

"The ethics of gambling and the perils of making haste to be rich" was the subject of a recent sermon by Rev. Gamble H. Hillis at Plymouth church, Brooklyn. Dr. Hillis said in part: "The evils of drink are familiar to you. There are other evils. But the greatest peril is the insane spirit of gambling which seems to have taken hold of the people, irrespective of social standing or religious belief. The insane desire to get rich quickly is at the bottom of it all. There is no difference between the newsboy who flips coins and the man in Wall street who buys stocks on margins on a chance that they will rise or fall. Both wish to get something for nothing; both are gamblers. The incessant gambling on all sports has wrought intellectual demoralization to the country. Horse racing is one of the noblest of sports, but it has been degraded and bestialized by gambling. Every Saturday afternoon you see at the race tracks thousands of working girls and men who have families to support crazy with the intoxication of gambling. As each race is run they stand up, a yelling, cursing, purple-faced, brutalized gang." In these words Dr. Hillis presents a scene that is growing to be too common for the good of the whole country. The gambling which is inseparable from horse racing at big city race tracks is, according to the metropolitan press, a growing menace to the honor, sobriety and virtue of the youth of the cities.

The latest novelty in the counterfeiting line is reported from Philadelphia, where a lawyer was the other day arrested charged with aiding two of his clients, prisoners in Moyamensing prison, in an enterprise for the printing of bogus $20 bills. The charge is that the men made the plates at odd moments during their confinement awaiting trial, and then printed the notes with a cleverly devised apparatus, so small that it could be hidden in a cigar box. For paper which would defy scrutiny they used genuine dollar bills, washed in a manner to obliterate the first inking. The daring of this scheme distinguishes it from the ordinary work of the bad-money makers, who usually seek secluded places for their engraving and printing. If the facts are as now represented, the affair reflects seriously upon the prison authorities, who are supposed to exercise the closest possible surveillance over the movements of all prisoners, and to search their cells periodically for contraband articles. The United States government would seem to have good reason to complain of the Pennsylvania prison methods.

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you.
