

To the Republican Voters of Lake County:

This is to advise you that I am a candidate for the Republican legislative nomination. I have been a resident and large property owner of Highland Park, town of Deerfield, Lake county, eleven years, and of this state, twenty-six years, and, for the benefit of those who are not informed, I desire to say that I am classed among those called self-made men, having been successful as an organizer and manager of large companies in different branches of business. I have always been a staunch Republican and have rendered good service to the party during every campaign, have never sought an office, and only after being urged for a long time, do I now give my consent. I therefor hope to receive your support. Yours very respectfully,

PALMER A. MONTGOMERY.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATES.

Delegates to the Libertyville Republican convention to be held tomorrow from the precincts here are as follows:

First Precinct—C. W. Kirk, F. W. Cushing, A. W. Fletcher, George S. Cole, Elisha Morgan, Earl C. Purdy, Fred Schaffer and D. A. Holmes.

Second Precinct—Turner, Lawrence Olesen, Richard Lancaster, George Rettig, Martin Anderson, Joseph Severson.

Third Precinct—R. G. Evans, George Brand, Fred Greenslade, Thomas Morton, Robert C. Raffan, Edward A. Warren and J. W. Mauck. By some mistake Dr. Ingalls was declared elected, though it was afterwards found that Fred Greenslade had one more vote.

All were instructed, for our candidate for the legislature, Palmer A. Montgomery, and they will stick by him till the last. Their motto is, "to win out or die in the trenches," and they have a candidate worthy of such loyalty.

I say what I mean today,
And tomorrow I mean what I say,
But today and tomorrow
I know to my sorrow
Show things in a different way.

I live and let my brethren live
With all that's good with me,
Unto the poor, some cash I give,
To the balance I give Rocky Mountain Tea.

Geo. B. Cummings.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

The Libertyville Creamery Association, with a capital of $2,500, has been incorporated by the secretary of state.

Mrs. Reesman, who has been at the Northwestern hospital for appendicitis, is gaining finely. She is out of danger and her family expect her home at an early date.

The cadets at the Northwestern Military Academy will give their fourth annual military and athletic exhibition Saturday evening, May 3. Tickets are 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Early last winter we had a load of mixed well-rotted dressing from Jas. H. Duffy, the baggage, express and Postal Telegraph man, and put it on our lawn at once, and it never looked better than this spring and we think it was the dressing.

The rummage sale of the Woman's Club in the Basye block is the biggest kind of a success. Mrs. Edward Laing and other saleswomen are as active as they can be, and Miss Nellie Ogilvie, who handles the cash, is busy all the time.

Frederick Sutton, a former resident of New Zealand, who joined Dowie and recently came to Zion City to live, has willed the bulk of a $50,000 estate to Dowie. The will has been filed for probate in the county court at Waukegan.

are churned up in the water of Lake Michigan at this time of the year. The board of health of Chicago has notified the citizens to boil the water twenty minutes. Not necessary to do that here. It is cheaper to buy sparkling spring water and save ice and doctor bills

HOMESICKNESS.

I'm goin' to the country. I'm goin' to pack my grip.
I've had enough of city life to last me for one trip.

I'm goin' where the horses travel peaceable an' slow.
Where there ain't no bells a-ringin'; where no whistles fiercely blow.
I'm goin' where you git yer gold a-growin' on the tree
An' squirrels is about the only busy folks you see.

Where the leaves is all a-dancin' to the music of the breeze
An' no one rings a gong and hollers out: "Step lively, please!"
Where the glopies of a sunset an' the still an' starry nights
Beat all you kin accomplish with your big electric lights.
I envy no man's palace, nor his ship upon the sea.
I'm goin' to the country, an' that's fun enough for me.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

Highland Park had the biggest election in its history last Saturday afternoon for president and two directors of the public school board. There were 610 votes cast, 40 to 60 is about the usual number, we believe. The polls were open from 4 to 6:30 p. m. R. W. Patton, the old president, had 295 votes, and Mr. Rounseville 315; Mrs. G. B. Cummings had 295, Mrs. Theresa Tillman 317, the highest vote for any candidate; Charles H. Warren had 309.

No special charges were made against the old board, nor any special virtue claimed for the new ones, but a wide-spread desire for a "change," though of course the leaders and the majority of the voters knew what they meant by a change. We find there is considerable dissatisfaction with the teaching force. Then there has been more or less talk about a new, cheap school house for the west side children, and they resented it, and we honor them because they did resent it. They paid their money the same as the east side folks to build that new school house and they pay their money every year to support the schools, and they are entitled to equal advantages. Any and every attempt to draw social or aristocratic lines through the public schools is to be condemned and put down. We never took much stock in that kind of talk, but if the west side folks did they had a perfect right to vote as they did. In the matter of locating and building a new school house the people should be consulted, as a wise, generous policy, whether the law demands it or not.

The result was a great shock to some folks. They did not seem to expect the sun would rise the next morning, but he came up all the same, though Mrs. Tillman was voted the most popular woman in town. The sun evidently saw no reason for any change in his conduct, and if he really preferred Mr. Patton, he knew that though Mr. Rounseville had lived here but a year, he had not lost the "hang of the school house" since the days of his undergraduate life at old Dartmouth, perhaps, when he went out winters and taught in "Jones' Holler," and boarded around among the farmers and sampled the spare ribs, mince pies, doughnuts and "biled cider apple sass" at all their homes. Mr. Rounseville may not be as familiar with the details as Mr. Patton, but he has rare sense, as is evidenced by his coming here to live.

Moreover, there are four hold-over members of the board and two new ones, and we expect they will work in harmony. The new members will tell what their constituents want. They are not there to break up the school or smash things, but for the good of the school as they see it, and "their see it" may be just as good and wise as anybody else's "see it." The NEWS-LETTER looks for just as good schools in the future, we hope better, as in the past.

A WISE MAN'S DELIBERATIONS.

A western editor is the author of the following golden thoughts upon marriages: "Nine-tenths of the unhappy marriages are the result of green human calves being allowed to run at large in society pasture with no yoke on them. They marry and have children before they have mustaches. They are fathers of twins before they are proprietors of two pairs of pants, and the little girls they marry are old women before they are twenty years old. Occasionally one of their gosling marriages turn out all right, but it is a clear case of luck. If there was a law against young galoots sparking and marrying before cutting all their teeth, we suppose the little cusses would evade it some way. But there ought to be a sentiment against it. It is time enough for these bantams to think of finding a pullet when they have raised enough money to buy a bundle of lath to make a hen house. But they see a girl who looks cunning and they are afraid there are not going to be enough to go around, and they begin to spark real spry, and before they are aware of the sanctity of the marriage relation they are hitched for life, and before they own a cook stove and a bedstead they have to get up in the night and go after the doctor, so frightened that they run themselves out of breath, and abuse the doctor because he don't run, too. And when the doctors get there, there is not enough linen in the house to wrap up the baby.
