NO. 6

Mr. Vail is improving every day. Mrs. John Wycoff is gaining materially. Mrs. T. D. Hull left on Tuesday for Berlin, N. Y. Mr. C. A. Kuist is again able to be up and around. Ray Rutter is doing well, and will soon be convalescent. Mrs. Finkbeiner is making most encouraging progress. Mrs. Charles Carey has returned from a visit to Wauconda, Ill. Mrs. Frank Clark and Miss Estelle Clark left last week for Denver.

D. A. Holmes, cashier of the Highland Park bank, has gone to Wisconsin for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graves, of Chicago, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nally over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. Schneck, of Milwaukee, spent Sunday with Mr. A. E. Dorsey and family. Little Phillie Cole, since the arrival of the trained nurse from Chicago, has gained steadily. Mrs. Willis Cummings, who arrived in Highland Park Tuesday, will make a little visit here of several weeks. Mr. Louis Johnson and family have recently moved from Waukegan and are occupying the Steers cottage. Lot No. seven, in block No. twenty-nine, Highland Park, for sale cheap by owner, C. E. Hathaway, Northfield, Minn. 68. Great damage was done to the greenhouses belonging to Mr. Barr and Mr. Douler last Wednesday by the hailstorm. Captain J. M. T. Partello, 5th Infantry, on sick leave from his regiment in the Philippines, was here for a few hours on Saturday. Little Belle Meade is down with typhoid. Her grandma, Mrs. Belle Meade, from Washington, D. C., is visiting her son, C. C. Meade. Prof. W. M. Boehm, principal of the Franklin school, Chicago, is in his new house, Ravinia, fixing the place up for a permanent home. Gas range for sale—nearly new Jewel gas range, with hood and all latest improvements; also gas hot water heater and attachments. Call at NEWS-LETTER office.

Cooking range for sale cheap. A good-sized coal or wood burner, hot water tank, with plenty of pipe in good condition; also cooking utensils. Apply at NEWS-LETTER office. Mrs. Charles Gemmer, of Fort Robinson, Neb., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ohlwein, for a few weeks. She will then go to Columbus, Ohio, to make her future home. Mrs. A. G. Lowe, of Hyde Park, Mrs. Beal, Miss Berenice Stanford and Miss Grace McMillan, of Arkansas City, Kas., are the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dorsey. W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent. Household furniture for sale—iron beds, dining chairs, tables, mattresses, ice chest, sideboard, dresser, electric light shades and fixtures, etc. Apply at NEWS-LETTER office. Mr. N. O. Moore suggests that some measure be taken to rid the ravines on either side of the bridges along St. John's avenue of the tramps with which they are thickly infested. These tramps are a menace to property, as they relieve the people in this vicinity of everything they find in sight. Don't forget the Gad's Hill benefit concert, to be given Wednesday evening.

For sale—An oak bed-room suite; nearly new. Apply at NEWS-LETTER office. The recovery of little Sylvan Moses is now assured, and he is doing nicely. A number of new improvements are being made at the Railroad Men's Home. The Lady Foresters gave a party Wednesday night in their lodge rooms. Mrs. John Sheahan's little daughter, Cathryn, is ill with typhoid fever. Local news matter will be found on every page of this week's NEWS-LETTER. Mrs. Carrie Gail and daughter have gone to Gurney to spend a couple of weeks. Miss Eva Emmett Wycoff will leave on the 4th for the Chautauqua at Boulder, Colo. Luther Laffin Mills, the noted Chicago lawyer, visited friends in the Park last Sunday. Mrs. B. O. Fritch spent several days last week at the home of her mother, in Deerfield.

The North Shore Gas Company has just finished lighting up the Moraine driveway. Seven 100-power incandescent lamps have been placed around the circle, making a brilliant illumination. The imposing iron fence and gate ways that inclose Wildwood give it rather an air of seclusion and ceremony. On the contrary, however, a most delightful informality and the rule. We would like to suggest that all items and advertisements be sent in not later than 6 p. m. on Thursdays, or we will be unable to print them in the week's issue, as the forms hereafter positively go to press early Friday morning. Among the visitors at the Railroad Men's Home last week were Mrs. P. H. Morrissey and daughter, Miss Helen Morrissey, of Galesburg, Ill.; Mrs. Minnie O'Keefe, Mrs. W. G. Fitzgerald, and Miss Hattie Shepherd, of Chicago.

NOTICE!
To whom it may concern: All persons are hereby notified that the undersigned will not be responsible for any debts or bills contracted by my husband, John A. Dings.
6-8 JULIA M. GERRY DINGS.

Don't forget the Gad's Hill benefit concert, to be given Wednesday evening. The tickets are only 50 cents, and may be secured at any of the drug stores or from the following ladies: Mmes. Alexander, Pfanstiehl, Secor Cunningham, C. W. Kirk, G. H. Campbell, R. B. Gregory, and Misses Smith, Egan and Carlyle. Mr. John Finney, who has been suffering for the past few days with the grippe, on Wednesday last, while seated at his desk in the city hall, feeling a need of more air, started to go toward the door, when he was overcome and fell to the floor in a faint. He was taken to his home in a carriage, and a physician called, who pronounced it nothing serious. Mr. Finney is doing nicely and will soon be around again. One of the pleasant events of the week was the little informal gathering on Saturday morning at the home of Miss Gertrude Chandler. Miss Stoddard initiated the guests into the mysteries of basket weaving, a feature that was enthusiastically enjoyed, after which luncheon was served. The guests were Mmes. Childs, Fuller, Corwith, Morgan, Nesser, Merriweather, Nally and Sherman, and Misses Chandler, Stoddard and Gertrude Chandler.
