Brain-Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. B. Cummings' reliable remedies at G. B. Cummings'. When we hear the NEWS-LETTER stirred up some of its readers last week. Glad of it; that is what it is for.

If you want to know whether or not you are "anybody," go to the Public Library and in the reference bookcase look in "Who's Who," for 1901, in America, and see if your family name is there. If it is, you are somebody; if not, you are knocked out.

If you see anything in this paper you do not like, lay it to Hibbard or Dorsey, though very likely they did not write it, but it does not hurt them and they do not care. They eat three square meals a day, when they can get them. They are bound to make Highland Park a clean, honest, modern town, and will do it. They want you to pay your subscriptions promptly in advance, and vote right at the polls for men who will use the public's money as wisely and prudently as they would their own.

FINE COOKING.

The Ralston food folks have a cooking school or exhibit at F. M. Evans' grocery the last three days of this week. Miss Cora E. Haven is the expert cooking teacher, and she shows how to cook all kinds of the Ralston-Purina cereals, of which there are six kinds.

As we do not like the wheat foods we did not try them, but her barley food and health oats are very fine, and the whole wheat bread which we sampled, was very choice, the bread was baked at the Elmwood cafe.

Ladies should not fail to go in and see for themselves, and sample the goods. Everything is neat as in your own house, and Miss Haven a young woman whom you will like.

Our highly esteemed friend, John Mohr, the west side tonsorial artist, set out to show his athletic skill as a coast, one night the first of the week. Thinking a "double upper" was the thing, he procured one and went to the best west side hill and pitched in. Some way, as Dr. Sweet and used to say of riding his bicycle, the trees, stumps, etc., persisted in getting in his way, but John did not propose to be baffled by such trifles and so drove on. But the trees and stumps were too much for his smooth shaven, child-like face as no match for an oak stump or the hard frozen snow and ice, and the result was, those pesky inanimate things left their trade marks on John's face and scalp. By the careful and constant use of vasaline, and frequent baths in warm water and alcohol, his marred face begins to resume its wonted shapeliness and beauty. John says the trees and stumps in Germany had more manners than to assault a gentleman in that way.

TO MY FRIENDS:

A new campaign is about to open in Lake county.

Two years ago I was a candidate before the republican voters for the nomination to the legislature. During the campaign and until the convention met I believed, and still believe, that I was the choice of a majority of the republican party selecting delegates, and of the delegates themselves.

The methods used to accomplish my defeat were of such a nature that many of the delegates who sat in the convention and voted against me have come and have asked me to give them another opportunity to rectify their error.

In the light of the facts, and with the full knowledge of the loyalty of those who stood faithfully by me two years ago, and because of the assurances of support from those who took little interest before, I have decided to fight out the battle along the same lines.

I make this brief statement in order that the republicans of Lake county may not again be misled by unfair methods.

Respectfully requesting your active support, I beg to remain,
Yours very respectfully,
A. K. STEARNS.

WAUKEGAN, ILL., February, 1902.

EDITOR NEWS-LETTER—Dear Sir:—Having decided to allow my name to again go before the republican convention of Lake county for re-nomination for the legislature, I take this means of personally informing you of the fact, knowing that, although I should be pleased to do so, I may not be able to visit all my friends in the county.

In view of the fact that Lake county has thrice honored me in this capacity, and knowing that some persons may not favor a fourth term, I desire to say that my record in the general assembly you all know and are familiar with, and I point to that with a personal pride. If the people of Lake county honor me again, I feel that the experience of the past will well qualify me to protect the agricultural interests of Lake county, as well as the interests of the workingman, to the fullest extent, and to better serve my party, the success of which means a continuation of the present great prosperity of the country.

Trusting that you will give me your support and communicate to me anything that will be to my interest, and assuring you that the same will be fully appreciated, I am,
Very truly yours,
GEO. R. LYON.
