Highland Park

A baby girl has come to the home with Mr. and Mrs. Ma...

The subject of Rev. A. Pfanstiehl's Sunday Sermon will be "Troubles in China."

The annual report of the Highland Park Building, Loan and Home Association was issued this week and shows the flourishing condition of the association.

Dr. Boulter leaves Saturday for Pensacola, Florida, where he will abide in the land of oranges, alligators and pickinies. Dr. James Watson will take his place here.

The Ingleside Hotel is now brilliantly lighted by electricity. Dr. Ingalls having grown tired of experimenting with various lights decided to make the hotel up-to-date by installing the incandescent system.

The electric light company is putting up the new fire whistle purchased by the city. The whistle is of the mockingbird variety and when it "goes" our citizens will know that something is happening. It will be used only for fire alarms.

The Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railway has put on a passenger car, which leaves Evanston at 5 p. m. and carries the Chicago morning papers along its line to Waukegan. Heretofore this work has been done by the first regular car, but now an earlier and special service is provided.

The difference between romance and stern reality has been thus defined by a man who has enjoyed married bliss for some dozen years: "Romance is keeping company with a pretty girl until 12 o'clock at night. Stern reality is walking the floor until midnight with a crying baby."

Celebration and Banquet

Some of the leading opponents of the liquor saloons here arranged to celebrate the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday by holding a jubilee meeting and having a banquet supper at the gymnasium of the Northwestern Military Academy. There will probably be public speaking from 2 o'clock p. m. till about 5 o'clock. The supper to be from 5:30 till 7 o'clock, to be followed by short responses to toasts. The program will be more minutely published later.

Dissolution Notice

We, the undersigned, have this day dissolved the partnership heretofore existing between C. M. Schneider and E. M. Cooke under the firm name of Schneider & Cooke. Mr. Schneider will conduct the business as heretofore.

C. M. Schneider. E. M. Cooke. Dated January 19, 1901.

Northwestern Military Academy

Edwin M. Hyde, Ph. D., professor of Latin and Modern Languages in the Northwestern Military Academy, recently gave a very interesting lecture to the faculty and guests on a trip to the top of Mt. Vesuvius. The doctor is a very easy, fluent talker, has traveled extensively, is a thorough scholar, and his lecture throughout was instructive and interesting, even captivating.

The Board of Health of the city visited the school yesterday and examined the pupils, vaccinating those who had not recently been vaccinated or who had not made other arrangements for vaccination.

Our hospital room was the right thing in the right place, when the doctors came.

Twentieth Anniversary of the Christian Endeavor Society.

Program of Christian Endeavor Anniversary Meeting, to be held at First Baptist Church, Waukegan, Ill., Saturday, February 2nd, 1901.

9:00—Special Prayer Meeting. P. M.
2:30 2:45—Devotional Service.
2:45 3:00—Anniversary Exercise.
3:00 3:30—Open Parliament conducted by Mr. Alex. Smart. (Chicago.)
3:30 4:30—Address, Rev. W. A. Lagerquist. (China.)

Rev. W. A. Lagerquist has been for ten years a missionary in the interior of China, and to hear his wonderful experiences will be a rare treat. He will bring with him many curios.

Arrangements are not yet perfected for the evening service, but we promise a good speaker and further announcement will be made later.

Delegates will be entertained at supper by Waukegan Endeavorers. All come and bring your friends. Pray for the meeting.

The Newspaper Advertiser.

Of all the various mediums employed, and methods adopted by advertisers for reaching the people, the business man with experience in advertising soon settles down to the plain proposition that there is nothing that beats the newspaper. Here is the testimony of a business man as given by an exchange:

A short talk with a successful business man, the other day, drifted into advertising. He said he had tried nearly all kinds of advertising with varying success, and had years ago settled down to one plan, that of the newspaper. "Suppose," he said, "that I wish to reach 1,000 families in the country and I do it by circulars or bills I must first pay for the printing and paper. Then I must get a 1,000 printed envelopes and pay at least $10 for stamps. Then I must fold, direct and stamp the circulars, all of which cost me at least twice as much as it would to publish the same matter in a newspaper having a good local circulation. Then many of my circulars would be thrown in the waste basket, without being read, and in no case will one be read by more than one member of the family. On the other hand, the same advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation will be read and re-read by the members of each family—and the neighbors will read it, too—so that it reaches much further than circulars. The poorest returns for money spent is that of scattering bills in the streets. My experience is to write out what I wish to say to a friend, and just at truthfully, and then have it published in the local paper or papers that circulate in the county or locality where my customers reside, changing the matter often and using plenty of space. That is the best advertisement and the cheapest one a merchant can use. Fake advertising given to solicitors is money thrown away. Newspaper advertising is far better than any other."

China.

Mrs. Goodrich, a returned missionary from China, last week gave a very interesting talk to the faculty and cadets of the Northwestern Military Academy. Mrs. Goodrich was in Peking during the whole time the Embassies were locked up by the Boxers in that ill-fated city. Her description of circumstances and events was exceedingly interesting and instructive.

Smallpox Scare.

The smallpox scare is resulting in the general vaccination of old and young alike. Wednesday Doctors Haskin and Lynch, of the Board of Health, went through the schools vaccinating 200 pupils or about one half of those in attendance; the others will be vaccinated immediately.

It is not in the schools alone that the vaccinating is being done. One physician Tuesday vaccinated 80 people and this is but a sample of the work done by other physicians and the result of a smallpox scare upon the people of a community.

Damage Laid to "Blind Pig."

Prohibition residents of La Grange are interested in a suit for damages which was begun against Michael Hengels in the Superior court yesterday. He is said to be the last of the "blind pig" keepers in that prohibition suburb. The suit is brought by another resident of LaGrange, Mrs. Sarah Marshall, and is to recover $5,000 damages which she claims as having been done her family on account of the sale of intoxicating liquors to her husband, John Marshall. It is alleged that through his patronage of Hengels' stock John Marshall is in a never ceasing condition of drunkenness. She says that when in this intoxicated condition her husband mistreated her and the family. Recently she applied for a divorce, but it is said the application has been withdrawn, as the two became reconciled.—Inter Ocean.
