LAKE FOREST, HIGHWOOD, FORT SHERIDAN, HIGHLAND PARK, RAVINIA, GLENCOE, WINNETKA, LAKESIDE

VOL XI. FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1902 NO. 8.

Mrs. John Snyder, of Central avenue gave a pleasant euchre and dinner party Wednesday at her home, entertaining the Jolly Eight Euchre Club, of Winnetka, of which she is a member. The tables were prettily decorated with carnations. Everybody had a real good time.

The new city council has just paid John Mohr a small bill for shaving a prisoner about two years ago. The marshal at that time ordered the work done, but when the bill was presented would not verify it. Several of the councilmen at that time would swear by anything the "gang" did, hence they succeeded in holding the account out while they were in power.

Fire insurance placed by W. E. Brand Mrs. William H. Miller's mother, Mrs. M. B. A. Pratt, who had been with them at their summer home in Michigan, has just returned to the Park after a two months' visit with her sister at Evanston.

Mrs. S. C. Dorsey returned to her home last Wednesday, after a two weeks' sojourn with her sister, Mrs. Davis, in Milwaukee.

Frank Silgerstrom's men are filling his big new ice house with as pure, clean, solid ice as one would wish to see. Frank has as fine an ice house as there is in the city.

Mrs. Merrill, of St. Paul, is visiting her brother, Fred P. Luther, this week at Ravinook. She is on her way home from a 7,000 mile trip to the Pacific coast and all around the circle, having spent a month on the journey.

Did you know, old-time resident, that George L. Wrenn bought his west side unrecorded addition from Mr. Osterman, who died in Deerfield in 1899, for $450 per acre. We do not believe he would sell it for $500 per acre, or even $600. Mr. Wrenn is not avaricious, but he wants something near what a thing is worth.

Wanted—A young man to solicit for a first class publication. Good wages paid. Address C. C. C. care NEWS-LETTER.

Prof. Nathaniel Butler, of the University of Chicago, and formerly for several years the principal of a famous young ladies school here, spent Tuesday in this city, down at the Military Academy. His school used to be in the old big wooden academy building, which was burned in 1889. Since then he has taught in the State University at Champaign, and been, for several years, president of Colby College, in Waterville, Me., and was very popular there. His friends here were very glad to see him, and he was looking in the best of health, and as cordial and genial as of old.

Miss Anna C. Blattel is very dangerously ill at her home on west Laurel avenue. From latest accounts the attending physician has given her relatives and friends, which are many, some encouragement in regard to her recovery, but it will be some time before she is allowed to receive any callers.

Mayor William F. Hogan, of Highwood, is down in the shire of Vermillion County, where the wild waters of the Wabash "wobble" along, with the other county officials on their annual junket to discuss county affairs all over our big state. It is in Hoopston, same county, that Mrs. Catherine Catherwood, one of our brilliant female novelists, resides. She not only writes first class books, but sends her daughter to a first class school, Ferry Hall seminary, on our own Lake Forest.

We do printing for cabinets and patent ledgers, and the houses making a specialty of that kind of work.

From the transfers at the county seat, we see that D. M. Skyrine has sold to Alfred Hill, lot 5, block 7, that is about the fifth at building, on the Green Bay road for $750.

The new pastor, Rev. Edwin Seldon; did not get here last week as reported. He had a relapse which kept him at his home in Kansas, home till this week, and the unfortunate Baptists had to put up with poor preaching.

Last Monday, Thomas Howe, of Oakwood avenue, purchased from Mayor Wm. F. Hogan, a fine lot laying just west of the Northwestern railroad tracks in Highwood, for the sum of $500 cash. The lot is described as follows: South 50 feet of lot 3, in E. A. Mears' subdivision, of lot 4 of J. E. Burdell's subdivision.

F. M. Evans told us the other day, on inquiry, that he was selling canned peas and most other canned goods by the dozen cans, several cents per dozen less than the same goods can be bought at whole prices in Chicago. The secret is that he was sagacious enough last spring to place large orders with the packing factories for fall and winter, and so his customers are getting a benefit of it—dozen or case lots.

Mrs. Stock, the dressmaker, wishes to announce to her friends and patrons that she will sell at private residences, or take work at her own home, 221 Park avenue, 5-8.

Fifty years ago deer were common in Highland Park as big as bays are now. In 1854 George B. Brown's house now standing on the "Wildwoods" lot and a glimpse of his hindquarters and legs, and fired, he penetrated the skull and killed him instantly. He hauled him up to the old primitive Park Hotel, the building, near the express office and sold him to freight Conductor K. H. Hestler, who was in the lunch, while his train was on a half hour or so for a down train to pass on the old single track.

Rev. Edwin Seldon is here this week. He arrived Tuesday and will preach Sunday.

Lodge No. 366, Mystic Workers of the World, met Tuesday evening in regular order for installation of officers. The new hall in Brand Bros. building was neatly arranged for the occasion. Wm. Lanner, past prefect, acted as installing officer. After a brief ceremony the newly installed officers resumed business with J. J. Brand as prefect for the coming year.

Mr. Joseph Bath, an uncle of cashier John C. Duffy, his mother's brother, and a former resident of the Park, is here on a visit after some twenty years' absence. His home is in Reynolds, N. D. His wife used to live with Mrs. C. G. Hammond before her marriage. His daughter, Miss Elizabeth Bath, is with him. Besides friends and relatives here they are visiting at Evanston and "all along the shore."

On Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brothers, on north Second street, occurred the death of their only child, Lloyd, aged three years, nine months and eight days. The cause of death was convulsion spasms, caused from indigestion. Funeral services were held at the house at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. Haefele officiated, and the interment in the Mooney burying ground.

Mrs. John Bailey, of west Central avenue, who has been very ill for the past ten days, is slowly improving, which is very gratifying to her friends.

Mr. Carl Gruel, a prominent sheep raiser, of Cass County, N. D., who has been spending the past three weeks with his brother, Gustave Gruel, of Green street, left Wednesday night for his home. The brothers had not seen each other for over twenty-eight years.

Mr. James H. Stall, a representative of the Chicago American, was a caller at the NEWS-LETTER office Wednesday.

Again "Cupid" has been going around with his little bow and arrow. This time it has struck the hearts of our young people, Mr. Will Norenberg and Miss Carrie Moffett, their engagement being announced. Both parties are very prominent and have the good wishes of their many friends.

Our friend Arthur P. Dunn, we are glad to know, thinks of again crossing the briny deep. The newspaper trade is a bit slack just now, and a lot of sentimental fellows have sworn off on the use of tobacco, so that he has a little more leisure than usual. Then he wants to see his boyhood friend, King Edward, sit down with him in the royal smoking room of the palace and have a chat about the old days at Eaton, while they smoke some of Dunn's choice Havanas. And so he will put in two or three months hobnobbing with royalty and the aristocracy. Perhaps Roseberry will ask him to join his proposed new "omnium gathrum" political party.

Judge Hibbard's court has a suit set for Monday afternoon.

Col. H. P. Davidson is reconstructing that old two story mansard roof house recently bought, opposite the drill hall.

The NEWS-LETTER offices are now equipped with long distance telephones 92 and 773. You can get us at any time, day or night, with an item of news or any other business.

The creditors of Dr. Ingalls want George B. Cummings appointed trustee by the court of insolvency. First class selection. The paper stock and the millions and millions of postal cards used by the country for the next four years are to be made in a little seven by nine town down in Maine, and fully one hundred inhabitants will be added to the town, thereby about doubling its population. George B. Cummings was born in Maine, and his patriotic bosom swells with pride over the new prosperity of his state.

A young woman from St. Paul jerked her head back from being kissed, and broke her neck. She did not get kissed either. It is a terrible warning to the girls not to jerk.

We will be thankful for any item of local news or matter of public interest. Telephone No. 92 or 773.

Some little time ago we wanted some beeswax and purchased one of those thimble-shaped lumps, which proved to be chiefly poor tallow. Then we bethought ourself of who kept bees and knew how to extract the wax. If you want some, go to the assistant postmistress. She is a Grace-ous young lady, and see what kind of wax she can-tell you of.

At last advices this (Friday) morning Attorney Smoot is doing well. His improvement is slow, from the fact that he was worn down before the operation. He can take but little nourishment and as yet is unable to sit up.

Mrs. Hattie Farnsley Reddick will be leader of the study class of the Highland Park Woman's Club on Tuesday, January 21. The subject for study is "Late Colonial and Early Republican Scientists and Inventors."

Miss Irene Shields, who went to Manila last June, surprised the family by reaching home Tuesday morning. They were not expecting her for some time, and it was a genuine surprise. She was twenty-six days on the ocean, and one of the three lady passengers on the steamship Warren. General Funston was one of the passengers. Miss Shields reports a delightful season out in the Philippines, and a very pleasant voyage home. The family were wonderfully pleased to see her, after they had recovered from their surprise.

Twenty-five per cent discount will be allowed in all subscriptions to the NEWS-LETTER when paid in advance.

THE LAKE FOREST MEETING.

In answer to the call issued last week delegates from various parts of the county met in the public library building at Lake Forest last Saturday afternoon.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Patton, of Highland Park, who nominated Mr. Everett, of Highland Park, as permanent chairman. Mr. Everett was elected and D. T. Jackson was then chosen to act as secretary.

Mr. Everett read the call and then made a brief address, stating the necessity for immediate and continued organized effort in fighting the unlawful element which is seeking lodgment in Lake county. He then read the resolutions proposed by the committee, which arranged for the meeting under the call.

A committee to draw up a constitution was appointed as follows: V. V. Barnes, Lake Bluff; C. M. Gorman, Waukegan; I. P. Ramsey, Lake Forest; R. M. Patton, Highland Park; Townsend Smith, Lake Bluff.

While the committee was out the chairman introduced F. W. Gause, of Highland Park, who in the strongest terms denounced the evils which the association is aiming to eradicate, spoke urgently of the necessity of fighting evils whose perpetrators now sleep, and urged the formation of a permanent organization whose object should be fighting the criminal law-breakers of Lake county.

The committee on constitution then reported and the report was adopted.

Prof. Whyte, of Lake Forest Academy, was called on and spoke at length on the difficulties which face the organization and expressed the hope that the energy of the association would increase as the obstacles grow higher.

After short talks by Rev. J. G. K. McClure and Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl the meeting adjourned.

THE OSSOLI CLUB.

The Ossoli Club's subject for Thursday, January 16, was "Julius Caesar." The paper was written and read by Mrs. Charles Warren, and conveyed to her hearers a clear impression of the drama and its great historical characters. Mrs. Mary Manning, of the Sherwood School of Music, Chicago, made the afternoon one of the most interesting on the club calendar by her readings from the play, giving the forum scene in a most dramatic, yet natural manner. After an interesting discussion Mrs. F. D. Everett, the president, requested Mrs. Manning to recite "Pauline Pavloona," by Thomas Bailey Aldrich, which added to the pleasure she had already given. Mrs. James Watson played an old composition, "King's Hunting Jig," by John Bull. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. H. S. Vail, Mrs. J. H. Shields and Mrs. H. H. Doty.
