FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1902.

We will speak out, we will be heard, Though all earth's temples crack.
We will not bate a single breath:
Nor take a single sentence back.

The west side woman has "loomed up" immensely during the past week. She seems to hold the key of the situation in her hands, and knows how to use it.

The Sun, that most voracious luminary of the north, says that the Waukegan aldermen earned three dollars each in four minutes.
What Editor Stearns meant to say was that they got three dollars, not that they earned it.

We desire to congratulate Elisha Morgan on his triumphant victory at the polls, and congratulate the city as well. We trust it will not dampen his zeal when we tell him he will do well if the "profits" of his office the first year suffice to pay for the necessary legal blanks he will use in his general business.

J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. having gobbled or merged the steel industries of the country, the great railroad lines, and last the trans-Atlantic steamship lines, we hope there are two enterprises they won't get. One is our Smith's bus line and the other is Will Cummings' prairie schooner line to county conventions at Libertyville. The idea that any time we wish to get ourselves or a trunk to the train, or go over to a political convention, of world-wide importance, at the heart of the county, we must first get Pierpont Morgan's consent, is more than we can tolerate.

Some people have expressed great surprise that so many west side women should leave the work of a Saturday to vote at a school election. True, they do not attend so many social functions, or attend so many club meetings as their east side sisters, but they raise lots more babies, and when it comes to school children and voting at elections, babies count. In fact, they go a long way further on such occasions than "advanced" theories on sociological matters.

The old prophet said: "The holy seed shall be the substance thereof." That is, that the social and political forces that make for cleanness and political righteousness may control things, if they will. When the clean men of Fourth ward decided on a clean campaign, they had it. Put that purpose to the front in every ward and in every campaign, and the rum and beer bums would hide their heads for very shame, and we should have no more such disgraceful campaigns as we have had in the past.

The latest scheme to get rid of General Miles was proposed by Senator Hoar the other day. It is to send him to Europe on a tour of observation of the armies of foreign countries. From a civilian point of view, that if he is such a thorn in the side of the people at Washington, they would put him in command of our troops in the Philippines, as he has requested, and where he should be. He is the ranking general in the service and should be placed where he could earn his salary. He is no "tin soldier," and it is galling to a fighter to be kept in the background when there is fighting going on.

IN THE WRONG PLACE.

An old printer is quoted as authority for this story of Horace Greeley: "One day as he sat at his desk he looked up and saw a small boy standing beside him.
'Well, sonny, what do you want?' he piped. 'I want a place to work in your office.' 'And what do you want that for?' asked the old man.
'I want to grow up and get rich,' was the answer. Mr. Greeley looked at him for a moment.
'Get rich?' he said. 'I guess that you didn't notice that this is a newspaper office. You must be looking for the druggist next door.'"

A VALUABLE SERVICE.

Messrs. Levin and Schumacher, of the Fourth ward, are entitled to to great credit for getting up and putting into effect a plan for suppressing the free use of beer and other intoxicants to carry elections in that ward. That ward in the past, especially three years ago, disgraced itself immeasurably, almost beyond recovery, by the free and scandalous use of beer on the eve of elections. These men got up a petition or remonstrance in which all those who signed it pledged themselves to oppose, and use all legitimeans to defeat, the election of any candidate, who himself, or by his friends or supporters, used beer, etc., to win the election. At first some opposed what they foolishly styled an attempt to transform the Fourth ward into a Y. M. C. A. camp, but when they found the reform movement was popular they fell into line.
We are told that Mr. Morton, who is a temperance man, not only signed it himself at once, but took it and circulated it among his supporters.
The reformers, or the "league," as they styled themselves, put detectives in the field to see what was going on, especially the night before election. The result was a quiet, orderly, clean election, and the Fourth ward has well nigh redeemed herself, and all honor to the men who did it.
Let the work extend to every ward in the city and every election.

Makes children eat, sleep and grow.
Makes mother strong and vigorous.
Makes a healthy family. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35c. Geo.
