

GLENCOE.

Miss Loosely, of Rock Island, Ill., is visiting Miss Hankey.

Miss Etta Aimer was the guest of the Misses Schnur this week.

Dr. and Mrs. O. D. Swain returned Monday from Dowagiac, Mich.

Mrs. Eva Clementi was the guest of Miss Murdow the first of the week.

Bruce McLeish has returned from a summer tour through the northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Wescott and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cook are guests at G. J. Case's.

Miss Helen Blythe, of Racine, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Dennis.

Mrs. Norelan and children, of Covington, Ky., are the guests of Mrs. William Scott.

The annual thank offering of the Women's Missionary society was held Wednesday evening in the parlors of the Congregational church. Miss Searl, president of Kobia College, Japan, addressed the meeting. The evening's offerings amounted to $70. After the meeting a social time was enjoyed.

The lawn fete held Tuesday evening for the benefit of the musicale fund of the Congregational church was a success financially and socially. Tents were erected for the different booths. Mrs. Hurford kindly opened a portion of her house, where one could warm up when the outdoor air proved too chilly. The proceeds netted about $70.

FORT SHERIDAN.

Lots of new plank sidewalks have been built in Wall's addition during the week.

W. W. Wagoner left Friday night for Rochester, Minn., on account of the death of his father.

Captain J. B. Kinney, who is stationed at Fort Crook, Neb., spent Sunday with his friends at the Fort.

P. C. Conley and wife left Tuesday for a month's visit with kindred and acquaintances in Chamberlain, S. D.

Miss Otis, daughter of Major-General Otis, spent a day the first of the week with the family of Colonel Forbes.

The 9th Battery of Artillery, which has been at Kenosha on target practice, returned to the Fort Wednesday.

A bolt of lightning struck the tower on the depot a while ago, and workmen are repairing that and the roof generally.

Six companies of the 29th Infantry, under Colonel Forbes went to Chicago, Thursday, to participate in the public parade.

Grocer Shannon has an elegant 12-foot cement walk in front of his block, put in by James Huxtable, the veteran sidewalk builder.

Mrs. Major Ives left here Monday with her two daughters, whom she will place in the famed Notre Dame Academy, at Baltimore, Md.

The foot ball team of the 29th Infantry played the Northwestern University team at Evanston, Wednesday, but came home with trailing colors. The cloistered bookworms were too much for our knights of the sabre and rifle.

The electric railway grounds and places of business about the Fort generally were draped Thursday, as well as the buildings on the reservation.

First Lieutenant Westerson, son of Colonel Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, has joined his command here, having come from Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

A. A. Dahl, the Fort tailor, had his family in Marshfield, Wis., for the summer. His little boy was taken with typhoid fever, and while Mr. Dahl was up there attending him one of his men in the shop undertook to fix a gasoline lamp while it was burning. With the timely aid of the neighbors the shop was saved, although the man was badly burned. The sick boy he hopes to bring home in a week or two, if all goes well.

Miss Mae McMillan, of Fort Atchison, Wis., a social favorite here and at Highland Park, as well as at home, had the misfortune to have the carriage in which she was crossing the railway tracks with some friends hit by a locomotive and one of her feet so badly injured that amputation was necessary just above the ankle. At latest advices she was doing well. She had her trunk packed for a month's visit here and at the Park.

HIGHWOOD

Mrs. Matthews is visiting friends in Janesville, Wis.

A new street is being worked north of the Sheridan Park.

Mrs. E. H. Vivian and daughter are visiting in Milwaukee this week.

The renovated Cummings block is being painted and otherwise finished up.

John Osborn, of San Francisco, Cal., is making a visit at O. F. Bell's this week.

Lieutenant McCleave has gone to Columbus Barracks, O., for duty at that post.

Some of our folks went to Chicago, Thursday, and missed their home trains. The crowds were so great and dense that they could not make their way.

Father Vatmann, the post chaplain, attended President McKinley's funeral at Canton, O., Thursday. He and the late president were warm personal friends.

Joseph McGoorty, of Chicago, is visiting here. He is prominent in the Bertillon system of human measurements, and has rendered services in connection with the arrest and trial of Emma Goldman.

Highwood was an absolutely dry town Thursday. Every shop, store, market and saloon was closed—not a back door or front one was opened. We wonder how many other cities can boast that kind of law and order saloons. Not only that, but McKinley pictures hung in all windows; the city hall and business places were draped; democrats, republicans and prohibitionists were all alike in this; in fact, party lines were all wiped out—we are a united people.

Last week I went about, Full of trouble and of doubt. Now I'm smiling and dance with delight. I had some Rocky Mountain Tea last night. G. B. Cummings. cr-18

DECORATIONS.

The city was tastefully, if not elaborately decorated. The city building was a marked instance on its neat front. Mayor Evans residence, in his absence, was finely done by his eldest daughter, Miss Florence, for which she deserves much credit. Miss Erskine's store was perhaps the finest business house decoration, and F. M. Evans' grocery the next, and Postmaster Fletcher had the government's office properly done. A. A. Moses had some handsomely framed McKinley portraits in his front windows, as did the Brand Bros. A. P. Dunn's front window was fine, as were several in the Dr. Bergen block, and scores of other windows had pictures of the martyred president. We had almost forgotten Barber Mohr's windows, and probably have overlooked others. What we looked for was general effect.

CHINESE SOCIAL.

The Chinese social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Noerenberg on Second street last Tuesday evening, was well attended. During the evening two very interesting papers on "China's Dawn" was read by Miss Carrie Muffat and Clarence Noerenberg, and a duet was well rendered by Olive and Clyde Haele. Miss Gertrude Brand then gave a humorous reading on "Chinese Etiquette and Customs," after which Mrs. E. J. Hintz and Miss Mollie Lehmicke sang a hymn both in English and Chinese. The last number was "A Trip to Hunan Province," by Miss Lou Kuist. The members of the Evangelical church are greatly interested in Hunan, as they are about to open a field for mission work there. At the close of the program the guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments were served in Chinese style. Although many had not acquired the art of eating with chop sticks, the attempt was very amusing. The rooms were decorated with Chinese ornaments, and on the walls hung Chinese mottoes. The evening proved a success, both socially and financially.

Miss Evangeline Dorsey has been entertaining her cousin, Miss Minnie Ellis, of Manchester, Iowa, this week.

We are happy to state that Mr. Burnstead, the directory man, has recovered from his long siege of typhoid fever and will have our city directory out soon. We hope it will be well patronized by business men, and the chief city officials should have them.
