wn house maids. usiastic and hopeall are related to rriage or ties of pect to make the e shall watch, it and hope for its dy can make a but we caution find a good deal ring around loose od." If not, the out triumphant. young men with wide-awake, enert here to build for r homes, become nd do all they can aterially, socially ay, and as such people will give/

Meet.

Lake county will neeting Thursday sive, December 6 The county Hughes, a wideand successful He can do somefarmer can't do. his farm, milking utter and cheese, calves to drink, te., he can write natities to suit. al county speakcommittee has seabers of a state hampaign to help egarded as one of all, some of the its studying agriversity in Chamers showing what it the school of ded lots of such t and all over the Il these states exe know from pere vast amount of oing. Someway, seen the farmers e not developed em which their ates, especially in n, manifest where into these meetse and a success possess. Go to lumn.

N. MANAGER.

· Waukegan.

cents per lines

room house, hot ppliances; strictnable rent. Oakr corner Lincoln. railroad depot.

WANTED

ner, lunch and by the day. and Park. 21-3m

e passenger wagle harness, at R. 20 - 22

and Carriage

h for 3 Horses Apply to ate sezed open yle of Franklin ie Fire Fly. Inating stove for ager News-Let-

Successful Merchants

Never let up on Advertis-ing. In these days one must advertise to keep bus-iness as well as to Increase Business...

The best medium for lake shore enterprises is the news-Letter.

HIGHWOOD,

FORT SHERIDAN, HIGHLANI PARK,

RAVINIA, GLENCOE, Artistic Caste.. Expert Workmanship

putation. Our printing has Style to Please You..

Send your next printing to the NEWS-LETTER.

WINNETKA, LAKESIDE

NO. 2

VOL IX.

LAKE FOREST,

Highland Park.

Bazar patterns at Mrs. Bohl's.

Miss Bella Grant spent the first of Mrs. A. Haefele spent several days of last week with her parents at Naperville Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whiteway of Ravenswood, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. Moon last Sunday.

Professional Nurse, wishes engagement in Highland Park or vicinity. he died are trying to find his bairs. city improve its streets by special The discussion was especially live- upon Tschaikowsky, sketching the Address, P. O. Box 465.

house and lot 25 block 23 to Hugh on these heirs by telling A. W. Flet; by general taxation. It means in fully two selections of music, and paper was followed by the magnifi-McFarlane Jr. has not yet been re- cher all they know of the case. corded.

office a short call on Thursday and squirrels Mr. Frank P. Hawking has also inspected the new press and about his plece. Only a day or other machinery.

Gieser 25 feet of her 100 foot lot, kill the little pets. We suggest to making both places now 75 feet Mr. Hawkins that he have the mar- papers to give a free copy to every front on Second street, lot 11, block sha! arrest some of them and put giving recess at home but he brought sausage for the season Tuesday the his school books along, so as not to 4th and sent us down a sample for forget where he left off when school Wednesday morning's breakfast and stopped.

larged paper this week. They will home-made sausage, a dozen or so of also not fail to read our thrilling buckwheat griddle cakes, plenty story, dream though it was, it con- maple syrup, a cup or two of Chase tains profound truths.

Think of it, our friends in the wanted for a good breakfast? East went to church last Sunday in a Paul Gieser having bought lot to advertisers. No one expects the sleigh and rejoiced in two feet of on Second street 25x150 feet is look- grocer or market man to "throw in" snow, while here we were basking in ing around for a second hand ellar a can of fruit or a pound of steak to spring or early summer weather.

the pastor, A. Haefele, will in the on lot 15 block 7 which could be morning, preach about "The Open Door," and in the evening about "An Important Question," Acts XVI. 30.

of jewelry, silver novelties and silver find a purchaser by calling of Mr. town of Deerlield got its share of New White Light Incandescent Vapor C. & N-W. Co........... 3,363,353 trade. It will be to your advantage to see them before purchasing elsewhere.

each 100 feet front.

a home. Mrs. McFarlane, nee Nora and she intends to visit her ciends and drove on in silence. Bergen, especially likes the Park and in the Park in the spring, if not bethis will give her a home across the fore. street from her brother's Winchester nearly two years ago, Leach in Burlington, Iowas She has with his father purchased the spent one day in Chicago with her Bingham place, and will build homes Iowa, for a visit with her sister, Mrs. it materialize.

in the Lion's Den," in English its regular annual meeting next veek art.

Anyone who can shed any light

A lot of the school boys have Col. Turnley paid the News LETTER trying of late to kill some ago they invaded his grounds, burl-Miss Eliza Waite has sold to Paul ing stones in all directions trying to Gerald Cheney spent his Thanks- Gieser Brothers made their first we shall sample it again. Tak Our readers will observe our en bowl of oatmeal thouroughly co ked, and Sanborn's Java, what more

In the United Evangelical Church We told him W. F. Edwards lett one business.

Mrs. Julia R. Leach left_ Vednes-John Putnam, who married Miss day for her winter home will Miss missed here till her return in April. Mrs. Adams The services at the Ebenezer Her house will be occupied y Mr.

er of Body and Soul," in the fer- house, whose specialties are fine, man language. 7:30 p. m. "Daniel high-priced subscription books. The Highland Park Club will | old | elegent specimens of the book makers | tertaining Mrs. Penoyer Sherman, of | member had the privilege of extend-to hear the reports and elect new payers to the ordinance passed by men's financial position in the home. The large lecture room of the there to prevent a breach of peace. two bridges named, and then the ed record of woman's abilities. Some years ago a man na ned balance some $5,000 or $6,000 to be some property and the courts where tutional to make one portion of the expressed. on assessments and then turn around ly and suggestive. The sale of the J. C. Cushman this matter will confer a great favor and improve another part of the city Miss Humphrey rendered delight work in a most delightful way. The plain English that the east side tax- Miss Thayer sang with sensitive ex- cent Trio, for piano, violin and cello, payers improve their own streets and pression several songs for children written by Tschaikowsky after the then turn around and pay much the composed by the president, Mrs. death of his friend Rubenstein and larger half for improving those on Fessenden. two the west side. We simply want our The spirit of childhood permeated assisted in this by Mr. Leon Mary decide what should be done.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1900.

> It was an old custom with country ties advertiser. This is well enough on them in the lock-up for a week er so. six month or yearly contracts, but for transient or a few weeks or month or two if is wholly impracticable. In the first place we give our advertisers their money's worth in advertising, our rates are low because we want to induce all our business people to advertise. In the second place transien; or short term advertising cats up all the profit in look ing after it. Hence after the first of January 1901 the News LETTER will give up this practice of a "free paper' so he can start a first class house. each patron every month, that is not

Here is another one on Dan Shea bought cheap, but he is afra c Mr. hen. He, with a lot of other Deer-Edwards is a democrat and he don't field farmers, politicians, and etc. want any "16 to 1" business a his went over to Libertyville to the cellar. If any Republicans has such Lake County Agricultural Society's Schneider & Cooke have a fine line a cellar lying around loose, he night annual meeting, to see that this old plated ware, for their Christmas Gieser at the west side meat in irket. the official "plums." The roads The many friends of Mrs. Mary were horride cept where they have Make their own gas from 95 per L. Bingham will be glad to know been improved with "Hufda" gravel. cent. common, every-day air, which that she still holds her own, t ough On the drive home when in the mud costs nothing, and gasoline at ten Charles L. Bingham hassold Abel a very sick woman. Her strong will to the hubs out beyond Peter Daw- cents per gallon. A hundred candle A. Putnam lots 12 and 13 block 53. is set for her own recovery and son's a prominent citizen (W. F. H.?) power light ten hours for a cent, more Each lot is 100 feet front on Pros- eminent physicians know that s often of Highwood called out to our brilliant than electricity and cheaper pect avenue. Together they will the greater half of the battle for life. knight of the milk can. "Say, Dan than candles. No smoke, no odor, make a fine building site. There Mrs. Leach and Mrs. Hibbar spent how is this for a road." "Oh this is absolutely safe. Fifteen styles. Ev. are three more lots left in that tract an hour with her Wednesday lafter- all right" replied our jolly neighbor. ery lamp guaranteed to give perfect noon and found her better that they Oh yes came the quick reply, "You satisfaction or money refunded. Get Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McFarlane Jr. expected. She talked all the hour are from Highland Park where they our complete catalogue. We also are looking over the Cushman house and enjoyed it, her mind is c'e ir and don't know what good roads are." manufacture high grade and lot with respect of purchase and strong as ever, her resolution fixed "Nuffeed" whispered Dan to a friend Skates. THE RICHARDSON

firs. Adams' Lecture.

east portion of "Tanglewood," the brother, thence to Marsha ltown, was held immediately after the lec- phoned out to his wife the situation for their two families this season. East over the holidays, with she those present an opportunity to be- families here in the Park so their plans and specifications for the build-At least that is the plan now. May goes to Burlington. She will be come personally acquainted with dinners were not held back.

be:-11:00 a. m. "Satan a destroy- well known Philadelphia pullishing the News-LETTER this week.

Women's Club Meeting.

Those we have seen are rare and Women's Club had the honor of en- day on Friday, the 6th, when each the week with friends in Chicago. Saturday evening at the club-house, We call the attention of our tax. charming manner considered wo friend.

officers for the year 1901. Wet ust the city council last Tuesday evening | The conclusion of which was that Highland Park Club House was filled they won't need the city mar hal to bond the city for $10,000, for the she has no such position in the print to overflowing with the gathering

James A. Story lived in this twn. spent in grave ing certain streets on club with their presence and courte est and Waukegan as well as High-He died several years ago, and left the west side. Is that legal, constitution of the sentiments land Park.

tax-payers to think this over and the room to the delight of all and and Mr. R. Ambrosius of the Thom the ennoblement of womanly quali- as orchestra, who came from Chicago

The C. & N-W. Accident.

That accident of the Chicago and close of the meeting. Northwestern power house in Chicago Monday evening, was a very was assisted by Miss Turnley and serious affair. A big tubular boiler Miss Prall who served tea in the was carried through the walls of the library. building, through a parlor car and landed one hundred feet away on the tracks, resulting in the death of six persons, and serious injury to several more. No Highland Park or Waukegan passenger was injured.

No one seems to know how it happened, probably low water, but it reveals the deadly peril lurking in blockaded for some hours. The loss September, " of property was a score or two of October, " thousands beside the half dozen or Gas Lamps.

BEARING SKATE Co., 152-154-156-158 Lake Street, Chicago, Ill.

In spite of the storm many people Mr. Anderson the singer and several that we sell bacteria and all, and attended the lecture on Modern Dra- others of our business men got caught hence are in the "adulterated water" matic Art, given by Mrs. Milward in Chicago, Monday night by the business for all-the money there is Adams, Thursday evening, at the collapse of a building which held in it. Presbyterian church. A reception back their trains. Mr. Anderson ture in the church parlors; giving and she phoned to the other men's tect Ottenheimer, of Chicago, has

Church for the coming Sunday will Robert Barrie of Detroit, one of the Be sure you get the eight pages of spent part of last week with her aunt mer is desirous that the work will be Mrs. William Tillman.

The Ossoll Club.

December 4th the Highland Park | The Ossoli Club enjoyed a guest Chicago, who in an informal and ing the hospitality of the club to a guests being present from Chicago, Several gentlemen favored the Evanston, Fort Sheridan, Lake For-

Mrs. Annette R. Jones read a paper man, his life, his appearance and his dedicated to him. Mrs. Jones was for that purpose and to whom the president of the Ossoli extended the hearty thanks of the club at the

Mrs. H. C. Carver, the hostess,

Any one contemplating buying watches, clocks, and jewelry, will do well to consult Levin, the jeweler. If you can't find what you want in stock he will order it for you, and save you about 40 per cent.

Pumpage Report.

Engineer Laing submitted a resteam boilers, especially if at all port for the station for the three carelessly handled. The building months of August, September and was practically wrecked, and "Vester October as well as a separate one for Sykes Milwaukee express pulled out November. The first was substanall right though the parlor car was tially as follows in gallons pumped: smashed, but all later trains were August, total pumpage....12,920,366

Total pumpage 3 months...31,379,016 The water was distributed as fol-

Fort Sheridan Village 4,619,301 Gray Electric Co...... 653,000 Exmoor Club..... Electric Light Co..... All other Metered folks 10,142,290 Total gallons sold.........21,518,034

Besides the water sold that was used for flushing sewers, dead ends, sprinkling streets, filling new mains, wetting down trenches, streets, etc., 5,822,765. Of the water pumped 77 per cent is revenue producing, and 23 per cent yields no revenue.

Our water system is getting to be quite an institution and yields a large revenue. But we must bear in mind

We have been informed that archiings to be erected for Messrs. Leopold, Steele, Foreman and Schwab Miss Flossie Guthrie, of Chicago, at Highland Park. Mr. Ottenheidone by home contractors.