The Blind Pig Episode.

Some of our readers will recall the little blind pig episode we had in this paper a little over a year ago, when the city attorney asked to have $50.00 put into the hands of the police committee as a "Secret Service" fund to be used in hunting out and bringing to justice the famous "blind pig" who was stalking about our model city.

The fund was put into the hands of Col. Davidson, Chairman of the committee, a Chicago detective was employed, the pig run down and Col. Davidson paid the $50.00 on Attorney Knox's order for the detective's service, who later brought in supplementary bills.

At this point Alderman Grant made quite a fuss because Col. Davidson paid out the money without consulting the other members of the committee. It was very big fuss for a very small offense and it looked, to outsiders, like a premeditated attempt to put the Colonel "in a hole" and pay the $50.00 out of his own pocket, to repay him for disregarding the other members of the committee, but the little scheme was speedily dropped, as they discovered that the Colonel had a gun in his pocket" in the shape of exposing some of their tricks.

We always supposed Mr. Grant was unwittingly made the cat's paw of his fellows in this matter for though it was a bit irregular in the Colonel to pay out that fund on his own responsibility, there was no wrong intended or done, and there the whole matter dropped.

But we don't drop it at that point. What was that fund appropriated for? To hunt up the blind pig! Does any body in this city suppose the members of this city administration—not all of the members of course—needed any detective from Chicago or anywhere else to tell them where the blind pig was located? As a matter of fact that $50.00 was to have a detective come out here, put in his time, stir up a big dust, fill and blind the eyes of the public and tell these self-same city officials where they got their drinks. And yet Mayor Cobb said in his last years inaugural that this administration was a wise and economical one, or words to that effect. We have "more to follow."

High School Notes

We give herewith the general programme for our public meeting next Friday March 15th. There will be music by the school chorus, an orchestra and solos by Miss Wycoff; addresses by George French of Worcester, Mass. and J. H. Freeman of Springfield, Ill., formerly State Superintendent of Public Instruction; exhibitions of gymnasium work by the different classes; inspection of the new building; and refreshments. The building will be open during the afternoon for those who cannot come in the evening. Guides will be present to conduct visitors about the building and to describe the various rooms. All residents of Deerfield and West Deerfield are cordially invited to come and see the new building provided for the education of our boys and girls. The members of the board of education earnestly desire a large attendance of the people of the township, that they may see the building and decide for themselves just what has been done for the cause of education in this part of Lake county.

The public school league has given to the high school a magnificent work of art, casts of eight sections from the frieze of the Parthenon. It has been placed on the wall over the rostrum in the assembly hall, covering a space three and one half feet wide and twenty nine feet long. Miss Stewart, in a brief talk to the pupils, described the origin, purpose, and present location of the originals, and Miss Cushman told us of its place in art and its value in interpreting the scheme of the Parthenon as a whole.

We have had a large number of visitors this week, most of them parents of pupils in the school. These visits are most encouraging to the pupils and to the teachers. We would like to see the number of visits and visitors increase.

The girls are becoming proficient in playing basket ball. They are enthusiastic in their devotion to the gymnasium work. John Bubb of Washington, D. C., formerly a pupil of the high school, visited us this week.

There are now ninety eight pupils enrolled.
