MR. BENTLEY'S ADDRESS.

years ago he gave up his theological studies on account of a failure of his hearing. He then set out to help the tough boys of Chicago, or as the buildings for the boys live in many as he could-the worst boys of separate cottages, about eight or the juvenile court. He rented 20 acres of land on Cedar Lake, just west of Lake Villa, in our county, on the Wisconsin Central railroad, and started four or five years ago with five boys, as tough as any. Today one of those boys is fitting for college and will go to Princeton.

Now he has 100 acres of land and thirty eight boys, and these boys run the whole establishment with Shore Renti Agency.
