NO. 24.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent.

Who's NEWS-LETTER are you reading?

We can outfit you with a few choice houses if you call early.

Miss Rae Westerfield, of Chicago, spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. A. A. Moses.

Mrs. A. G. Lowe and son, Cameron, of Hyde Park, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Dorsey.

Don't forget that there is preaching service in the Baptist church every Sunday evening at 7:30.

We will be thankful for any item of local news or matter of public interest. Telephone No. 92 or 773

Mrs. D. P. Sheaben returned from her two weeks' visit to her childhood home in Oakfield, Wis., near Fond du Lac.

For Sale—2 sofas; a moquet carpet, 14x16; a clock and several lamps. Inquire of Mrs. Chas. W. Kirk Lake avenue. 23-1f

Mr. and Mrs. Loeb and children, of Chicago, spent Sunday with M. Moses and family. Mrs. Loeb is a sister of Mr. Moses.

If you want an 8 or 10-room house, unfurnished, with water, furnace, etc., and very large grounds, call at this office soon.

A. P. Dunn is off to Galesburg for a few days. During his absence the store is left in charge of his right hand man, Albert Larson.

Mr. David Reutter, who lives in the Mrs. Prof. Grass' new cottage, and who spent the winter in Asheville, N. C., is seriously ill.

The Moraine is to open in full at the 29th inst. There is a great demand for rooms, so that the new annex will be none too large.

M. J. Gibbs, of Highwood, has sold his saloon to M. J. Crawley, and will devote his time to looking after the interests of the villager-

At the First Baptist church the pastor's morning subject will be: "Coming to One's Self." Evening subject: "A Young Man's Only Lack."

Wildwood will soon be occupied for the summer. The ladies of that picturesque cluster of villas were in the Park Wednesday making preparation to move out the coming week.

The Rev. Hist. of Naperville, Ill., preached Sunday last at the Ebenezer Evangelical church. The regular pastor, Rev. Sorg, will occupy the pulpit this coming Sabbath.

Miss Mamie Cox, of Port Clinton, is assisting in our postoffice. Her sister, Miss Ellen, runs the office at Highwood. These young ladies have genius for such work, and they do it skillfully as well as rapidly.

Local Union, No. 461, the Highland Park branch of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, have raised the initiation fee to $15, to take effect on and after the first of June.

The Highland Park Club has arranged a series of fortnightly dances for adults—"children under eighteen" are not wanted. The first dance comes this Friday evening, May 9th, and then once in two weeks till September.

Cashier David A. Holmes, of the Highland Park bank, informed us yesterday that Mrs. Lucy Tilden Champion Allen is in Chicago visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ford P. Hall, a former resident on the Sheridan Road north.

Sunday afternoon the famous automobile, "The White Ghost," formerly owned by Wm. K. Vanderbilt, passed through Highland Park enroute to Kenosha. The machine is owned by John A. Drake, of Chicago, and cost $30,000.

Discontinuing advertising through the dull season is like fishing with a bare hook. All you'll ever catch is seaweed and driftwood.

The electric railway got out its open cars for the first time Sunday. During the warm spell in the fore part of the day they were very attractive, but the rain and cold spell later "queered" them for the rest of the day.

Alderman E. A. Warren went to Springfield Wednesday for the Republican State Convention to be held there Thursday. We hope he will have a good time and that Billy Mason, Hopkins and other candidates will furnish the delegates with good cigars.

Senator William E. Mason has presented the Commodore Yacht Club, of Chicago, through Col. A. C. Mayor, a silver trophy costing $210. The gift is to be awarded to the members of the club whose yacht is the winner of a series of races for two successive seasons.

The Ingleside Hotel expects to dine some 75 members of a Chicago automobile club Sunday next. They will come out over the Sheridan Road in their autos, some thirty or forty in number, and store their machines on the lawn south of the hotel, while they feast at the Ingleside.

The week has registered the deaths of three men of historic proportions: Potter Palmer, one of the pioneers and builders of Chicago; Bret Harte, who made fame and fortune by his sketch, "The Luck of Roaring Camp," thirty-four years ago; and Admiral Wm. T. Sampson, who ill-advised friends undertook to claim for him the honor which belonged to Admiral Schley in the Santiago affair. The weeks are few which witness the demise of three such men.

Marriage is like other troubles. People have a good time while getting into it.

Mrs. W. C. Eddy and Master Roy, who have been visiting for some time with Mrs. Eddy's sister, Mrs. S. Levin, left this week for Lincoln, Neb., where they will probably spend the summer.

We are informed that John Snyder, the veteran railroad man, has organized a new society, club or something of the kind, known as the "V. V. C.," which we suppose means the Veterans' Volunteer Combination, and so no man can become a member who has served the world long and well in some capacity. No tramps, chumps or bums need apply.

manager, etc., to whom any worthy person can apply for further information.

The story is told on a lady of a nearby township, of a jealous disposition, who suspected that her husband was in the habit of kissing the hired girl, and resolved to detect him in the act. After watching for a few days she saw him come home one evening and pass quietly into the kitchen. The hired girl was out that evening and the kitchen was dark. Burning with jealousy the wife took a few matches in her hand and hastily placing a shawl on her head, as the hired girl often did, entered the kitchen by the back door, and immediately she was seized and kissed and embraced in an ardent manner. With heart almost bursting the wife prepared to administer a terrible rebuke to the faithless spouse, and tearing herself from his fond embrace, struck a match and stood face to face with the hired man. Her husband says his wife never treated him so well since the first month they were married as she has in the last few days.
