The City vs. Lindblom Again

A goodly number of people have inquired of us since the issue of March 15th what the article headed "City against Lindblom" meant. The circumstances were simply as follows and may, no doubt, at just this time be of great interest to many voters in Highland Park.

A year ago, during the a Germanic contest in the fourth ward between Mr. Obee and Mr. Greenslade; Mr. Olaf Lindblom, a voter in that ward, was in favor of Mr. Greenslade, as indeed most other intelligent citizens of that ward were. In the eyes of the honorable William G. Obee this was, of course, an unpardonable sin for Mr. Lindblom or anybody else to work against him; and, if Mr. Obee thought so, of course Marshall Tom Dooley thought ditto. The result was, as Mr. Lindblom was pasting up some little dodgers with reference to the election, he happened to paste one in a place which technically was contrary to a clause in the city ordinance. It was not more than was being done every day in the year by one or another and was even done a few days later by some of the city officials, but that was no matter. It was a pretext for the honorable marshal, Thomas Dooley, to proceed at once to arrest Mr. Lindblom. Instead of taking him before the police magistrate, as he should have done (though perhaps not legally bound to do), he took him before the honorable justice, Peter Dooley. The penalty for the offense in the ordinance is a very trifling, but this did not prevent Justice Dooley from putting him under fifty-dollar bonds. Col. H. P. Davidson was asked to go on his bond and did so. This was delightful in the eyes of Justice Dooley. When the time of trial came, Mr. Lindblom asked for a change of venue which Justice Dooley refused to grant, in defiance of law, but after long harrying concluded to send the constable two miles to Mr. Comstock and have him come up there to his office and try the case, despite the fact that the police magistrate was not a stone's throw away, and the law explicitly demands that a change of venue shall be taken to the nearest magistrate, and does not contemplate any such silly farce as a justice of the peace carrying his office around in his pocket. If anybody could do that kind of thing, no doubt Mr. Comstock was as competent for such a feat as ever magistrate was.

While Justice Dooley was writing out, as all supposed, making out the necessary papers to grant the change of venue, Mr. Lindblom stepped out of the office for about five minutes, whereupon the honorable Dooley took snap judgment on him and declared the bond forfeited, and then informed Mr. Lindblom that if the bonds were not paid the next morning he should arrest him again. In other words, he attempted to bluster him into a prompt payment of the amount; but, as Mr. Lindblom did not yield to that kind of bluster, Col. Davidson was cited to appear and show cause why he should not pay the bond. He in turn asked for a change of venue and was refused. The result was, the matter was promptly taken on an appeal to the circuit court at Waukegan and tried before the judge, who did not need but about five minutes, more or less, to set aside the whole proceedings of the arbitrary Mr. Dooley, and in a decisive manner that might well do good to the soul of any law-abiding, honest, reputable citizen.

We presume that Justice Dooley in his mind will take some exceptions to Judge Donnelly's ruling. At any rate, he has the audacity to again announce himself as a proper person to fill the office of justice in an intelligent community like Highland Park. But, so far as we have been able to hear, the sentiment is one and the same in all directions—"We have had enough of (In) Justice Peter Dooley and the present city marshal."

Cause For Rejoicing.

The formal opening of the Township High school of Highland Park, Ill., was held on Friday evening, March 15th, and was an entertainment in perfect keeping with the beautiful new high school building which was formally opened on that date for inspection by the public.

The program opened with music by an orchestra under the direction of C. E. Schauffler and was followed by prayer by the Rev. A. Haeefe, after which Mr. Kenneth R. Smoot, president of the Board of Education and a resident of Highland Park, gave the introductory address, introducing Prof. J. W. Cook, president State Normal school at De Kalb, Ill., who spoke in place of Mr. I. H. Freeman of Springfield, Ill. Mr. George French of Worcester, Mass., gave the following address and the whole program was delightfully interspersed with music by the orchestra and high school chorus and Miss Eva Emmett Wycoff, whose beautiful singing was so thoroughly enjoyed by all, was a prominent feature in contributing to a most delightfully enjoyable entertainment. Refreshments were served to the guests and an opportunity was afforded the public to admire the handsome commodious structure which adds so much to the dignity of our city and to our own self respect and pride as citizens of Highland Park.

Advertising.

When a contractor is in a hurry to drive a long plank down the side of a new sewer he sets two men at it. Each with a big maul hits it alternate blows as often and as hard as he can. The strokes come as evenly as a pendulum swings. One man and one maul would drive the plank down, but it would take longer. The bigger the maul the quicker and easier he will do the work. Two men, or a dozen, with tack-hammers would not get the plank driven in a hundred years. There's a parallel to this in advertising. If you're in a hurry to drive your business, use two papers and make the advertising maul—the space—as large as possible.

If you haven't money enough to buy two big mauls, only buy one, use only one paper—the best—and make the space large enough to be felt.

You'll do more good with one maul than you will with half a dozen tack-hammers. You'll get more benefit from a regular advertisement, of sufficient size, in the best paper in town, than you will from half a dozen smaller "ads" in a weaker paper. If you have only one "ad," have it right. You don't believe in cutting your store in two, do you? You don't establish a branch until you feel sure you are doing all you can in the main store.

Be sure you are doing enough in the best paper before you think of adding another. MORAL:—Don't buy cheap advertising, a newspaper man that will sell you space for a song, knows that it is not worth much, hence his desire to "fill" at any price.

We once knew a town

where part of the merchants undertook to increase their trade and get all the business they possibly could away from the other merchants by giving trading stamps. Of course the customers paid for the stamps in the long run, as more had to be paid for the goods, and the premium was paid for by the customers. We have always been glad Highland Park has been spared from such an affliction.

We advertise with our home paper and keep the money at home, rather than give it to transient tramp schemes. If you want your book filled quick (we mean your pocketbook), and want to use economy in the collection of stamps (the kind the government gives) trade with the lowest price grocery house in this county. You will find first class goods at lowest prices at
