RAVINIA.

Mrs. Wood-White is still the guest of Mrs. A. M. Russell.

Mrs. P. Winchester, mother of Mrs. W. O. Hipwell, of Highland Park, is spending the summer at the home of Mrs. E. Grant.

The amount of property that has changed hands in Ravinia during the past year is wonderful, nearly every lot with a house upon it that was offered for sale has been sold.

The old Johnson place, which covers over two acres and one of the finest pieces of property in Ravinia, was recently purchased by J. F. Leaming, of Highland Park. The house is being handsomely remodeled after the plans and under the supervision of Levi M. Comstock, and will soon be ready for occupancy.

The three originators, or founders of Ravinia were Mr. E. F. Jacobs, so well known in Sunday-school work, and in all Baptist circles, Mr. Eddy and Mr. Guernly. The town was laid out in plats by them and sold, and from them received its name. Thirty-five years ago the property owned by Mr. Eddy was sold for twenty-year the Guernly property was sold for $1,000 an acre.

Quite the brightest and prettiest event of the week was the birthday party given last Saturday in honor of, and at the home of Mrs. E. Grant, a home that is proverbial for its atmosphere of old time English hospitality. A charming luncheon was served, covers being laid for sixteen. The table was prettily decorated with pink roses from a bush that Mrs. Grant brought back from England a few years ago. The troop of little grand-children and Mrs. Winchester, who is eighty-seven years "young", were the happiest features of the day.

Was Weak in Mathematics.

The Atlanta Constitution the other day received the following letter: "Sur an Friend—Do the Carnegie library lend Books techn Matthevmattics to Outside your Citie? I want Onlie Books on Matthevmattics, as I am all right on spellin and am a purty good Grammatician, if I do say it Miself. I kid Spel an Grammarize, but Matthevmattics is one too Much for Me."

Speed of Earthquake Shocks.

Careful scientific investigations show that the average speed of the transmission of earthquake shocks is nearly 16,000 feet a second.

HIGHWOOD.

The Highwood school is being thoroughly remodeled; three new rooms are being added.

The Ladies' Auxilliary will meet on Thursday, July 10, at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Kelley.

About twenty dollars was raised by the earn-a-dollar social recently given by the Ladies Auxilliary.

Miss Alma Kelley will entertain sixteen of her little friends at a birthday party to be given at her home on Saturday, July 5.

Invitations have been issued for a party to be given Saturday in honor of little Ruth Mower, who, on that day, will celebrate her sixth birthday.

Rev. Lawler, pastor of the Highwood M. E. church, is now permanently located at the home of Mrs. Ernest Gail, the so-to-speak parsonage for the time being, where he will be most happy to receive his parishoners and friends.

Rounds out the hollow places; smooths out lines that creep about one's face; wools roses back to faded cheeks. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35cts. Geo. B. Cummings.

Don't be persuaded into taking something said to be "just as good" as Madison Medicine Co's Rocky Mountain Tea. There is nothing like it. 35cts., no more no less. Geo. B. Cummings.
