DON'T FORGET The Northwestern Store FOR XMAS

UNGUARDED GATES.
BY T. B. ALDRICH.
Wide open and unguarded stands our gates.
Named of the four winds, north, south east and west;
Portals that lead to an enchanted land Of cities, forests, fields of living gold. Vast prairies, lordly summits touched with snow.
Majestic rivers sweeping proudly past The Arab's date-palm and the Norseman's pine—
A realm wherein are fruits of every zone.
Airs of all climes, for lo! throughout the year
The red rose blossoms somewhere—a rich land,
A later Eden planted in the wilds, With not an inch of earth within its bound
But if a slave's foot press it sets him free,
Here, it is written, Toil shall have its wage,
And Honor, honor, and the humblest man
Stand level with the highest in the law. Of such a land have men in dungeons dreamed,
And with the vision brightening in their eyes
Gone smiling to the fagot and the sword.
Wide open and unguarded stand our gates,
And through them presses a wild motley throng—
Men from the Volga and the Tartar steppes,
Featureless figures of the Hoang-Ho, Malayan, Scythian, Teuton, Kelt and Slav,
Flying the Old World's poverty and scorn;
These bringing with them unknown gods and rites,
Those, tiger passions, here to stretch their claws.
In street and alley what strange tongues are load.
Accents of menace alien to our air,
Voices that once the tower of Babel knew!
O Liberty, white Goddess! is it well To leave the gates unguarded? On thy breast
Fold Sorrow's children, soothe the hurts of fate,

Lift the do n-trodden, but with hand of ste ho to thy stered portals
Stay those come gifts of freedom. Have
To waste t a car
Lest from y brow the clustered stars
And tramp in the dust. For so of
The thro ing Goth and Vandal
The lea of unmoledsted made her air.

We would be very much pleased to have friends of the NEWS-LETTER call up telephone 92 or 773 with any news or items of interest. If you know of anything that has happened or is to happen, tell us. What may seem of little interest to you may be important to the news gatherer. It will be very little trouble to you and will cost you nothing. There is not a resident of this city who cannot contribute something in the shape of news if they so desire. We believe in co-operation between our patrons and our staff. The editor wishes to make the columns of the NEWS-LETTER still more interesting and will appreciate your help in this direction. If you have not a telephone drop a note or call and see us. Your identity will not be disclosed. Telephone your tips, it will cost you nothing, and we will do the rest. Telephone 92 or 773.
THERE ARE OTHERS.
"He thinks he's popular eh?"
"Does he?"
"Why, when his name appears in the paper he fancies the public reads it this way: 'John Henry (applause) Muggin (long and continuous cheering).'"

A COLD TURN DOWN.
The Glee club from the Northwestern University at Evanston, received their first freeze-out at Waukegan opera house last Saturday night. With a temperature of fifteen degrees below zero, the musically inclined people of Waukegan refused to venture outside their doors. The four D. H.'s who attended with borrowed dress suits held a reception and dance after the concert as scheduled.
The Barrios diamonds failed to get in their work and the thirty-five student musicians got left in "Waukegan by the inland sea." They expect to try again the 25th.

CAPT. STREETER IN THE SHADE.
It is reported that five men claiming to have titles to the lake shore from Indiana to the Wisconsin state line, have filed articles of co-partnership in Chicago this week.
Their claim includes all the lake shore east of the United States survey line of 1821.
Where the line of survey passes through Highland Park is unknown except to the oldest residents. Property owners here are not worrying much over the report.
Susan—The pimples, sores and blackheads are danger signals. Take Rocky Mountain Tea; you'll give a farewell reception to your troubles 35c. Cg-5.
