flood

as age of good books and of religious papers, and ews, and excellent maga-

circulating libraries so poorest can become in-

on all subjects, there is no or dirth of worthy ideas in versation. What is more.

rould not be if good litera-

ork, Boston, Cincinnati,

St. Louis and New Or.

rarious kinds of reading

"In making up the table, all combined. Who is

nand for such reading-

ng to law and only 351

theology and religion, 283

oks published in our coun-

re in fiction and largely dime anescent fiction - What does cate? True, fiction often is in impressing truth; but it is feeding on condiments, any-

d. if taught nothing more, that an can the body thus grow condiment and is used as

The first sermon of a series of eight, delivered by Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl; in Highland Park Presbyterian Church.

these things which had happened." vivial clubs? No: t was the (Luke 24:14)

The conversation of these two men on their way to Emmans became to them the most blessed revelation the world ever had, even that of the resurrected Saviour.

tion."

panions.

sation should be.

fied; and by thy words thou shalt it!" be condemned," (Matt. 12:27.) "For every idle word thou shalt be who gossips. Alas! das! many a mo brought into judgment." Our words financial ruin of firms that other. mo are but the outward expression, or wise would have pulled through the index of what we are. They safely have resulted from the hell- i are the hands of the clockwork ish whisperings of chicious busi-s within. Tell me what conversa- ness men-whispers reeking with I tion a man delights in and I will destructive, blighting insinuations, c tell you what his prevailing thoughts as deadly as the imoons that r and desires are and what his heart sweep over the deser. The Lord y is, i. e. what the man is. "As a deliver us from goss ping converman thinketh so is he," and largely sation. as a man converseth so he think- 3. Conversation and be eleeth. Think purely and you will vating. be pure, and talk purely. And Oh, that people would study to li shouldn't we? "Immodest words say things worth stying, and say admit of no defence."

ably ruined because his compan- should not be vive ity, sprighlyions dragged him into the slums ness in our talk, a mereal tone; to of impure conversation. Especi- no, but it means a from of extravaally dangerous is this in the pres- gance in speech that is as mean- no ence of children. It has been well ingless as it is weak and disgusting, the said that purity of speech is as _a profuse use of dverbs. Per- he much to purity of action as kind haps the temptation to this is m and gentle speech is to peace and stronger in young ladies than good will.

"O, many a shaft at random sent, Finds mark the archer little meant; And many a word at random spoken, May sooth or wound a heart that's independent" I don't care" air, freebroken."

considerate.

most abound,

Much fruit of sense is rarely found."

ticularly of those young people evening he came ho re with a budwho laudibly aspire sometime to get of news. An au uaintance had be of influence in a community, failed in business. He spike of and who hope to fill places of trust the incident as " liciously sad." and leadership: "Whose language He had ridden up town with a re is heeded in a community? Whose noted wit, whom in described as A words are received with confidence "horribly entertaining," and to cap the Ecottish peasantry, as a body, the power of the Holy Spirit, that is and are taken as the language that the climax he spole of the butter could do this, and often by fireside able more effectually to close the forms the judgment of people? which had been se; before him at an wayside, reasoned high of provi- mouths of scoffers, of infidels, of The loud declaimers, the wordy a country hotel as "divinely ran- dence foreknowledge, will and fate, blasphemers, than the earnest, honpersons, who delight to run about cid." The young people started, fix ate, free will, foreknowledge est, courageous, godly conversation and hastily form and freely ex. and the oldest daughter said: about e." People whose conversa: of a true Christian. The words of House, large enough for 3 Horses press an opinion on any and every "Why, papa, I she ild think you tio, took such turns could not but hypocrits have no weight, pious talls and two carriages. Apply to question of family, municipal, na- were out of your head." "Not in great on the design of family, municipal, naquestion of family, municipal, national or international interest? the least, my dear he said pleasto God-gloryfying. Nor is the words of a true man of God have or from the se who sit on store antly. "I'm merely trying to fol- she boxes and whittle and talk and low the fashion. talk and whittle? who in the ex- 'divinely rancid' wi citable times of Philip II. of Spain of labor. It seems to me rather s was looked upon and chosen as the more effective than awfully sweet. standard-bearer of the party who I mean to keep up with the rest of la world religious teleration and house del by common consent. true civil liberty? The noisy "And they talked together of all talker on street corne " and in con-Prince of Orange, ore who, because he was always considerate in what he said was called William,

Stillest streams oft vater fairest excu meadows, and the birt that flutters our least is lorgest on the

It is proposed this morning to This naturally leads me to speak ture bought and read, rather consider the subject of "Conversa- a word on the subject of gossip. than | lee low, trashy stuff with Gossip! What a dist isting word! which the markets are flooded. Much of life's comfort and wel- It breathes of the bother world. have my study a table that gives fare depends upon it. Rash lan- Gossip! Well nan d. It sips the prortionate amount of news guage, impulsive speech, unguarded the life out of all that is worthy space alwoted by fourteen leading, words-what a curse these have and true and great! Wherever a representative daily newspapers of been and are in the world! On the gossip goes "at ever word a rep- New other hand, pure conversation, lofty utation dies!" Dr. Lalmage was Chic speech, worthy words-how in- scarcely extravagant hen he said: lean spiring, how blessed, how encour- "The most loathsori, miserable, mat aging, how healing! "A new light God-forsaken wretch in earth is a says falls upon our course from the in- gossip. I can tell her in the Nev spiring conversation of a friend." street though I have never seen for Darkness, shadow, falls athwart her before. She wiks fast and cint our pathway when unworthy con- has her bonnet strigs loose, for lear versation is indulged in with com- she had not had time to tie them and since she heard that ast scandal. day 1. Consider what our conver- She looks both ways she passes, cep hoping to see new evidences of in It should be pure. "Blessed are disparity in the wind ws. I think is the pure in heart, for they that when Satan has I job so infi-per shall see God." "Keep thy heart nitely mean that in all the pit he slu with all diligence, for out of it are cannot find a devil mean enough the the issues of life." "Out of the to do it, and all briles and threats mu abundance of the heart the mouth have failed to get one willing to lite speaketh." There is, therefore, undertake the infide crusade, he to deep meaning; as well as strict jus- says to one of his set ; eants: "Go No tice, in these scripture statements. up to earth, get l'at gossiping is "By thy words thou shalt be justi- woman and she will be glad to do suc

But it is not alveys a woman | ma them in a proper, e evating way. Many a soul has been irretriev- Nor does this man that there so among any other chas; at all events c among them. it is noticed more indicates in What a weakness any woman to assure a swaggering ly using such phras as "My good-2. Our conversation should be ness,"-"Goodness gracious" and to everything is "Awfully nice," and I and "Awfully "Words are like leaves; and where they "Awfully stupid" awful." A sensible business man cured his children of such senseless Let me ask this question par- habits of speech in his way: One ave worked out b

ha good deal i

ge that lifts the soul heaven- through life is marked with sweet desired to free there elves from you meafter, and now, he con- ward and awakens a desire to be and memories left behind to encourage the despotism of an autocrat, tinued let me help you to a piece live better to the glory of God in the and bless many burdened hearts, aye, as well as from the spherstition of of the exquisitely tough beef." doing of good. 'Tis a sad thing that the influence of his words and life a fanatic, and forever secure to the Slang was banished from that when such conversation is entered live on and on long after his place into it is often mistaken for pious on earth shall know him no more. twaddle, so uncommon is it. And "He liveth long who liveth well, yet nothing is more becoming than All else is life but fling away. that, not in pious monotones, not in He liveth longest who can tell sentimentalism, but as worthy beings Then fill each hour with what will last, created by the most bigh in His Buy up the moments as they go; image and for an eternity of blessed. The life above when this is past ness in an exalted and glorified being Is the ripe fruit of life below. in heaven, they should amid their pleasures, at least be serious in their conversation. The strange developments in contemporary history, the intense strain in which mankind finds itself, the critical nature of this age, Prohibition sheet as well as for the great necessity for worthy and sound money and a reformed Detrue and strongly developed charac- mocracy? It looks like it sure. ters, if the future is to be all that it can and promises to be, imperatively hullabaloo in this town about sademand that most careful attention loons. Which is humbug and hpbe paid to develop in the young serious and, noble conceptions and thoughts, so that they will nobly and days, the Boston, Cin-St. Louis and New Or. our churches and to all that makes for temperance, for purity, for holicompiler, the space in the lies for four days each, ness in character and living, and tutions and go down into their Chicago dailies for two thus save the world to Gcd. What pockets and make up the dificiency saved the Jewish people of old from in revenue that will follow. But the general ruin of nations that rose so long as the municipality ac-The Sunday edition, exhree cases, were included and fell all around them, while they cepts money from saloons it is examination. Now what were not consumed, but grew in num- rank pharisaism to exclaim against result? This: These pabers and especially in strength of them. Let us be honest in these e twice the space to crime, national character, a strength that matters." matches, and "sports" has not waned to this day. Here is the secret: (R ad Deut. 6:3.9.) The monthly musical vesper serey give to temperance, rt, education, religion and Faithful compliance with this made vices at the Presbyterian church are them the castodians of the know- a great success. Last Sabbath the for this? The editors? ledge of the true Gol and made them churth was full to overflowing with gether. It is because there the people who perpetuated the re- people, and a most inspiring and ligion of Jekovah, and brought forth beautiful musical service was renls more readily than any the Savior of the world, while other dered. Mrs. Charles Everett, the ading, yea, and it "sells" nations, some richer in money, many chorister of the church, ably assisted greater in numbers, and nearly all by the choir, deserves the thanks of precious, innocent, imoung soul to crime and more extensive in area by far than the community for the rare treats in they, were consumed, and lie wrecks music they give us. They find an ot warning along the shores of Time. invaluable help in Mrs. Nettie Jones ake another table of read. Any people who in their homes, in and son, George. lly as interesting and in-: A classified list of their society, in their business, in ublished in this country their government, if you please, will honor God, will be honored of Him. given year in recent years, the fact that during the And this leads us to speak of the 22 books of fiction were blessedness of good conversation. d, while only 437 books By it dark passions have been lit up

> Oft times a word or kindly deed, Bestowed upon some soul in need, Some soul where love is never guest, and no mind and heart and Transforms the heart by hate oppress'd r can be built up strong and Till flowers the noisome weeds suc- 223 N. Genesee St., .

with light of life and love and purity, and good will that saved from ruin have by it been given, and aspirations tion of noble deeds, which would never have been done but for it.

ation and language, 253 in and the doing of much harm. Imry and the drama, 201 in heart, have by it, been started into iy and memoirs, 187 in de life, to the glory of God and the ill departments of reading awakened that have led to the execu-

It is said that frogs will cease To build up an intelligent, croaking when a light is brought nal people, who alone are near them; so a holy conversation of being a free and democra- hangs, as it were, a padlock on proole, there must be sound, help fane lips." It may be said with nightful reading done by them. truth of any earnest, pious, Godgave the halo of greatness of fearing person who is careful and ter to the people of Scotland, considerate and pure and earnest and three centuries ago that has God-glorifying in all his walk and dress Box 133, Highwood, III, died out? It was because conversation, what Goldsmith said and strong books, especially the of the village preacher:

double sway,

n ight at any rate be able to And fools who came to scoff remained Emma Leflar, Highland Park. 21-3m to pray."

the Bible-tie Word of God. e of all the peasantry in Europe There is no power on earth, save FOR SALE-A nine passenger wagneant pious cant; weak relig- power to soften men's hearts and sentiment; funereal topics; draw them to truth and God. A bein undertaker's tones; but nign, holy influence accompanies is meant, cheerful, hearty, such where'er he goes; his pathway

Of true things truly done each day;

This from our esteemed contemporary, the Chicago Chronicle, is sound logie. Is the Chronicle a

"There is just now a mighty pocrisy. The city derives a great portion of its income from saloon licenses. If the people of Chi-

Mrs. William Eddy and litttle son, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mr. H. K. Bender, of Minneapolis, Minn, are visiting at the home of their sister,

The subject of the sermon at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning will be "Woman's Part in history and miscellanies, 225 pulses for good lying latent in the the Formation of a Nation's Charand travel-so that out of blessings of mankind. Inspirations Fine Watches and Clocks repaired at Schneider & Cooke's. All work warranted for one year.

-THE-

Chicago Furniture Co.

I. A. DAYTON, MANAGER.

Want Column.

More than 30 words 5 cents per line. All ads in this column must be paid in ad-

Situation wanted by an experienced cook. Can give good reference. Ad-

SITUATION WANTED.

the children all being "taught "Truth from his lips prevailed with Cooking for dinner, lunch and evening parties, or by the day.

> gonette and double harness, at R. R. Men's Home.

> > TO LET.

East Side-Barn and Carriage fire place stove or the Fire Fly. Inquire at this office.

WANTED-Small heating stove for shop. Address Manager News-Let-TER office.

LAK

 Bohl the G extén High serme Sund Sund the U ticed the and a some man

Addr forme LETT Miss is ma she h

new s nearl weatl "Iola in Ja

Laza

Dece your Park

craft Faith Ame Iren char Miss have a day

Dan' Lac. live : near reaci sevel make