VOL. IX. FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1901. NO. 14

Highland Park.

Mr. Daniel Pease paid a visit to the NEWS-LETTER office Thursday.

The Rev. C. H. Branscombe of Glencoe was a welcome caller at this office.

Vesper services at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath, March 3rd, at 5 o'clock. Everybody will be made welcome.

Three of the four "Wildwood" cottages, are well under way, the cellar is dug and the lumber on the ground for the fourth.

Sparkling Spring Water, 14 gallon can, 80 cents. No charge for delivering. Wm. Tillman, P. O. box 459.

William King did not erect those poles in the post office windows to keep children and loafers off the seats. Mr. King is a mechanic.

Prof. Guyton of Indiana has been added to the faculty staff of the Military Academy filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Capt. Burke.

Henry Clay Basye has nearly recovered his normal equipoise since witnessing a marriage the other day, being so seldom called upon for such solemn duties.

Sewing machines cleaned and repaired by C. M. Schneider, the jeweler, Highland Park and Winnetka.

After all the delays, the Revolution flag staff put up by the Daughters, has been repaired. We understand Mr. Morton did it and his head did not "swim" while he was up there at work.

The firm of Denman and Happ having dissolved, Mr. John Happ, the junior partner will continue the business at the same old stand with all the energy, promptness and success of the old firm.

We are told one fellow wants to run for office and be elected so he can, "get even with Basye." We thought men were elected to office to serve the public, but where does the public come in there?

All kinds of music boxes cleaned and repaired by C. M. Schneider the jeweler, Highland Park and Winnetka.

In starting the electric motor in the NEWS-LETTER office last Monday, Fred Moon met with quite an accident, burning his hand with the electricity. He will probably not be able to work for some days.

There will be a Grand Masked Carnival at Fort Sheridan Park on St. Patrick's Eve, Saturday, March 10th given by 9th Battery, Field Artillery. Prizes will be awarded. The music will be furnished by Prof. Iredale's Orchestra. A pleasant time is assured. Admission twenty-five cents.

Sparkling Spring Water delivered, 6 one-half gallon bottles to case, 30 cts. Wm. Tillman, P. O. box 459.

The Presiding Elder, the Rev. S. F. Entorf of Naperville will preach in the United Evangelical church on Sunday morning and evening. In the forenoon communion services will be held in connection with the preaching. All who have heard Rev. Entorf before will no doubt be glad to hear him again.

Our popular vocalist, Miss Wycoff has been surprising the citizens of our state capitol, Springfield, with her singing. Last week Friday evening there was a musical at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pinks in honor of Miss Eva Emmett Wycoff of this city.

Bazar patterns at Mrs. Pinks.

Dr. Kaye is engaged, that is wholly true, and engaged body, spirit and soul, but it is to his profession. He is bound to be the best and most successful dentist on this north shore, and being well along in his career he is engaged to keep at it to the finish, and we engage to say he will succeed. Congratulations, Doctor.

Professional Nurse, wishes engagement in Highland Park or vicinity. Address, P. O. Box 465.

Mrs. Col. H. P. Davidson left Highland Park Thursday evening over the Monon route for Florida. She will go to Major Davidson's pineapple plantation at Avon Park, where her daughter now is, and will spend the remainder of the winter there. The number of Highland Park residents who spend from a few weeks to several months in Florida seems to be increasing every year.

We think we said last week, at least we intended to, that Wm. Obee told us personally several weeks ago that he was not a candidate for any office, he was "out of politics" as he expressed it, and we said so we believed he meant what he said, and we have not seen nor heard anything to change our mind. For ourselves we believe Mr. Obee meant just what he said, and will change our mind only when he by his conduct compels us to do so.

Your name engraved on fifty-cent cards with plate for ninety-five cents. C. M. Schneider, Jeweler.

There will be no service in the Baptist church Sunday evenings during the month of March, but the members under the leadership of their pastor Rev. J. P. Whyte will conduct an Evangelical service in Fort Sheridan Park Pavilion at 8 p. m. The Baptist people think they can do a greater work and reach a larger number of people at the above named place than they can in their own church. Music will be a very prominent feature of the meetings and Mr. Whyte will make a short address. It is expected that the Lake Forest Glee Club will assist in the musical part of the program next Sunday. All are cordially invited to this service. Admission fee will be charged and no collection will be taken.

Social Praise Meeting.

Last Wednesday evening the parlors of the Presbyterian church were beautifully decorated on the occasion of the annual Praise Meeting under the auspices of the Ladies Missionary Union of the church. Mr. T. H. Spencer presided with his usual grace and efficiency. Solos were rendered by Mr. F. Anderson, Miss Harrington and Miss Troxell, while Miss Myrtle Sweetland presided at the piano. Addresses were made by the Rev. Mr. Labaree and wife, and the latter the sister of Mr. C. E. Schauffler of this city. Their missionary home is in Persia and they gave very interesting accounts of their work.

Mr. Pfanstiehl closed the program with a few remarks. The thanksgiving offering was large. At the social hour refreshments were served, the tables having been beautifully furnished by Mrs. Vail and Mrs. Troxell, committee. During the hour Mr. Anderson, Miss Troxell and Miss Harrington rendered solos and the last named gave a few instrumental solos. The evening was profitably and pleasantly spent, a large number of people being present.

The Invasion of Wheelerville.

Highland Park invaded Wheelerville Tuesday night and took it. Rev. Pfanstiehl and Charles Warren with about forty or fifty others went over there in two big sleigh loads. The Wheelerville folks came over after them and brought them home at twenty-five cents each for the round trip, the money going to help out the Wheelerville church and Sunday school. As we all know some dozen years ago the Lake County Sunday school association helped the Wheelerville folks build that beautiful chapel and since then they have tried their best to sustain religious services and Sunday school, hence their need of help. So Pastor Pfanstiehl went over to give them a brief sketch of how William the Silent with his sturdy men come down the Rhine one night while the Hollanders were asleep and took the country, an event known in history as the "Dutch taking Holland." All the people packed into that chapel shouted "Rah for the Boers!"

Following this came Mr. Warren's bold, unique and unrivaled feats of legerdemain, like turning air into money, changing white handkerchiefs into rainbow colors, till one smart fellow remarked "I'm afraid he will want to change me into a girl," to which a lass sitting near, sarcastically replied, "Oh no, he has to have handsome boys to make girls out of." And so for about half an hour or more Mr. Warren entertained the crowd. Then Rev. Bartle, who deals out law and justice to North Chicago sinners week days and the gospel of peace and good will to men Sundays, made a brief speech and also tendered a vote of thanks to the Highland Park people for their kindly help.

Finally came the denouement in the shape of Wheelerville doughnuts and coffee like mother used to make, to which our Park people did ample justice. After a delightful evening, our friends rode home in the clear soft moonlight and left a broad ribbon of song and laughter and good cheer all the way from Wheelerville to Highland Park, while the folks over there think they never did have such a good time.

The Woman's Club Reception.

On the evening of the 22nd the Highland Park Woman's Club held a reception at the spacious home of our genial townsman, Edward H. Brown and his estimable wife, to do homage to the man whom the whole nation delights to honor. The rooms were tastefully decorated with the national colors and lighted with candles. Washington's memory was proclaimed in readings and recitations by Mr. and Mrs. Fessenden, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Green, also the singing of patriotic songs.

The "Father of his Country" was effectually impersonated by Mr. Brown who made such a true counterpart that we almost fancied we were standing in the immediate presence of the old time hero, and Mrs. Washington was represented by Mrs. Fessenden. Alderman VanRiper was strikingly costumed as a veritable Lafayette, while Mr. Parry made a hit by taking off a prominent Highland Park character.

Many of the ladies caught the spirit of the time and displayed much ingenuity and skill in their costumes which were in true colonial style. About a hundred guests were present, who after partaking of refreshments and enjoying a social time generally, departed thanking Mr. and Mrs. Brown for their kind and pleasing hospitality.

"Condemned."

Cardinal Gibbons is reported as having recently made use of the following language concerning Mrs. Nation's liquor crusade: "I have never been able to convince myself that what we call total abstinence is essential to morality. The moderate and occasional use of alcoholic liquor is not to be condemned."

"Turning to Kansas and speaking as a Catholic and an American, I am free to confess that the disturbances that have occurred there since the institution of the present anti-liquor crusade have filled me with pain, sorrow, and astonishment. Either the total abstinence laws of Kansas are wise, just, and necessary, or they are not. If they are necessary, wise, and just, they should be rigidly enforced by the legislative authorities. If, on the other hand they are none of these things, they should be legally and regularly repealed."

We are aware that Cardinal Gibbons is not the only great and good Christian man who believes that the "moderate and occasional use of alcoholic liquors is not to be condemned," but will the Cardinal please bear in mind that every one of the seventy-five to one hundred thousand deaths every year in this country alone through alcoholism, is in the ranks of those who have been moderate drinkers. Not a single one of them belongs to the class of total abstainers.

Further, if we accept such excellent authority as our judges of courts, then about eighty per cent of crimes in the country are committed through the use of intoxicants. None of these are committed by the total abstainers.

Are we not justified then in holding the moderate drinkers responsible for these great evils? We may safely add further that probably not one tenth of one per cent of the drunkards today for a moment expected to become such when they began the moderate and occasional use of alcoholic liquors."
