HOW IT WAS DONE.

Some folks, like Messrs. Hawkins, Wrenn, H. T. Spencer and some other old-timers, know all about how the south end of our town was settled. George Hesler told us the other day. In 1846 Messrs. Hauffman and John Fate left the little village of Erlangen, in Bavaria, Germany, and came here and located. Naturally they wrote back that America was the land of promise, and in 1847 George Rudolph, father of John Hesler, came over and located down there on the Cook county line, and the farm belongs to the family still. In 1848 George Hesler came over with his father's family and located alongside their old German neighbors, and he is on the old farm yet. In Germany they all raised horse-radish on their little five-acre farms, and used to market in the quaint old town of Nuremberg away, loading upon a big wheelbarrow some 600 pounds and wheel it all the way over the perfectly level macadamized roads. The roadsides were all planted with fruit trees on either side in regular order—first peach, then a plum and then a pear—and the fruit was sold at auction on the trees. No one ever stole any, the penalty being too heavy. Old soldiers of the Napoleon and other wars had their police and scavenger beats on the highways, and horse-droppings were swept up at once. Hence our neighbors came naturally enough by his love for horseradish. One of those big wheelbarrow loads would sell for from $30 to $40. The farmers lived in villages and had little farms outlying.

Mr. Hesler and his son shipped their last load for the season a few days ago.

Let us speak of man as we find him. And censure only what we can see. Remembering that no one can be perfect unless he takes Rocky Mountain Tea. Cg-14

THE WAY WE GET IT.

If we give a man a complimentary notice we are censured for being partial. If we do not cater to the wishes of the ladies the paper is not fit to tie up a parcel. If we remain in our office and do our business, folks say we are too proud to mingle with our fellows. If we go out, they say we never attend to our business. If we do not pay our bills promptly they say we are not to be trusted. If we wear bad clothes, folks say business is bad; if we wear good clothes, they say we never paid for them. Now what are we to do?—Ex.

What you don't neighbor? Helping Bill. What's Bill doin'? Helping Mandy. What's Mandy doin'? Helping mother. What's mother doin'? Helping Rocky Mountain Tea. Sensible family. Cg-14

A SCOTCH GRACE.

A good Scotchman was asked to say grace once before dinner, and thus voiced his sentiments: "Some have meat, and cannot eat it; some can eat, but cannot get it; we can get it and eat and thank it." "What would you think" of your groceryman if he sold you sand for sugar? What do you think of a druggist who offers you a substitute for the Madison Medicine Co.'s Rocky Mountain Tea. Cg-14

TOWN BOARD MEETING.

The official board of Deerfield township held a meeting Saturday evening to fill the vacancy caused by the sudden death of John Mahan, for nine consecutive years one of our highway commissioners. They elected Michael J. Gibbs, of Highwood, to fill the vacancy. Mr. Gibbs is a good selection, he is a level headed and public spirited citizen, who wants to see the affairs of the town prosper and is willing to do his part to that end. The board also appointed George Hesler and Lewis B. Hibbard a committee to prepare suitable resolutions on Mr. Mahan's death. They met Monday and formulated the following.

WHEREAS, it has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the world to remove, by death, John Mahan, our highly esteemed neighbor and fellow-citizen and town official, be it

Resolved that we deeply deplore the loss of one who has been a life-long resident of this town and one of its valued citizens, kind and obliging as a neighbor, faithful, upright and true as a town official, he was a man of excellent spirit, sound judgement and practical wisdom.

Resolved, that we extend to his widow and family our kindest sympathies in their bereavement.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the family of the deceased, also a copy to the local press, and that a copy be spread on the records of the town of Deerfield, Lake County Illinois. GEORGE HESLER, LEWIS B. HIBBARD Committee.

The new law regulating the issuance of burial permits, which went into effect January 1, provides that no human body shall be buried, cremated, laid in a vault or otherwise disposed of without a permit, giving the name of the deceased, the date and cause of death, the manner in which the body is to be disposed of and the place of such disposal, the name of the person to whom the permit issued and the name of the physician, midwife or coroner in attendance. The clerk in cities or villages, or the town clerk in township territory outside city or village limits, are authorized to issue such burial permits for which a fee of twenty-five cents is allowed and paid out of the county treasury.

WANTED—Cotton rags for washing presses. Will pay 2½ cents per pound. Apply at NEWS-LETTER office.

A gang of workmen mending the street in front of the editor's house, for greater safety, put their dinner pails inside the front yard. The little ones found them, and went for the pie, leaving the bread, bacon and potatoes. Moral—Pay the editor what you owe him, so he can buy pie for his offsprings.
