Don't forget that you can save dollars on taxes a year hence if you turn out and vote at the township school election April 12.

The average Highland Park kids have cheek enough to take them through the world. They go down in the ravines and pick all the wild flowers they can find, that you don't want disturbed, and then call at your door to sell them.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent.

The Cheney family reached home Wednesday evening after having spent the winter in California and Alabama.

N. Clampitt is finishing off two choice two story cottages on his lot on McGovern street, just south of St. Mary's church.

Rev. Schmid is attending the Illinois conference this week. He will leave for St. Paul after a short visit to the Park, Monday.

Mrs. G. C. James has rented her home in the "Pocket" to Mr. Baldwin, of Chicago, and moved into her new house on Central avenue.

Won't those foolish people who daily set fire to the dry leaves just bear in mind that it costs the city from $5 to $10 every time an alarm is turned in.

The man who planted his beans last week took them in the house, Monday, packed them in wool and put them under the kitchen stove to keep warm.

The Ebenezer people had a surprise on Rev. Schmid, Friday evening, at the home of J. J. Brand. It was a house full. Refreshments capped the evening's pleasures.

The Gas company commences to put in services the first of April. If you contemplate using gas this summer it will leave your lawn in better shape to have the work done early.

The Tennessean Jubilee Singers will entertain at Goldberg's opera house next Thursday evening, April 17, under the auspices of Park lodge, No. 366, Mystic Workers of the World. Don't fail to attend.

Meetings of prominent republican voters in the first and third districts of the town of Deerfield have been held the past week, at which strong support was pledged for Palmer A. Montgomery for the republican legislative nomination.

Colonel Samuel H. Bradbury, the erstwhile editor and publisher of the Patriot, is now selling mining stocks and makes more money in a week than he used to make in a year with the Patriot.

A young lady remarked the other day that the Cheney boys were home from the south. Evidently the wish was father to the thought, for they were cultivating oranges in Alabama and Florida.

Harry Mills, the meat man has his delivery boy in a uniform cap, so when anyone wants to find fault with the meat market they won't pitch into him. Now, if he will give his historic mule his annual bath and grooming, all will be well.

Don't drink all the microbes that are churned up in the water of Lake Michigan at this time of the year. The board of health of Chicago has notified the citizens to boil the water twenty minutes. Not necessary to do that here. It is cheaper to buy sparkling spring water and save ice and doctor bills William Tillman. Telephone 494.

City Marshal Rudolph appeared on the streets Tuesday morning, his coat all brushed and buttoned up, his boots polished to perfection, his moustache waxed so that he attracted the wondering gaze of all pedestrians. On inquiry it was learned that a new baby up at his house that morning had greeted him as "grandpa." The little fellow came along Monday night, and being destitute of food and raiment they took him in as one of their own. Congratulations to all, especially "grandpa."

Order the gas in now. We commence our street connections the first of April, and the sooner the work is done the better shape it will leave the lawn.

NORTH SHORE GAS CO.

A "rummage" sale, under the auspices of the Highland Park Woman's Club, will be held in the Bayse block, April 23, 24, 25 and 26. The articles to be offered will consist of furniture, carpets, rugs, clothing, crockery, bicycles, baby carriages, etc. Open all day and evenings.

It is reported on good authority that practically a majority of the frontage has been secured to a petition for the construction of a sewer commencing at a point in Vine avenue 250 feet west of St. Johns avenue, thence west along Vine avenue to its junction with St. Johns place, thence southerly along St. Johns place to the ravine which runs north-east and connects with the sewer in the Hotel M.

Putting in this sewer assures the pavement of the balance of Vine avenue at an early date.

There will be two stereopticon lectures at the Presbyterian church on Friday, April 11, and Friday, April 18. The lecturer, Mr. Nat Brigham, makes a specialty of the west, and has a great number of very beautiful pictures. Mr. Brigham is also a singer and illustrates his lectures with Indian and Mexican songs. The lecture on the 11th will be on "The Grand Cañon of Arizona." That of the 18th on "The Land of the Snake Dance." Tickets for the two lectures are 50 cents, while a ticket for a single lecture will be 35 cents. 19-21

NOTICE—IMPORTANT.

See that your gas service is in ahead of the lawn. The Gas company commences the outside work the first of April, and as they have already received a great many orders, you should place yours immediately to insure the work being done by May 1.

List your house with the North Shore Renting Agency.
