FRIDAY, JAN. 3, 1902.

The Monte Carlo folks who were expelled from Indiana have rented an acre of land of Mr.
 Carlson, near the Everett station on the Milwaukee road, and are building a large structure for a first-class gambling place. They pay Mr. Carlson $300 a year for the use of the land. Alex. Robertson has sold them some lumber for the building and proposes to have it rival Baden-Baden. Such is the story told us.

Some folks are much surprised that President Roosevelt should select so little known a man as Governor Shaw of Iowa, for secretary of the treasury to succeed Lyman J. Gage, of Chicago.
 Don't worry, Governor Shaw was born up in Danville, Vt., a state noted for raising big men, first school mams, maple sugar, marble grave stones and several other valuable commodities.

We wish to congratulate the library board on the excellent books recently added to our already valuable list. But why don't they put in the Life of Philip Brooks and some others of like character. We shall have to ask the mayor to put one or two non-conformists on the board, so we can get some of these first class Episcopal books.

It is quite a little time to the spring election, but you might begin picking out some good aldermen—one from each ward.
 This city has not had for many years a more able, honest, hard-working, highly-respected body of aldermen than this year. Just maintain the present high standard.

THE LOTUS DANCE.
 The Lotus Club had an invitation dance Saturday evening last at the opera house. The affair was under the management of Charles Umbebaum and Mrs. Springer. There were about 50 guests present. To the amusement of the evening ceremony was performed.

 Highland Park Club, Saturday,

 secretary.

The "Sox Social" held at the M.
 E. church at the north end of town was a successful affair financially, clearing about $35, of which the greater portion was presented to the pastor.

NORTHWESTERN "DEATH-LINE." Six persons were killed and two score injured in another wreck on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad last Sunday evening at Malta, Ill. If you wish to take leave of this world, take a Northwestern train—death is sure if you stay by it.

A brakeman on the Northwestern had his leg smashed in the yards here last week.

MASON'S KINDLY DISPOSITION.

Mrs. Olive Logan writes as follows in a Philadelphia journal: "William E. Mason, of Illinois, is certainly the most popular man in the senate chamber today. He enjoys the affection of an immense number of persons, his goodness of heart, his keen sympathy for those in distress, his beautiful home life, and all his sterling qualities brought about this admirable result. Is there a poor widow whose right to her little property is in dispute by some Shylock who holds her in his clutch? Straightway she betakes herself to the kindly senator's side; 'she asked Senator Mason about it,' and he tells her, too, and charges her no lawyer's fee. A delinquent boy, erring girl, receive wise counsel from this general man, who seems never to tire of helping others. These pleasant facts are known to thousands in Washington and Chicago, and not a voice will be lifted to dispute them.
 Naturally a nature so effusive finds its expression in an amiable manner, which certainly is far removed from the Polar Sea frigidities that characterizes some of the senators, of a certain one of whom it is said that when he has but passed through a room you find that the water in the pitcher has frozen stiff."

SEEKING WISDOM.

A Wyatville woman seeks wisdom in the following manner: WYATVILLE, Minn., Dec. 30, 1901.— Mr. Willie Will—Dear Sir:—I am troubled with too many bedbugs. Can you tell me how to get rid of the varmints?
 Yours Truly, Mrs. X. Z.

My dear Mrs. X. Z., it gives me great pleasure to in any way be of service to you. Now, in regard to the insects which you mention in your letter, I will say that you can become perfectly free from them by drinking 20 cents' worth of carbolic acid. Should you try this method, kindly give my best regards to Bob Ingersoll.
