WHICH?

Very often the editor hears a complaint from some quarter that there is no news in the paper, and we have nearly always found that the person who did the kicking was one who never gave us an item of news for fear it might get into the paper, and is of the kind that always says to the editor, "For heaven's sake don't put that in the paper," especially when it would be no credit to them. There are many of that kind, and the only time they will give us an item of news is when it gives them an advertisement or a very complimentary notice. The other kind of a kicker, and the worst of the two, is the one who makes a business of telling you that there is never anything in the paper about what they do. That is the same kicker who would not give the editor a word of encouragement or praise if he got out the best paper in the world, but he would ask as a favor a good hot roast for some enemy of his, the editor to stand for the cussing, you know.

After January 1, 1902, the SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER will be strictly all home-print. You will not be able to find its equal in any town of its size in the state. We have a plan whereby we will place the NEWS-LETTER in every intelligent home in this and West Deerfield township. We will make still further improvement if our subscribers will continue to keep their subscriptions paid up promptly. We have had exceptional good fortune in collecting and keeping our subscriptions paid up in advance during 1901, and we hope to be as successful in 1902. We have not over fifty delinquent subscribers in Highland Park today, and we have gained a hundred subscribers for every one we have lost in the past year. We sincerely thank our readers for the ardent support they have shown us and hope to merit a continuance. It is a credit to Highland Park to have so worthy representative at home and abroad, and our home merchants should help us to make our news columns valuable.

A little over a year ago we assumed the management of this paper, "strangers in a strange land." We had some difficulties in our way, and may have some times been lacking in news, but we think we become better acquainted and can improve on our news-gathering facilities. It has been our earnest endeavor to keep liquor and other objectionable advertisements out of our columns, and in all ways to make it a fit paper for any home. We have also been very particular to not allow its columns to be used as a vent for personal spleen, and anything that may have appeared in that light was not sanctioned by the management.

We wish to thank the merchants and others of Highland Park who have so liberally patronized us with advertising and job work. Of course it is to those who have assisted in this way that the credit is largely due for the improvements in the paper.

"Nothing succeeds like success," is an old saying, and we have found this exceptionally true in our business here. The business end of this office has been phenomenally successful, and although we have spent hundreds of dollars in presses, motors, printing material and other improvements, we have still been able to liquidate all our business agreements.

HIS MARRIAGE FEES.

A poor couple living in the Emerald Isle went to the priest for marriage, and were met with a demand for the marriage fee. It was not forthcoming. Both the contracting parties were rich in love and in their prospects, but destitute of financial resources. The father was obdurate. "No money, no marriage."

"Give me love, your reverence," said the blushing bride, "to go and get the money."

It was given, and she sped forth on the delicate mission of raising a marriage fee out of pure nothing. After a short interval she returned with the sum of money, and the ceremony was completed to the satisfaction of all. When the parting was taking place, the newly made wife seemed a little uneasy.

"Anything on your mind, Catherine?" said the father.

"Well, your reverence, I would like to know if this marriage could not be spoiled now?"

"Certainly not, Catherine. No man can put you asunder."

"Could you not do it yourself, father? Could you not spoil it yourself father? Could you not spoil the marriage?"

"No, no, Catherine. You are past me now. I have nothing more to do with your marriage."

"That aises me mind," said Catherine, "and God bleas your riverence. There's the ticket for your hat, I picked it up in the lobby and pawned it."—Tit-Bits.

THROUGH SLEEPER FOR FLORIDA

The Monon Route will resume its through Florida service January 6. A through sleeper will be put on, leaving Chicago every night and arriving at Jacksonville the second morning. This has the double advantage of traversing the beautiful Appalachian region during the day time, and arriving at destination in the morning, giving plenty of leisure for hotel arrangements, etc.

Call at the NEWS-LETTER office and secure your copy of the "Life of William McKinley." Positively no more than 1,000 copies will be given away.

Used by the ladies of fashion all over the world. It's without doubt the greatest beautifier ever offered the American women. 35c. Made only by the Madison Medicine Co. Cg-5.
