THE MORAINE.

Among the people who have moved to the Moraine for the summer are, Mr. and Mrs. Robt Schuttler Hotz and family, Mrs. Mark Kimball and her granddaughter, Miss Ruth Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. V. Kelley, and Mrs. H. M. Galloway, of Chicago; also Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Jones and Mrs. C. B. Richards and daughter of St. Louis.

City Attorney Smoot has taken a room at the Moraine during his wife's absence.

The family of J. Wallace Wakem left on Monday for Chandler, Me., where they will spend the summer. Previous to leaving they spent a week at the Moraine.

The Moraine is justly proud of two recent acquisitions, its fine new ball room and—well, he who runs may read! (?) the sign! of course, that glorious old sign, the pride of Mr. Cushing's heart!—Watch the Moraine stationery, it may surprise you one of these days. It really was an inspiration. The Moraine is so modestly unobtrusive, away back from the road among the trees, that heretofore it was not always easily found by a stranger. As it swings from its strong oak beam, old sign seems to say, "I will always find our latch string out," and somehow, in a hearty, homely way, to betoken hospitality and cheer, and a genial boniface within. With "Old Times" bowling back and forth each day, we can't but think of the coaching ways and coaching days of merrie old England, when steam and electricity were all unknown. The days of the Mermaid Tavern and the White Horse Inn; those good old days when convivial spirits were wont to gather 'round the flowing bowl.

The superb new ball room is a joy forever! Large and generous in its proportions, it can easily accommodate large gatherings without the slightest discomfort. It is equipped with a fine stage, is well lighted and ventilated and has a glorious floor on which "to trip the light fantastic."

The ladies of the Episcopal church have secured the ball room at the Moraine for a concert in aid of the organ fund. It will take place on Wednesday evening,

June 25th, and promises to be a fine affair.

On Friday evening the 27th of June, Mr. McCormick will give one of his interesting entertainments, imitating birds, animals and mechanical sounds. Mr. McCormick is a perpetual delight and surprise to the children both of small and "larger growth" as well. There will be no admission fee to this entertainment, Mr. McCormick depending for his remuneration upon a collection which will be taken up afterwards.

Mr. Nat M. Brigham is booked to give a lecture in the ball room of the Moraine early in July.

There will be a grand inaugural ball given on Saturday evening, June 28th, at the Moraine, after which there will be a regular "hop" every Tuesday and Saturday evening. The music will be furnished by the Smith sisters.

One of the arrivals of the week to Highland Park was "Shaggy." Poor little "Shaggy," how our sympathies went out to you last Monday morning! It was a fateful moment in "Shaggy's" career, and he seemed to realize it keenly. He was coming out on probation. Judged by his sterling qualities, "Shaggy" had chance enough to spare. But unfortunately his stay in our charming physical points of beauty. Now, while "Shaggy" has most appealing eyes and a decidedly interesting personality, alas, he is not exactly a Beau Brummel in appearance. His mental charms alone, however, for he not only speaks his native tongue niently, but has as well a familiar knowledge of Spanish, French and English. He is now domiciled at the home of A. C. Clark, for all time to come, may we hope. When last seen he was romping with the two little Clark girls happy as only a little yellow dog can be. "Shaggy" had evidently passed muster by capturing the hearts of the little children.

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S MAXIM.

"Conversation is but carving—
Give no more to every guest
Than he's able to digest;
Give him always of the prime,
And but a little at a time;
Carve to all but just enough.
Let them neither starve nor stuff;
And that you may have your due,
Let your neighbor carve for you."

You've got to hustle all the time to keep in the swim. If you are slipping down the ladder of prosperity, take Rocky Mountain Tea. Makes people strenuous. George B. Cummings. cg-1
