VOL. XI.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1902

NO. 14.

Stylish Millinery at the Ladies' Bazaar.

Mrs. S. Stipe, of Ravinia, was a caller at the News-Letter office last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Yoe are having a very delightful winter out in California.

Thomas Howe, of Oakland boulevard, has put a new telephone in his residence. The number will be 712.

No charge for advertising your property unless we succeed in selling or renting. North Shore Renting Agency.

Advance sale of wash fabrics for shirt waists, the proper styles for spring and summer wear, at the Ladies' Bazaar.

The contractor has commenced operations on the fine brick flat building to be built for Thomas Howe, in Highwood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reasman left last Friday for a visit to friends in St. Charles and Aurora, returning home Tuesday evening.

Circuit court begins in Waukegan next Monday. If you are going to fool away any money up there, be on hand on time.

Mrs. Strock, dressmaker, wishes to announce to her friends and patrons that she will sew at private residences. 221 Park avenue. 9

Mrs. Pierson was out Monday with her kodak, taking snap shots of handsome buildings and persons. We dodged behind Fred Schumacher's drug store.

Some noted Chicago "whips" will form a coaching club to ply between the Auditorium hotel and the Hotel Moraine this summer. The schedule will begin about June 15.

Work on the Moraine extension is going on rapidly. The foundations are in and the framework goes right up. Alderman E. A. Warren has the contract and is pushing it.

Local Union No. 461, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, of Highland Park, has set the scale of wages at 40 cents per hour. To take effect April 1, 1902.

A talk on "The Arts and Crafts of Civic Life," will be given by Mr. Dwight Perkins at the regular meeting of the Highland Park Woman's Club, March 4, in Library hall.

The west side woman who went to Judge Hibbard for a divorce from her husband because he brought in the kindling and coal for the hired girl was told that was beyond his jurisdiction.

Superintendent Warren had an excellent Washington memorial service in his Sunday school at the Baptist church. He put lots of work into it and the school stood loyally to the work.

One swallow don't make a summer, and one or two fine days in February don't make spring. Beware of the ices of March, as Caesar said when he crossed the Rubicon and set out for Gaul.

By listing your house with us this spring, we can properly find you a good tenant or a buyer. We don't charge you a cent for advertising in the Chicago papers and the News-Letter, unless we rent or sell.

Mr. Lindstrom is cutting the wood off his new acre farm, out west, and piling it in his big wood-yard up on Elm place. It is cut green this winter and will make first class fuel for next season.

City Attorney and Mrs. K. R. Smoot returned Saturday evening from a fifteen days trip to Pensacola, Fla., and Mobile, Ala. Mr. Smoot is very much improved and now goes to his office every day.

J. H. Duffy, the popular express man, has a new outfit which he will bring out as soon as the weather is a bit settled. He says folks like to have their trunks, etc., go in clean wagons, and that is right.

The next time you think of going into the city to buy your dress goods and groceries, just make a list of what you want and give Mrs. A. Bock a call. It will be cheaper for you, and you will get reliable goods.

The Winchester house up on Sheridan Road, now being so thoroughly overhauled and repaired has been rented, we are told, to Mr. Merryweather, sr., the one who had S. M. Coe's house down on St. Johns avenue last season.

To the Park housewives: Did your kitchen or other maid marry a soldier last week before the boys in blue left for 'Frisco and the Philippines? Several of them did, and are now impatiently waiting to hear from over the water.

The Catholic Order of Foresters will give a mid-Lent masquerade ball on March 17. Several prizes will be awarded, and an enjoyable time is promised. The order always has a large attendance at their functions and consequently a good time.

Mr. B. F. Gump and wife left this week for Biloxi, Miss. After a month's stay at the famous Beach hotel they will visit New Orleans and make a general tour of the summer resorts of Florida and the south, returning to the Park with the warm weather.

Miss Nellie Ogilvie read a very fine paper on Washington at the bible school memorial services in the Baptist church Sunday. It was brief, comprehensive, well written and well read. We congratulate Miss Ogilvie on a fine piece of work.

Fire insurance placed by W. E. Brand.

Miss Emma Evans, daughter of Mayor Evans, was in Chicago, Monday, for the purpose of having an operation performed on her throat and nose. Her many friends will be glad to know she is getting along as well as could be expected, although she has been quite ill a week.

Supervisor James McDonald took the returns of Tuesday's big election up to the county clerk in Waukegan, Wednesday morning. He looked all tired out when he got home. Enough to tire anyone out to carry the returns of 21 votes up there on an electric car.

Someone wanted to know why we printed a cut of F. M. Evans' store last week. Because he is a regular advertiser and don't drop out when business slackens a little, and he gave us a dish of hot oatmeal soup last week when he had that special cook booming his Ralston cereals.

Quite a number of the residents on Hazel avenue want it macadamized this season, but the Wildwoods people do not favor the scheme, we are told. We hope this will not block an improvement the other residents on that street want, even at a small cost. Some time it will come, of course.

The city council will meet next Tuesday evening, March 4, at 8 o'clock, and 8 o'clock comes just sixty minutes after 7 with this twentieth century council. City Attorney Smoot will be there also and the mayor will not be compelled to ask a substitute to occupy the attorney's chair.

Mrs. Mary R. Hammond, opposite city building, has become tired of living without neighbors and will put up two cottages on her big lot just south of her own residence. Then when she gets a fine house in just east of her own, she will be living with near neighbors as snug as a bug in a rug.

If you want to save a trip to Waukegan and extra charges on special assessments, City Collector Brand can fix you up on short notice.

The first annual ball to be given by the employes of the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railway, at Fort Sheridan Park pavillion, has been postponed from March 8 to Easter Monday evening, March 31, 1902. It promises to be an event of rare entertainment, and is eagerly awaited by all who enjoy dancing.

The horses, cattle, sheep and other loose property out on the Dr. Ingalls farm were sold Monday at 11 a. m., by Warren H. Willmott, auctioneer, to Fred Richards, James Sheahan and Alex Robertson, and a "ree bit" of a Jersey "farrow heifer" to Charles A. Kuist, which he put under his buggy seat, and brought home. The balance was left on the farm.

Colonel Davidson, of the military academy, is pushing the work of making an Italian villa out of that two-story mansard roofed house he bought, opposite the drill hall. When completed he will move in and imagine himself living in some villa on the banks of the River Po. You see that big ravine just back of the house used to have a strong Italian flavor.

WANTED—Cotton rags for washing presses. Will pay 2 1/2 cents per pound. Apply at NEWS-LETTER office.

If you wish to get on our special circular, which will be mailed to those who have rented residences in other suburban towns in the last two years. Call up telephone 92 or 773. No charge unless we are successful. North Shore Renting Agency in News-Letter office.

A young business man in this town told us this week that he had absolutely quit the use of beer, whisky, etc. His business is progressing, his eyes and skin look clear and fresh, he was never in better health, and he thinks he has made a wise move. That man will be on top, by-and-by, and some of you free-and-easy beer and whisky fellows will be in the gutter, asking him to help you out.

The Brand Bros., painters and decorators, received this week one of the finest assortments of special designs in wall paper ever sent out by the wall paper house of Alfred Peats & Co. The low prices on the assortment guarantee to the Messrs. Brand a large quantity of orders. Some of the designs are sold to only one decorating house in a city, hence the particular value of the line to them.

The Highwood rummage sale was a great success. From $60 to $75 being the result, and the good ladies have bought a piano for their church. Next week, Thursday evening, the Methodist singers, of Waukegan, come down and give a concert in the church for the ladies, and pay all their own expenses. Mrs. Gillette was down here selling tickets at 25 cents each. She had two left when she met us, but not so many when she went on her way.

J. J. Brand, City Collector, will be delighted to credit you with any assessment due on your property. Office in Brand Bros.' building.

The United States war department wants an artillery range. It must be within fifty miles of Fort Sheridan and must be an unobstructed range not less than four miles long, width not stated, but room for barracks, stables and other necessary buildings. It is also said a rifle range, 2,000 feet long at least, will be added. If you have such a piece of land or know of one suitable for the purpose, let somebody know. Lake county wants it and ought to have it.

W. D. Messenger is replacing some of the dead trees put out last spring with new ones. They have large lumps of frozen earth on the roots, so the small rootlets are not disturbed. Now, if well watered as the frost comes out, and the trees well headed in before the sap starts, and then their trunks well covered with coarse hay or straw ropes kept wet all summer to prevent the evaporation and loss of the vital sap through the bark, they will come out all right and make a good live of it.

We will be thankful for any item of local news or matter of public interest. Telephone No. 92 or 773.

The board of local improvements held a meeting Tuesday evening to act on the question of macadamizing Elm place from the railroad tracks to the bottom of the "Pocket," or to Emil Rudolph's. The denizens of the "Pocket" can soon get on the Sheridan Road and up town without going into the mud up to the hub. Wonder if some folks down that way are still afraid Alderman Everett is opposed to improvements. He has pushed this matter along.

Take our advice friends. If you have a law suit on hand, settle if you can. Your attorney, if he is a young man and a "new beginner," he will advise you to fight it. He wants his fees and a chance to show off his talents, while you stand meekly by and pay the bills. When you are beaten he will say, "Well, I am very sorry, I don't see how it happened." Then he will present you a bill for his fee, and leave you to pay all the other costs. How very kind he is, and the less he knows, the more he will urge you to fight it out. Take our advice and settle if you can.

The library board deserves very great credit for putting that large lot of reference books on the shelves. But how and where did they get the money, nearly $200? When they got possession of the building lot, etc., they found those old billiard room fixtures, and instead of storing them away to rot and fall to pieces, Messrs. Hipwell and Phillips went up to Highwood and sold them to a man who was going to start a billiard parlor, and bought all those books with the money. Hence they did not cost the taxpayers a cent, while Messrs. Hipwell and Phillips put in their time and work free.

We learn that the case of Aldridge vs. Buchanan, which was begun before Justice Baker, changed to Hibbard and by him passed on to Mr. Watson, who gave Aldridge judgment for $15 and costs, has been taken to the circuit court by the plaintiff. The case caused a deal of interest in legal and semi-legal circles. We shall watch the case with unabated interest. It will go down into history as one of the celebrated cases of the western states. If the attorney for the defendants will take no offense we will put a "flea in his ear." Cut your remarks in two; reduce the long drawn out and reiterated questions in cross-examination by fifty per cent at least; make your point once and leave, don't hammer at it until everybody, judge, jury and spectators, are all tired out; then don't magnify little, insignificant trifles into mountains of importance, it serves to disgust the court; you can win as much by what you don't as by what you do say.

During February and March the drug stores of Highland Park, Ill., will be closed at 9 p. m., except on Saturday evenings they will be kept open until 10 o'clock.
