license has been issued to Fred J. Langdon, of Highland Park, and Miss Emily L. Wilby, of this city. Their ages are said to be 30 and 29 years respectively.

Some of our enterprising school ma'ams spent Tuesday in the Glencoe schools and were much pleased. They run things down there on the Golden Rule plane and every one governed by Love and all are happy.

The Lady Maccabee's gave a party in Blackler's hall at Lake Forest on Wednesday last which was also enjoyed by the Maccabees of Highland Park and many of their friends.

J. W. Smith who has been, for several years an engineer at the Highland Park Electric Light plant will leave for Idaho where he will superintend a lighting and telephone plant.

John Cushman's family moved to Chicago for the winter so as to be more convenient for the ex-aldeman and also for Miss Cushman her work in the Chicago University. We suppose they will be back in the spring to enjoy those new cement sidewalks.

A. W. Fletcher asked us Saturday if we did not know Foss was elected for nothing was said of it in the paper. We thought Mr. Fletcher and other imperialists knew the men who came from the state when they try. That's a way they have in fact they are built that way you see. Hence no need of saying anything about it.

It grieved us Saturday a week to see James H. Duffy's drays taken to the depot to be shipped to Cleveland, Ohio. The young man was a good neighbor. Neither he nor his family run in at our back door hours of the day nor did his chickens scratch in our garden. He is a pleasant, genial man and we shall miss him but they need him in Ohio.

If you are thinking of giving a reception, dinner or card party, give your order to Lewis the Caterer, you will be artistically served.

A. L. Lewis, Caterer, Branch store, Basye Block, Highland Park. Phone 451.

Political Slogans.

DEMOCRATIC:—"Anything to get in."

REPUBLICAN:—"Anything to keep the other fellow out."

PROHIBITION:—"Anything legitimate to save humanity from the destruction caused by the legalized liquor traffic."

The subject of Rev. Pfautsch's sermon at the Presbyterian Church tomorrow will be "Is Honesty the Best Policy?"

The J. L. Ball house, on Prospect avenue, is rented for the winter to the Ganse family, of Waukegan. We think Mr. and Mrs. Ball and Peter are boarding in Chicago for the winter.

Wickham & Fisher have dissolved business relations with the public and their shop in the Brand block is closed. Andy went to Texas, to vote for Bryan, where he had a big majority, and Fisher has gone to Chicago.

Mrs. Secor Cunningham left her Chicago winter home at 1824 Prairie avenue, Wednesday for Philadelphia, New York and the eastern cities, and will time her visit to the metropolis so as to take in the horse show.

Our northern suburb, Waukegan, has a public heating plant like its lighting plant, etc. The steam was turned on Monday night and works well so far, and now lots of people who wanted to "see how the thing works" will have their homes and places of business piped.

Miss Minnie Streiber's wedding comes next week, Wednesday evening. If all her friends attend they will have to build an addition to the brick meeting house. We fear pastor Haelele is getting the lion's share of this business. If he is not careful we shall make a cut rate on weddings and scoop the town.

Dan P. Sheahan says the secret not serving his customers with watered milk is not to put any water into it. That great lesson he was taught by his honored father, and it works like a charm. All we need to say is that if this town never had but one honest, upright man, his name was Patrick Sheahan.

Highland Park is probably to have the great privilege of having Mrs. Wilward Adams, of Chicago, here in a few weeks to deliver one of her famous lectures. Arrangements are being made for this, and it is sincerely hoped that they will be carried through successfully, for it would be an honor and an unusual privilege to have Mrs. Adams visit Highland Park.

Mr. Luddington, a non-commissioned officer from the Fort was married to Miss Wilby, at the Ingleside, Thursday evening by Rev. Brandcombe, the Episcopal clergyman at Glencoe. Miss Wilby has lived in the family of Mr. Woodruff and they were present with other guests at the wedding. The wedding dinner was served at 9:30 in Dr. Ingalls' best style to sixteen guests. Mr. and

Mrs. Luddington are staying at the Ingleside.

Mr. Levin's Invention.

Samuel Levin, the jeweler, has invented—and his claim for a patent has been allowed—a bottle stopper that will allow the liquid contents of a bottle to be poured out, but you can't refill the bottle or remove the stopper without breaking the neck of the bottle. Such a stopper has long been wished for by manufacturers of high grade bottled goods of all kinds to prevent adulteration and frauds, and Mr. Levin's invention does it.

The stopper is made of glass, fits the neck of the bottle perfectly and is held in place by an invisible spring that acts like a ratchet, and the seal is a little ball or float in a small chamber, which falls away and lets the liquid out, but seals the entrance at the first attempt to refill the bottle. Mr. Levin's invention is a valuable one, as there is a great demand for that kind of a stopper, and we all hope he will succeed in placing it with energetic, capable manufacturers.

Dealings in Dirt.

Recent realty changes in this city may be mentioned as follows:

R. G. Evans to Alexander Shulz, lot 14, McDaniel's sub-division, $1,000.

Baker estate, pt. lot 1, block 22, to Gas Company, $712.

Thos. H. Hulbert to Florence C. Anderson, lot 2, block 57, $2,500.

Henry Obee to Fred Saffenberger, pt. lot 1, block 8, $300.

George Hardie to D. M. Erskine, pt. lot 5, block 14, $1,500.

Anna Burbach to Martin Sullivan, pt. lot 48, $688.

Mrs. Julia M. G. Dings to W. F. Edwards, lot 12, block 3, $900.

The Masquerade.

Those who trip the "light fantastic" will not overlook the grand masquerade next Thursday evening November 22nd, in Goldberg's opera house to be given by the Social Club. It will be a nobby affair of the kind, first class management, fine music, choice company, and a lot of fine prizes. You can purchase masks at Goldberg's store.

City Council.

There was an adjourned meeting Tuesday evening, with Messrs. Stubbs, Grant and McCaffry absent. After Clerk Finney read a long lot of records, the aldermen went to the regular business and transacted a lot of it. Ex-mayor Fletcher, who was present, suggests that the absence of some of the aldermen facilitated the transaction of the business.

The street and alley committee recommended the building of the bridges on St. John's above the new school house and the one down south so as to let out judge Comstock and his bike. The Auditing committee was instructed to look out for the "sinews of war" to meet the expense. The work to be done by the day under Supt. Morton's direction. Our reporter was absent from sickness, a past-election ailment.

Our Boom.

How our town is booming. New buildings are going up as follows: The Matteson home, two story brick house on Hazel; the Andrews two story frame house on Lake avenue; the Dr. Bergen three story business brick block on St. John's avenue, two stores, the Loeb three story brick block on Central, west, for Geiser Bros' future meat market; Mrs. Prof. Gray's fine new house on Laurel, two story and a half, wood; Trinity church, an English model church, brick, and the finest on the north shore.

In addition to all this lots of people are making repairs and sundry improvements on their homes, so that the old town seems as if waking from a sort of Rip Van Winkle sleep as the new century comes in.

A Unique Contest.

Mrs. Bohl has in her show window a "Renaissance" table piece, 36 inches square, elaborately wrought, it looks like a piece of hand-made lace. This she will give as a prize to the one who makes the best guess on the number of beans in a sealed glass jar or case in her store.

Every patron will have one guess for each dollar's worth of goods purchased in her store. A written register of the voters and their guesses will be kept by Mrs. Bohl so there can be no fraud or deception in any way. As all our ladies have to make purchases in her line they had better visit her store and see for themselves.

Valuable Books.

Probably the ablest and best novel of the year if not of this decade is Mrs. Humphrey Ward's "Eleanor." Mrs. Ward is a granddaughter of the famous Thomas Arnold, of Rugby, and this work is her "masterpiece," so styled by the critics. In fiction she stands alongside Charlotte Bronte and George Eliott.

In biography the great book is John Morley's Life of Cromwell, an admirable supplement to Carlyle's Letters and Speeches of the great Protector, and we are pleased to note that our library committee has anticipated our wishes and put them both in our public library. If they can add Lord Roseberry's Napoleon we will be content. We are happy as it is.

MAJORITY of the people in Highland Park have their jewelry repaired at Levin, The Jeweler, 2nd door north of Postoffice.

Hon. and Mrs. B. J. Cloes of Lake Bluff, the Prohibitionist's candidate for the legislature, will celebrate the 25th anniversary of their marriage at their home this week Saturday evening, Nov. 17th. We need hardly add that there will be no "sperits" served to their guests.
