EXMOOR CLUB.

Mrs. J. W. Wakem entertained night ladies at luncheon this week.

Mrs. Jack Cutter, while very much improved, is still confined to her room.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. G. Ryan entertained a party of six at dinner on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dennis entertained a party of fifteen at dinner on Wednesday.

Mrs. Graeme Stewart, who has been ill ever since her arrival at the Exmoor, is very much better.

Walter E. Egan and Chandler Egan will play around together, and invariably one will win one day, and the day following, the other will win.

The annual tournament will commence on July 1 and continue through the 5, omitting the 4. During the tournament there will be music and dancing every evening.

As a fitting wind up to the club competition for the president's cup, the members of the club on Independence day, will participate in the first annual stein dinner, to be followed by a cotillion.

The links from now on will be thronged with enthusiastic players, doubtless the college boys will be much in evidence, in anticipation of the international match to come off later in the season at Glenview.

Attention is called to the monthly open mixed foursomes to be played on Thursday, July 24, Thursday, August 21 and Thursday, September 25, first and second prizes in each event. The first was played on June 26.

Among the guests at the Exmoor for the summer are Mr. and Mrs. Graeme Stewart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cutter, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moffat, Mr. and Mrs. H. Channing, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Irwin, Trigg Waller, Geo. Jenney, Geo. Ade and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dennis.

MUSICAL EVENT OF THE SEASON

The testimonial concert, which the friends of Miss Eva Emmett Wycoff, our well-known dramatic soprano, will tender her this evening, Friday, June 27, at 8:15 o'clock, at the Highland Park Club House, promises to be the real musical event of the season. That marvelously beautiful composition, the "Persian Garden," by Eliza Lehmann, will be presented by the following artists: Mrs. Ada Markland Sheffield, Mrs. Ella Pierson Kirkham, Mr. Louis E. Roll, Mr. Alfred Ely and Mrs. Annette R. Jones. Mr. George R. Jones will play the violin obligato for Mrs. Sheffield.

The first part of the program will consist of several charming solos by the artists who will sing in the "Persian Garden." If there be those to whom music appealeth not, the charming lines from Fitzgerald's translation of "Omar Khayyam" alone cannot fail to delight.

Realizing how much Miss Wycoff has done musically for Highland Park, and how very generous and unselfish she has ever been in giving her services upon all occasions, in season and out of season, whenever called upon, her many friends desiring, in a small way, to express their appreciation, have planned this delightful concert in her honor, a most appropriate tribute.

The artists have all very kindly given their services, and everything has been done in friendship.

The concert itself needs no advertising, and we place this notice in our columns, merely, that no one, through lack of information, shall be deprived of the pleasure and the privilege of hearing this charming musical production of the season interpreted by gifted and well-known artists.

Tickets may be obtained from the following ladies: Meses. C. W. Kirk, VanSchaick, James Prindiville, Secor Cunningham, W. A. Alexander, Annette R. Jones, Misses Turnely, and Louis Floyd, and at any of the drug stores
