

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS BETTER

Hammond M R Feb 10, 23
May 1, 03

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XI.

FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 1902

NO. 17.

Public school election April 19, 1902.

Everything pertaining to-millinery at the Ladies' Bazaar. ***

Township high school election will be held April 12, 1902.

A large display of stylish millinery at the Ladies' Bazaar. ***

Order sparkling spring water of William Tillman. Telephone 494. Prompt delivery free.

The Tuttle house on Hazel avenue and Colonel Davidson's Italian villa are nearing completion.

For Sale Cheap—Lady's bicycle; in good condition. Address P. O. Box 100, Highland Park.

Parties from Chicago have been out and looked over the old John F. Rice property on Prospect avenue. It is a good property.

Don't forget that you can save dollars on taxes a year hence if you turn out and vote at the township school election April 12.

Pastor Seldon, of the Baptist church, filled his own pulpit last Sunday, and the "Green Mountain Boy" preacher was given a rest.

Fritz Bahr has the finest assortment of Easter lilies this spring ever seen in Highland Park. A cordial invitation is extended to customers to call and see them.

The Gas company commences to put in services the first of April. If you contemplate using gas this summer it will leave your lawn in better shape to have the work done early.

Mark Twain tells a story of a man who received a telegram telling him that his mother-in-law had died, and asking: "Shall we embalm, bury or cremate her?" Twain says he wired back: "Yes, and if these fail try dissection."

High school election April 12, 1902.

Local Union No. 461, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, of Highland Park, has set the scale of wages at 40 cents per hour. To take effect April 1, 1902.

Druggist Cummings will rent his house this season and "board out." He will be glad enough to get back into his own home, wherever he may board. No place like home to a man who has ever had one.

By listing your house with us this spring, we can probably find you a good tenant or a buyer. We don't charge you a cent for advertising in the Chicago papers, and the NEWS LETTER, unless we rent or sell.

Order the gas in now. We commence our street connections the first of April, and the sooner the work is done the better shape it will leave the lawn.

NORTH SHORE GAS CO.

Charles M. Stoker, who spent a couple of weeks in St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, came home last week and is getting along finely. He hopes to soon be back at his work as engineer at the high school building.

Millinery done to order, ladies' own material used, at the Ladies' Bazaar. ***

Mrs. Hull, who has been in the Goodridge house on Laurel avenue for a couple of years, will retire this spring, and it is rumored that Mrs. Goodridge will return and run a first-class, top-priced family boarding house.

The transfer papers in the Leach property sale were passed Wednesday. The purchase price was $4,500, and is a bargain. It is one of the best homes in town for a man who takes the morning trains daily for Chicago.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent.

We trust that Frank C. Brown, of the American Steamship line, will still recognize his old friends, albeit he has a little grandson, a young Francis, down in Boston. Mrs. Brown has been in Boston several weeks.

Harvey Malcolm and Paul Donald McQuiston, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McQuiston, took their degrees at the University of Chicago, Tuesday afternoon, with honorable mention for their work during the past two years.

They have just begun making maple sugar in Vermont, but the "pure maple sugar" have been selling the 1902 article for several weeks. The resources of the Chicago man is something wonderful.

The cadet military band at the Academy is getting in its work again, though we have not heard the stirring strains of Old Tecumseh's pedestrian trip from the heights about Atlanta to the briny deep, but they are sure to come.

No charge for advertising your property unless we succeed in selling or renting. North Shore Renting Agency.

By a recent ruling of the United States postal department a letter mailed to Germany or other European countries, without any stamps, will be forwarded to New York, where double postage will be charged on it, to be collected at its destination.

Kaiser William is going to have every German in America vote for Roosevelt in 1904, he treated Prince Henry so well. So now, Mine Herra, prepare your ballots. "Hoch der Kaiser." We don't know what that means in Deutsch, but guess it means "Rah for Billy and Teddy."

The Highland Park Woman's Club proposes to have a hand in local politics. They have asked Mr. Patton to put the name of Mrs. George B. Cummings on the official ballot for re-election as a member of the school board for District No. 7, and it will be done. She will be home in season for the first meeting of the board after election.

Don't drink all the microbes that are churned up in the water of Lake Michigan at this time of the year. The board of health of Chicago has notified the citizens to boil the water twenty minutes. Not necessary to do that here. It is water and save ice and doctor bills William Tillman. Telephone 494.

For the latest styles in shirt waists, call at the Ladies' Bazaar, where you will find a large assortment. Open evenings. ***

The Highland Park Presbyterian church will celebrate Palm Sunday next Sabbath with special exercises in the Sunday school. There will be an orchestra, augmented for the occasion, the choir will sing and there will be good speaking. The regular lesson will be omitted, and everybody is cordially invited to be present at the services, which will begin at 12 o'clock noon and last one hour.

NOTICE—IMPORTANT.

See that your gas service is in ahead of the lawn. The Gas company commences the outside work the first of April, and as they have already received a great many orders, you should place yours immediately to insure the work being done by May 1.

Only a few days more in which to pay your special tax.

J. J. BRAND, City Collector.