Occasionally we can hear of some one finding fault of the way we run this paper. They should remember that everybody is not perfect and even editors have their faults.

The new office of the gas company is making little progress. The plasterer, Mr. Stuart and his men of Highwood are at work and expect to finish up so the building can be ready for occupancy by March 1st.

Schumacher's Anti-headache Powders are still in the lead.

Lake Forest and Highwood are receiving gas from the North Shore Gas Co. The gas has been turned on in the pipes here, but thus far the Lake Forest and Highwood people are the first to derive a supply of gas.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Brand returned from their trip to Milwaukee and vicinity. We presume Mr. Brand brings with him many views of the blizzards, snowdrifts and icebergs that beautify the city of Milwaukee in midwinter.

Miss A. R. La Bar, Regent of the North Shore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, goes to Washington, D. C., this week as a delegate from this chapter to the Continental Congress to be held next week.

A merry sleighing party composed of students of the Lake Forest University visited Highland Park Tuesday afternoon. They enjoyed a specially prepared dinner at the Hotel Ingleside. The party consisted of nine couples and the chaperon.

The long predicted snow and good sleighing is here and everyone, young and old, are making the most of it and many sleigh ride parties are out every evening. They can be heard in the still, cold night by the noise of the tin horns, sleighbells, cowbells, and merry laughter and gay songs of the sleighriders.

A crowd of fifty-two piled into two immense bobs on Monday evening and drove to Shermerville where they had a private dance and a good supper. Everyone declared they had had a pleasant time, even if "Dan" Sheaben did take up room for two and crowded the other terribly. Cashier John C. Duffy resumed his duties in the bank the next morning, so we presumed remained up the remainder of the night to thaw out.

On Tuesday evening three sleigh loads of people of the First Unit Evangelical Sunday School took ride in the country to the spacious farm house of Richard Tillman, where they spent a sociable evening and had a good luncheon. The younger children, namely the infant class, were given a ride on Monday afternoon while the weather was not so cold.

Chocolate Creams are only good when fresh. Schumacher's are always fresh.

At the Presbyterian Church the Rev. Pfanstiehl's subject next Sabbath will be, "The Blind Men."

Charlie Morris, son of H. I. Morris, is visiting friends here in the Park.

All kinds of music boxes cleaned and repaired by C. M. Schneider the jeweler Highland Park and Winnetka.

It is reported detectives were in this city Tuesday looking for the holdup men, who relieved Frank Nochos, a salesman, of Chicago three hundred dollars. One of the men was found in hiding in the blacksmith shop of Mr. Kelly Second street.

Plants and Cut Flowers at Schumacher's.

Mrs. B. E. Turner and Miss Carrie Davis came down from Milwaukee last week to spend a few days with their cousin A. E. Dorsey, of the NEWS-LETTER. Mrs. Turner left Tuesday night for her home in California.

The Sabbath School Institute, held Thursday of this week in the Evangelical Church was a success. Mrs. Mary Bryner and Mr. C. Schenck conducted it with much power. It was instructive and beautiful in every way.

High School Notes.

Contrary to expectation, it will be impossible to give any further particulars concerning the formal public opening of our new building. We hope in another week to be able to give definite information.

Our in-door base ball team defeated the cadets last Saturday afternoon.

A committee of citizens, heavy taxpayers, inspected the building last Saturday. From statements made by members of the committee, we judge that the gentlemen found in brick, stone, wood and workmanship, the full value of the amount expended.

Florence Genest, Marion Patton, Samuel Hole, Allen Jones, Edward Selig, Marion Mason, John Conrad, Charles Grant, Edward McTamane, Etta Brown, Henry Bell, Elsie Brand, Florence Shelton, and Joseph Colburn have been absent from school this week because of illness.

Ella Osborn of the third year class is looking forward to meeting her father at any time now. He went to the Philippines with the Fourth Regiment and is now in this country hastening to his family at Fort Sheridan. Mr. Osborn has been in the U. S. service thirty years.

The Public School Art League we understand, has a magnificent surprise in store for the High School.

The teachers are marking and cataloging the books of the school library.

Ralph Boyington, since becoming an aspirant to a position on the high school orchestra, has developed a marked ability as a cornet player.

The Ossoli Club.

On Thursday afternoon, when the Ossoli club discussed "The Influences of the French Salon Upon Art," the walls of the Highland Park club house were hung with many photographs of the paintings and statues of the best French artists. The pictures were the property of the Art department of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs and were nearly all the copies of the work of the modern schools.

Miss Nell Van Schaick, the essayist for the day, sketched the history of French Art during the last three centuries and the effect of the Salon upon the art of the world and particularly upon the art of France.

In the open discussion that followed the friends of the Impressionists and those opposed to that school frankly championed their respective favorites.

Miss Thayer sang three songs before the paper, "Sunset and Dawn" by Allitsen, "My Rosary" by Nevin and "Ritornelle" by Chaminate.

Mrs. Moseley was hostess and Mrs. E. G. Clark with Mrs. Geo. Campbell served tea.

The next meeting of the club will be held Feb. 22nd and Prof. G. A. Coe of Evanston, will speak on Hypnotism.

The Lincoln Celebration.

The Lincoln Celebration and Temperance Banquet at the Northwestern Military Academy on the 12th inst., though not quite as largely attended as was expected, was certainly in every other respect eminently a success. There were present from Lake Bluff fifteen or eighteen representatives, and also some from Glencoe, including Mr. Henry Shepard and wife. The delegation from Waukegan would have been much larger but for the fact that Judge Carter delivered an address there which kept many from coming to Highland Park.

The day before Hon. Hale Johnson, who was expected to deliver the address on Abraham Lincoln was compelled to cancel the engagement on account of the sickness of his partner. Rev. Dr. Thompson, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate was engaged to take his place. The meeting was called to order in the N. M. A. gymnasium. Col. H. P. Davidson, president of the Academy, was made the presiding officer of the exercises.

Col. Davidson in the address of welcome touched briefly upon some of the unsettled problems still confronting the American people and demanding settlement. Hon. V. V. Barnes made the response. Judge Barnes has been a life-long opponent of the liquor traffic. Dr. Thompson followed with a very interesting address of one hour giving many interesting incidents in the life of President Lincoln. At about five o'clock the audience adjourned to the West hall for a half hour of social intercourse and then came the banquet in the Mess hall. Following a feast of good things for the body came the stimulus for the mind and soul in the form of toasts suitable to such an occasion.

Dr. Boulten of Waukegan, responded in a most characteristic manner, to the toast, "True Temperance—The moderate use of all that is good and right, per se, and the total abstinence from all that is wrong, per se."

He was followed by Rev. U. S. Villers of Lake Bluff, who most eloquently emphasized the sentiment of the toast to which he responded; As in religion, "No cross, no crown," so in the war against the liquor traffic; "No sacrifice, no success."

"The United States of America—Foremost in behalf of civil liberty; May they yet prove foremost in behalf of moral liberty," was handled in a masterly manner by Capt. Reddick of the Academy, who, after a thrust at the toast-master, went straight to his point of living in the present and for the future instead of the past.

Rev. Mr. Haeefe of Highland Park, followed with, "The Home Without Strong Drink; The father's kingdom, the child's paradise, the mother's world, the nation's security." His many and apt illustrations more than convinced his hearers of his sincerity.

Rev. A. L. Whitcomb of Evanston aroused the enthusiasm and perseverance of the guests by his martial array of historical crises and his encouraging belief that all righteous causes will win in God's good time. The subject of his toast was, "The Hope of Temperance Reform."

"The Prohibition Party,—born of necessity, cradled in adversity, victorious in defeat" proved a most fitting toast for Mr. Alonzo Wilson of Chicago, who gave a brief resume of the party, it's successes it's purposes, placed in the hearts of good citizens.

Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl of Highland Park closed the series of speeches with; "Lake County—May the time soon come when the school and the church shall have supplanted every saloon within her borders." 'Tis needless to add that these closing remarks but confirmed the determination to make our County the very best County.

Highland Park Woman's Club.

The Highland Park Woman's Club met on Feb. 12 with a large audience. Mrs. Erskine was leader of the day and brought forth the following good things under the subject "New England Men and Women."

The programme was opened with music by Miss Irene Russell. Mrs. Chas. Warren, rendered delightfully several songs, accompanied by Mrs. Brand. Mrs. Royal Davidson favored the club with a reading of "Old Salem ways." Miss Smith told of the wonderfully earnest life of Cotton Mather. Miss Cheverton read, The "Broomstick Train," and made the ladies feel quite acquainted with the hidden Witch of the electric car. Miss Stewart talked of "Men and Women of Witching Times" and all felt a nearer personal acquaintance with those who became prominent through mutual affliction.

This delightful afternoon was made more interesting by the exhibition and giving out of the programmes for the Opperettas to be given Monday Feb. 18 for the benefit of the Episcopal Church.

Grace Elizabeth Shields.

The death of Grace Elizabeth, Shields was a surprise to her many friends. Grace was eleven years of age, and was the victim of quick consumption. Thus goes out a young life, like a bud nipped by the frost, and leaves a vacant place behind. The funeral occurred on Wednesday. The NEWS-LETTER extends sympathy to the bereaved parents, brothers and sisters.

ICE.

Before the holidays the ambitious icemen, of this city, were much worried concerning the lack of ice. They feared that when the sultry days of July and August are here, and telephond bells ring and people call for ice, that they would have to get their supplies else where.

Now judging from the number of sleigh loads that are being hauled from ponds to ice houses, we would say there is ice enough in Highland Park to nearly supply the state, and it is the clearest and best our dealers have handled for some time.
