

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

On Sunday evening there will be communion services in the United Evangelical church. Rev. C. S. Fahr, of Northfield, is expected to do the preaching.

Mr. August Benson, the ice man, went last Tuesday to Mudlavia (Indiana Mineral Springs) to take a course of treatment for inflammatory rheumatism, from which he has been suffering for some time past.

Our wide-awake hardware merchant, has taken advantage of a sudden drop in the price of nails, and purchased a whole car load. The car, consisting of 300 or 400 kegs, was unloaded yesterday.

The song services by the C. E. societies of this place at the Railroad Men's Home are much appreciated by all who make that place their home. "Come again, and soon," is the general invitation. Don't forget.

Those who heard that concert at Highwood, Thursday night, were greatly pleased with Miss Bessie Heydecker, of Waukegan, on account of her dramatic talent. They rated her very high as an artist. The Royal Arcanum Quartette was well received.

One of our society women went to the Highwood concert the other evening and then set out to walk the track home. She has used a...

... famous Vermont liniment reducing the pain of her bruised and swollen knee, from a fall she had on the cinders.

The political air is full of petitions and candidates, which we will note in full next week. Meanwhile if you want votes for your ticket put Geo. Hesler's name on as highway commissioner. The people who pay the taxes and use the highways want George.

The city fathers provided for the spring election, April 15, for a police magistrate and four aldermen. Now hustle for your men. We have picked out Roberts for the third ward. He says he don't want it, but that is not the question; we want him, and that is enough. The fourth ward wants Fred Greenslade; all right, too.

THE MILLBURN WEDDING.

The marriage of Rev. George A. Mitchell to Miss Jessie Strang, in Millburn, Wednesday, February 26, was the event of the season for that part of Lake county. It was in the church, at 2 o'clock p. m. The services were open to all, and the house was packed. Rev. J. E. Joy, an old friend of the groom, performed the ceremony. Rev. S. W. Chidester, of Waukegan, acting as best man. A banquet was served by a Chicago caterer, plates for 250 being laid. The cutest part was when the the happy pair slipped off to Lake Villa for the train, and so escaped the showers of rice in waiting for them at Wadsworth.

with them these many, many years.

TAXES.

Pay your personal tax today or tomorrow. The law requires that the collector advertise a list of the delinquent taxes in the local paper next week, and the delinquents will have to pay the cost of the advertising. Tomorrow is your last chance to pay up and save the extra cost.

JAMES H. DUFFY, Collector.

The list of delinquent together with the amount of assessment will be advertised next week.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of woman's preferences. Jewels for a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds, bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Green's Special...

... promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at G. B. Cummings'. Get Green's Special Almanac. Cg-11-25
