The Hibbards.

We received Monday morning a volume entitled the "Hibbard Genealogy," by Rev. A. G. Hibbard of Woodstock, Conn. It is a book of some 425 royal octavo pages, well printed on good paper and admirably arranged. It has over four thousand entries of Hibbards and their descendants. Mrs. W. C. Egan of this city and names of her children; also the family of H. H. Chandler, her uncle. At this writing we find no mention of Mrs. S. B. Gregory, the daughter of Governor John Winthrop as a saltmaker for the young colony, and his descendants have been furnishing "salt" material, social, political and moral to the nation ever since, as they are scattered from the Pacific to the Atlantic. The book is almost as conspicuous for the important things which it omits as for the valuable ones which it contains.

We may add that the original American Hibbard was Robert, who came to Salem, Mass., about 1638, at the request of Governor John Winthrop as a saltmaker for the young colony, and his descendants have been furnishing "salt" material, social, political and moral to the nation ever since, as they are scattered from the Pacific to the Atlantic. The book is almost as conspicuous for the important things which it omits as for the valuable ones which it contains.

Sale of Taurus.

City Marshal Rudolph sold, according to notice given the dehorned shorthorn bull which had been impounded for some three weeks, Monday afternoon at the city pound at 1.30 o'clock to the highest bidder. Bids began down at $20 and rapidly crept up to $30 and then "slowed up" a little and then the contest settled down to Messrs. Sweeney and Sheahan, and the bidding went like a loaded team up hill. Mr. Sheahan evidently being determined that so fine a looking, so well bred and elegant animal should never go up to the environments of Fort Sheridan to be under the influence of the soldiers. Hence he pushed the bids up to $40, when Mr. Sweeney perhaps feared his Park rival was playing a bold game and would leave the beast on his hands at a stiff figure, pulled out. Mr. Taurus was led to the Sheahan home head.

Mr. Waldo's Child.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Waldo of Park avenue, have the sympathy of their friends in the death of their only living little daughter, Mary Louise, who, after suffering of spinal meningitis, passed away last Saturday at the early age of only three and one-half months. It is sad enough to lose a young child like this, but when it comes to the parents only son or daughter, as in this case, their grief is greatly intensified. They have had two sons and two daughters; the sons are both living, while both little daughters have died.

The funeral was Monday at their home, conducted by Rev. Mr. Johnson, the former pastor of the Presbyterian church, and the interment in the family lot at Lake Forest.

FORT SHERIDAN.

There are between fourteen and fifteen hundred men at the Fort now.

The soldiers are very indignant at the falsehoods reported by the Chicago papers concerning the rows, fights and drunken brawls among the soldiers; the reports are pure falsehoods from first to last. Note.—The reporter of the NEWS-LETTER will investigate matters for himself before next pay day, if possible, and tell the truth. So far as we could see or learn they are as orderly as any body of men.

Last Thursday was pay day when Uncle Sam, the patron and friend of the "Boys in Blue," distributed among them some $10,000 and made them happy.

Photographer Horne has his hands full now taking photos of the boys for friends at home, some of them perhaps for their dusky sweethearts in the faraway Philippine Islands.

John Sullivan opened a fine new restaurant near the north entrance about ten days ago, where we found about half a dozen well-behaved soldiers enjoying a morning lunch. They like the good food, well served, with neat clean table linen.

Mrs. Ocht is building a new and good sized store and lunch room, which promises to be a valuable addition to that part of the town.

Merchant Tailor Dahl says his business is first class now; more men at the Fort means more work for him and his workmen of course.

Nearly a score of carloads of crushed stone are dumped along side the Chicago and Northwestern tracks, on the reservation, for the further improvement of their drives. Perhaps the Sheridan Road, north so called, is to be pushed through the reservation.

Fort Sheridanites have beat us on sidewalk kinks. When their stringers begin to fail, and the planks get a little loose, they run strings of galvanized wire near the outer ends of the plank and fasten it down with large fence staples and the loose planks are held in place. A capital scheme and it works to a charm.

The old school house "up-in-the-woods" is finally located on its own new lot and now "school keeps" and peace reigns.

The electric railway folks are getting their big open summer cars ready for use when the sunny sultry summer days come.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under the Sun."

All doctors have tried to cure Catarrh by the use of powders, acid, gases and inhalers and drugs in paste form. The powders dry up the mucous membranes, causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while paste and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of Catarrh, has at last perfected a treatment which, when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures Catarrh, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This remedy is known as "Snuffles, the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure," and is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"Snuffles" is the only perfect Catarrh cure ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently, and is also wonderfully quick to relieve Hay Fever or cold in the head.

Catarrh, when neglected, often leads to consumption—"Snuffles" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure Catarrh in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay, but send for it at once, and write for full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "Snuffles," the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure.

Sent prepaid to any address in the United States or Canada on receipt of One Dollar. Address Department 1, Edwin B. Giles & Co., 2330 and 2332 Market St., Philadelphia.

Remember the NEWS-LETTER is $2 per year if not paid in advance.
