

GLENCOE.

Henry Catalier just finished a fine residence for Mr. Ben Newhall.

Mr. Clyde, our popular druggist, is nursing a bad stye on his right eye.

Did we hear some one say Glencoe would have her streets paved, or was it a pipe dream?

Fred Grabe and Charlie Shaw between the hours of 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., an annual smile and election shake will be the prevailing thing. Other candidates are Mrs. Southworth and Messrs. A. H. Day and Chas. S. Bartholf.

LOOKING FOR HOUSES.

of cigars at the raffle held at Mr. Clyde's.

Mrs. Wm. Streeter departed for home Wednesday morning, after a visit of several days with her husband.

Wm. Harvey has resigned his position with Mr. Johnston, to take effect the 20th, and will go into the milk business. Will is a hustler and will no doubt get his share of custom.

Your correspondent is at Glencoe to write the news for the people and will be thankful to get any information you may have. We would be pleased to attend any and all parties, socials, political and other meetings and will endeavor to write fairly and impartially for one and all. A postal card will be all that's

A meeting was called in the Village Hall for Monday night, supposedly to discuss school matters, but developed into variety minstrel with the object of finding out just how one of the two tickets proposed to do business. The president of the board, Mr. Kletzing, was called to the chair, and asked the desire of the meeting, but none cared to open out his samples. Messrs. Otto R. Barnett and R. D. Coy were the chief rushers of the program, and apparently prearranged that Candidate Mark B. Orde should "confess up," but Mark knew nothing, thought he was running, but had not concluded for what. After ascertaining just where Candidate Calhoun proposed to be on the ticket, Mr. Orde stated that he, too, was partial to the location and the lease, so would go after the same thing. Mr. John L. Day endeavored to arrange a handicap, but of no avail. Therefore on Saturday afternoon,
