

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Published M R
May 1, 08

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1902.

NO. 4.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent.

Carleton Vail is home from Cornell.

Miss Virginia Chandler is home from Kemper Hall.

Miss Bean, of Waukegan, was the guest of Miss Evans this week.

Miss Grace Gregory graduated this year from the Dearborn Seminary.

Miss Frances Everett is home from Mrs. Capen's school at Northampton, Mass.

Mrs. Jas. Prindiville has just returned from a delightful visit to Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lobdell and the Gregorys' are once more established at "Ledgemere".

We are happy to report that Geo. P. Everhart is again on the high road to recovery.

Russell Jones is home from the Boston "Tech", and George has returned from Harvard.

Ray Rutter is a victim of that villainous disease, typhoid fever. We wish him a speedy recovery.

One of the regular summer dances will be given Saturday evening, June 21st, at the Highland Park club.

Paine's Manhattan Beach Worlds' Fair fireworks at wholesale prices and quantities, at Dale Sweetland's.

The old residents of Highland Park will be sorry to hear that W. W. Flynn shows no decided improvement.

Chandler Egan, class 1905, returned on Thursday from Harvard. Ye sturdy men of golf fame look well to your laurels!

Orson Smith has taken the Fred Cushing place for the summer, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dawes the Professor Gray home.

Miss Flossie Guthrie, niece of Mrs. Wm. Tillman, graduates this week from one of the Chicago schools.

Call at Dale Sweetland's, phone 643, and order a bag of sea salt, and enjoy a sea bath at home this summer—9 pounds for 25 cents.

Dan Cobb leaves this week for Atlantic City, where he will spend the summer with his aunt, Mrs. Lamson, formerly of Highland Park.

Capt. Jamieson, with his wife and young son, arrived on Sunday from West Point. They will be the guests of Mrs. Floyd for several weeks.

Mrs. Ed. Gray and family, accompanied by Miss Caroline Shields, left on Saturday for one of the northern lake resorts where they will spend the summer.

Miss Eva Emmett Wycoff, our talented and well known soprano, leaves early in July for Colorado, where she has several Chatauqua engagements.

The "Ball Sweepstakes" at the Exmoor last Saturday proved a thoroughly jolly affair, and was followed in the evening by an informal dance.

Mrs. John Whiteside, who, with her fascinating son, Jack, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Geo. Boulton, left this week for her home at Champlain, N. Y.

Ralph Thorn has returned from Racine college, where he graduated this week with highest honors. Mrs. Thorn and Mrs. Kirk attended the exercises, also the Rev. P. C. Wolcott.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hillard left this week in a private car with a party of New York friends, for a short trip to Pike's Peak and the mountains of Colorado.

It has been said: "Give a Frenchman a pair of dumb-bells and ask him about the weather, and before his answer is finished, he will have taken enough healthful exercise to last him all day."

Quite the most charming recent event was the informal dance given last Wednesday week, by Mrs. Orson Smith, in honor of Miss Margaretti Brown, who left on Thursday to visit her sisters in Boston.

A delightfully informal at fresco tea was given by Miss Bessie Smith, last Saturday afternoon, in honor of her friend, Miss Elizabeth Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steele, who recently bought the old Alexander place.

Miss Everhart, who, with a party of English people, is now making the trip from the City of Mexico to the Pacific Coast, on horseback, later in the season will be the guest of her brother, Mr. Geo. P. Everhart, at "Miralago."

The many friends of Mrs. John Wycoff will learn with sincere regret that she is again seriously ill and is now at the Presbyterian Hospital. It was hoped that her sojourn in California last winter would have proved a permanent benefit.

Rev. E. Seldon left on Monday to begin his summer term at the Chicago university. He will be absent from Highland Park from Monday until Friday, so hereafter, during the summer months, the prayer meeting will be held on Friday evening.

The Columbia Bakery Co., of Evanston, have opened an annex for the sale of their fine bakery goods, ice cream and ices, in the Bayse block, on Central ave., facing Sheridan Road. All goods are guaranteed absolutely pure. A trial will convince you.

Local news matter will be found on every page of this week's NEWS LETTER.

Levin, the jeweler, has put up a beautiful new clock sign. Hereafter his friends and acquaintances will know his place of business by the Sign of the Star, and to be known as the Star jeweler.

That June is essentially the rose month, is manifest at "Egandale," where the roses are now at the very zenith of their beauty. "Egandale" with its wealth of gorgeous blooms reminds one of the gardens at Jackson Park, in miniature. Have you seen "Carmine Pillar?" If not, you've missed a rare bit of loveliness.

Around an old tree trunk, about ten feet high, bright red roses have twined in wildest profusion until it is a mass of flaming glory.

A wedding of interest took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Moffatt being married to Mr. Wm. Noerenberg, by the Rev. Finkbeiner. Only the immediate relatives of the two families were present. The ceremony was followed by a wedding supper, after which Mr. and Mrs. Noerenberg left for Geneva, Ill. After a short trip they will be at home to their friends at 22 Green street.

Miss Cushman has resigned the position of art director in the grammar and high school of Highland Park. She adds to her present duties at the Saturday school of the department of education of Chicago University by assuming the directorship of the art work at the South Side Academy. This school and the Chicago Manual Training school will constitute the academy school system of the enlarged school of education of which Dr. John Dewey is now the director. Mr. Rockefeller has given $150,000 for laboratories and shops for these academy schools.