The concert to be given under the auspices of Park lodge, Mystic Workers of the World in Goldberg's opera house, Thursday evening, April 17, 1902, promises one of the best this season. The Tennessee Jubilee Singers are noted for plantation melodies.

If you want to rent your house don't ask too much for it. When you ask a man to pay five, eight or ten dollars a day for the use of your furnished house for the season, the price may look big to him. Better take a little less and rent it, than have it stand idle. Emptiness does not improve houses in this climate.

The Ravinook poultry yard is "egging" its way along, after a fashion. With a flock of some score score of hens, one of which is strutting around with two chicks, one or two more "want to set," twenty-two eggs were carried into the house one day last week. Perhaps that was the reverberating echo of the town election, or a prophecy of one of those to come.

Men are plowing, scraping and grading the extension of Deerfield avenue from the Green Bay road to First street. That is one of the old council's left-over jobs, but people had forgotten there was any petition from property owners for opening it. It has looked like one of those cases of getting even with some one. Perhaps the public wants it, but who pays the bills.

R. G. Evans, the owner of the Ingleside hotel, has transformed the big hall in the annex into five choice sleeping rooms, and they are all filled. The big parlor on the second floor will be made into two more rooms, and the front one, the real parlor, will be occupied by Druggist George B. Cummings and his wife, during the season, as their Central avenue home is rented.

The Electric Light Company are digging out under the old office and supply room for a new 300 horse power boiler and a steel stack at the north end on the outside. Later they plan for a new brick building in place of the corrugated iron covered structure. They are putting in new and much larger poles about town wherever needed, and before snow flies their plant will be a model one for a city of this size.

The friends of Miss Sabra L. Sargent, the head of Ferry Hall Seminary, at Lake Forest, will rejoice with her in the promise, soon to be realized, of a long needed new building for that most excellent school. It will be erected this summer so as to be ready for use at the opening of the fall term. We are glad to note all these signs of a healthy, enduring

On April 15 the Highland Park Woman's Club will hold their meeting in the parlors of the Northwestern Military Academy. The meeting will open at 2:30 instead of 3:15 as heretofore. Subject of the day will be "To What Extent Does the American Historical Novel Aid the Student of American History." Leader, Mrs. Abbie Beardsley Bastin. Mrs. Stanwood, president of Illinois Federation of Woman's Club, will be the guest of the club.

It is not quite six weeks since work was begun on that 100 feet three-story brick extension of the Moraine hotel, and the plasterers are putting on the hard finish. The walls are very heavy, of Galesburg schale brick, as hard as flint, with tremendous foundations on the rear which hangs out over the ravine. The lower floor is finished as a hall with platform and dressing rooms, while the second and third floors in suites of rooms, with private bath room to each suite. Messrs. Obee and Warren, who have the mason and carpenter work, have shown they can push a job while doing first class work.

Ex-Mayor Cobb got thirteen names on his petition as alderman in the Third ward. We are told some of his old friends and warm supporters said he was very foolish to run, as he was, for he will find himself as a stray cat in a strange garret in that council chamber. While treated with perfect courtesy he will be a nonentity, and his old time long-winded speeches won't be listened to, as they were when he had the old set around him; this council is a business body. It is also a clean body; there will be no schemes to get even with somebody, to block the improvement of one street or "jam through" another one out of petty personal spite. No, Mr. Cobb has made a mistake; people will forget things if he remains in the obscurity where they put him. He should keep to his hiding and let the past be forgotten. That is what abler and wiser men than him are doing.

TOWNSHIP ELECTION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that on Saturday, the 12th day of April, A. D. 1902, an election will be held at Highland Park Bank, Highland Park, and in the Town Hall, West Deerfield, in Township 43, Range 12, County of Lake and State of Illinois, for the purpose of electing One School Trustee of schools for said township for the full term. Also for the purpose of electing One Member of the Township Board of education. The polls of which election will be opened at 3 o'clock p. m. and close at 7 o'clock of the same day.

By order of the Trustees of Schools of said Township.

Dated this 2d day of April, A. D. 1902.

D. A. HOLMES,
Town Treasurer.

MRS. CAPT. BURKE.

Musical people certainly remember her, for she sung in the church choirs here, and as well as her husband, Captain Burke, of the faculty of the Military academy, was an accomplished musician. Her friends here were shocked to hear of her sudden death Monday last at her home in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, where her husband had a school of his own as in addition to special instruction given in another near-by institution. She left a little boy infant.

The remains were brought to Rose Hill for interment, and the funeral held Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl of this city, and Prof. Whyte, of Lake Forest, for some time Baptist pastor here. Captain Trask took six of the Academy cadets down to act as bearers, while Captain and Mrs. Reddig, with Mrs. J. W. Mauck and Mrs. Charles H. Warren accompanied them.

Mrs. Burke was a vocalist of rare attractiveness. She sang with the spirit and the understanding the songs of Zion. She put her soul into her work. There was none of the operatic in her renderings, and all her work was characterized by great and unaffected simplicity, sweetness and expression.
