SHERIDAN NEWS LETTER

ROAD BETTER

VOL. XI

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1902.

NO. 15.

Pastor Seldon was up town Thursday, calling at the postoffice.

Hon. L. S. Coffin, president of the Railroad Men's Home, was in the city Tuesday.

For Sale Cheap—Lady's bicycle; in good condition. Address P. O. Box 465, Highland Park.

Ernest Gail, of Highwood, has been appointed attorney for the Railroad Men's Home association.

Ed Lang, former city engineer at the water works, left for Vicksburg, Miss., Wednesday. His family went with him.

You should not fail to attend the mask ball at Goldberg's hall on St. Patrick's day, March 17, given by St. John's Court No. 840, C. O. F.

Rev. George L. Wrenn, who has been in poor health nearly all winter, has so far recovered as to be able to go south about ten days ago.

That big piece of pine lumber which has been strapped to Postmaster Fletcher's leg for six weeks was taken off Monday, and lumber fell at once.

James McDonald is supervisor for Deerfield, in Lake county, and overseer of the poor in Ludlow, Windsor county, Vermont. An ubiquitous man is Mr. Mac.

Local Union No. 461, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, of Highland Park, has set the scale of wages at 40 cents per hour. To take effect April 1, 1902.

The poolroom crowd over west has been indicted by the grand jury at Waukegan. That is why the committees have "laid low" lately. Now we will see what the courts will do.

A gentleman from Vermont will occupy the Baptist pulpit Sunday morning and evening. At the latter service he will speak of the lessons of that stirring book, "The Man from Glengarry."

Mrs. Strock, dressmaker, wishes to announce to her friends and patrons that she will sew at private residences. 221 Park avenue.

Dr. Turner wants a sidewalk down south to Bloom street, so he can take that short cut down by N. O. Moore's, over the new bridge and so down to the Park for his ipecac, etc., and the council ordered the walk built.

Mrs. William Millard, who met with a very painful accident over a week ago, which caused her to be quite lame, is not able to be out yet, but is so far improved as to be able to sit up and enjoy the visits of her

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Moseley have gone to South Carolina for a season of rest and recreation. Of course he takes along a ten-pound can of Chase & Sanborn's coffee, purchased at F. M. Evans' store, for his morning beverage.

We trust no one will feel hurt because our new circuit judge, Arthur H. Frost, of Rockford, elected last week, was born in Johnsbury, Vt., one of the best and brightest towns in New England. Judge Hibbard edited the Vermont Farmer there in 1876-7.

Rev. Pfanstiehl, at the Presbyterian church, is preaching a series of sermons on "I Ams" of Christ. Last Sabbath his subject was, "I am the Light." Next Sabbath the subject will be "I Am the Truth." Everybody will be made welcome at the services.

Division No. 1 of the Order of Railway Conductors, in Chicago, hold their twentieth annual ball in the Masonic Temple, next Tuesday, March 11, for the benefit of the associated charities. A large number of Highland Park people have always attended each year and will probably do so next Tuesday.

Mrs. E. H. Vivian and baby, June, expect to soon leave for California to visit her mother.

A musicale will be given at Mrs. Jones' music rooms in the Bergen block next Tuesday evening.

R. J. O'Brien has bought the Frisby property on west Central avenue, of Mrs. Ed Lang, and will improve it this spring.

The old pioneer store across from the gate at Fort Sheridan, has been sold to Mrs. Sargeant Ley. She will remodel it and open up a store and restaurant.

The Highwood M. E. church, having bought the old Breakwell corner, is now remodeling the same and expect to have a fine drug store corner by May 1.

The Highwood M. E. church held a musicale last evening. Home talent, assisted by Waukegan musicians, gave a delightful entertainment to a large and appreciative audience. The proceeds were very encouraging to the ladies of the church.

John Gary and John Lyon, of Chicago, who will soon be brothers-in-law, have both taken houses in Highland Park for the summer. The Garys will come here after returning from their wedding trip abroad, and then John Lyon and Miss Adalene Richardson, whose marriage takes place in June, will settle here a little later in the summer.

There is a man in this city who says he knows the location, size of house and lot, number of rooms, general condition, price for sale or monthly rent of every house in the market between Highland Park and Willmette, both places included. And he is not in the real estate business either. That comes pretty near being a walking cyclopedia on real estate and their values.

Miss Dunlap, who is the soprano in the People's church, McVicker's theatre, sang at the vesper services in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath. We need not say that it was a rare treat for our people.

By listing your house with us this spring, we can probably find you a good tenant or a buyer. We don't charge you a cent for advertising in the Chicago papers, and the News-Letter, unless we rent or sell.

Our Congressman Foss sat at President Roosevelt's dinner table the other evening with Prince Henry of Germany. Prince's brother, counts himself as one of Mr. Foss' personal friends.

The Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railway employees are having a large sale of the tickets for their first annual ball, to be given Easter Monday evening, March 31, at Fort Sheridan Park pavilion. The young folks are looking forward to this event as a society event.

Report says an old man of considerable means has been picking coal along the railroad tracks and around the company coal sheds this winter, but upon investigation it is found that his supposed wealth exists only in "pipe dreams." So he probably needs it in his lucid moments as badly as any poor person.

William Witten and Herman Borchardt have dissolved partnership, and Mr. Witten will continue his business of laying hardwood floors. He has been at this business for over twenty years, and in the Park for seven years, and is well known as an expert floor-layer. He will retain the old office on west Central avenue, where he has a telephone, No. 284. Parties contemplating laying floors of this kind should see Mr. Witten. They can be assured of a good, practical job by a workman of experience.
