A MODERN REPORTER.

He or she who would enter this field for a living should have the cunning of a lobbyist and subtlety of Satan. They should give the news as they find it fearlessly, from the higher elements as well as the lower walks of life. Many of our ablest young men, who, by their indefatigable work and original ideas, would be a credit to the newspaper profession, have been cut off in their ambitions because their employers were compelled to omit their reports owing to the fact that their paper belonged to the class of newspapers known as the subsidized press.

LOCAL EDITORIALS—THEIR USES AND ABUSES.

The newspaper man who seeks applause from the gallery of public opinions by publishing an editorial calculated to belittle his neighboring contemporary, is regarded by the community only like a "dog barking at his own shadow." He succeeds in doing no harm to the one he aims at, and only exhausts his energy in a fruitless effort to injure his neighbor by stooping to petty narrow-minded expressions which are only too transparent to intelligent readers.

SHE WAS BORN IN EVANSTON.

Three little girls were discussing the places of their birth. The first proudly declared that Englewood was her birth place, while the second proudly asserted that she first saw the light of day in Lake View. "Huh!" said the third, "I was born in Evanston. I know it, because nobody but me and grandma was there. Mama was away at the club."

Call at the NEWS-LETTER office and secure your copy of the "Life of William McKinley." Positively no more than 1,000 copies will be given away.

REST COTTAGE RE-NAMED.

A part of Rest Cottage, the old home of Frances E. Willard, has received a new name. The house is a double one, and in it is located the national headquarters of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The south part of the house, in which Miss Willard formerly made her home, will still retain the name of Rest Cottage, but the north part, which was formerly the home of Mrs. Mary B. Willard, will hereafter be known as The Willard.—Evanston Index.

OUR BILLY."

Senator Mason is making another try for United States senator in 1903. The senator is out with a four-page circular with witticisms and criticisms of "Our Billy." We hope his circular will do.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of woman's preferences. Jewels for a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds, bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at G. B. Cummings'. Get Green's Special Almanac. Cg-11-25
