

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore.

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1902.

NO. 5.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent. Ray Rutter is very much better. Mr. Vail is convalescing rapidly. Mr. Carleton Moseley is remodeling his house. Little Phillie Cole, son of Ed Cole, is seriously ill. Mr. W. W. Flinn's condition remains about the same. Mrs. H. C. Morgan is spending a few days in Fowler, Ind. Miss Chisholm, of Cleveland, is the guest of Mrs. Chas. Yoe. The Swedish Lutheran church at Highwood has been completed. John A. Roche, of Chicago, and family, are here for the Miss Fessenden is home from Miss Ely's school in New York City. The Highwood Independent has been closed under a chattel mortgage. Turnley Leightner, Harvard, has been elected captain of track team, 1903.

Mrs. Carroll, of Wilmette, and her two daughters, are visiting Miss Morrison.

Mayor and Mrs. Evans were the guests of Dr. Bean, of Waukegan, on Sunday last.

Miss Muriel Boulton, who has been attending school in Springfield, Mass., has returned.

The fire department held its first meeting in the new station on Monday evening, June 24.

Father J. C. Madden, we are sorry to report, is suffering from a relapse of his old malady.

Miss Virginia Chandler has as her guest this week, her cousin, Miss Virginia Pope, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Paine's Manhattan Beach Worlds' Fair fireworks at wholesale prices and quantities, at Dale Sweetland's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Mason and family have gone to Marblehead, Mass., where they will spend the summer.

Mr. Robert Bowers expects to leave next Monday for his old home in Chambersburg, Va., for a three weeks' vacation.

Miss Street and Miss Helen Boulton, who have been spending a month in the mountains of North Carolina, have returned.

Call at Dale Sweetland's, phone 643, and order a bag of sea salt, and enjoy a sea bath at home this summer—9 pounds for 25 cents.

Miss Frances Bauman and Ernest

Berglund will spend the day at the home of Father J. C. Madden, and will reside at Highwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Day, of Lake Forest, who came in to attend the concert at the Moraine on Tuesday night, were the guests of Mrs. Francis Brown.

These are busy days at the Public Library, where they are hard at work on the new system of classification, which will place the library on a proper scientific basis.

An engagement of interest that has just been announced is that of Miss Wainwright, the popular daughter of Major Wainwright, U. S. A., to Dr. Rogers of Chicago.

Mr. Wilson, of Shelbyville, Ind., his daughter, Mrs. Ward, of Elgin, Ill., and Mrs. T. P. Evans, of Winnetka, have been guests at the home of Mrs. Snyder this week.

Mrs. Tewksbury, of Chicago, who has been visiting the Brands for the past few weeks, has returned to her home. The many friends made by Mrs. Tewksbury while here will always be glad to see her in Highland Park.

Local news matter will be found on every page of this week's NEWS LETTER.

Mrs. John Wycoff is gaining slowly, but we are happy to say surely.

Mrs. S. C. Dorsey, of Scranton, Pa., is still the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dorsey.

Most encouraging reports are received of the marked improvement of Mrs. Finkbeiner.

Mrs. Henry Belden, of New York, who has been visiting Mrs. Francis Brown, left this week.

Hubert Messenger has gone east to attend the exercises at Amherst

It is interesting to note the increase of automobiles that are in evidence daily in and around Highland Park.

Mrs. S. B. Brand entertained the members of her "Wee Band" and their mothers at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Schwarz, who have been living in Chicago, have gone to Winchester, Mass., where they will spend the summer.

Miss Lottie Brand entertained as her guest this week, Miss Leia Da Nuner, of Wisconsin, a graduate in music of the Northwestern university.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Childs are not at Wildwood, as stated in a recent issue of our paper, but are occupying "The Log Cottage" for the summer.

The Columbia Bakery Co., of Evanston, have opened an annex for the sale of their fine bakery goods, ice cream and ices, in the Bayse block, on Central ave., facing Sheridan Road. All goods are guaranteed absolutely pure. A trial will convince you.

The concert given at the Moraine on Tuesday night by the ladies of the Episcopal church was a great success and proved quite a social function. That everything passed off so delightfully great credit is due Messrs. Robert Bowers, Carver and Kenneth Boulton.

The hail storm on Wednesday did considerable damage to the fruit trees and gardens. The appearance of the ground after the storm made one think that young America would have to lay aside his fire works and resort to snow shoes and bob sleds for his Fourth of July diversion.

The merchants of Waukegan have agreed to close their places of business on Mondays, Saturdays and pay days at the Waukegan plants of the American Steel and Wire Company and U. S. Sugar Refinery when in operation, and to close all day on Sunday. This agreement to go into effect July 7, 1902.

Mr. Maxe Schmidt, of 48 Broadway, New York, has been the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. George P. Everhart. Mr. Schmidt is now putting on his movable sidewalk, the same as they had at the World's Fair and at Paris, on the new iron bridge from Brooklyn to New York. This movable sidewalk will carry over 20,000 people an hour, while the capacity of the cars is only about 6,000 people an hour.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Brand celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage on Tuesday evening. Their charming apartment on Second street was taken possession of by a host of friends, young and old, and a most delightful evening was passed by all. While the gifts were numerous, and all appropriately "wooden," the most elaborate present received by Mr. and Mrs. Brand was a very handsome rosewood piano.