NOTTO OF THE NEWS-LETTER.

Print all the news fit to be printed; the truth without fear, favor or affectation; pure, clean and wholesome matter; fresh ideas, progressive thoughts and reliable information; the opinion of the editor, fearlessly expressed—nothing false, loud or immodest; nothing mean, low or slandrous; nothing for which we are not willing to become responsible; nothing personally offensive, as paid matter or otherwise; nothing that we would be ashamed to read at our own fireside. Print what we believe to be right, regardless of consequences; nothing we know to be wrong under any consideration.

FRIDAY, JULY 11, 1902.

We will speak out, we will be heard, Though all earth's temples crack.
We will not bate a single breath, Nor take a single sentence back.

Confident I may lawfully hold the office for the coming term, I hereby announce myself a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the approval of the County Republican Convention. GEO. N. GRIDLEY.

A FRIEND.

A blessed thing for any man or woman to have is a friend—one human soul whom we can trust utterly who knows the best and in spite of all our faults; who will speak the honest truth to us while the world flatters us to our face who will give us counsel and reproof in the days of prosperity and self-conceit; but who, again, will comfort and encourage us in the day of difficulty and sorrow, when the world leaves us alone to fight our battles as we can.— Charles Kingsley.

A New York man, worth $50,000 and a good business income, was so economical that he refused to spend more than 15 cents a day for living expenses. He was found dead in bed recently, want of proper nourishment having contributed to that end. The authorities are looking for his relatives, who will probably live high on the money he accumulated by denying himself proper food.

Mayor Harrison is a frequent guest at the home of the Heaton Owsley's. In fact, it is said that when he cannot be found elsewhere, he can usually be located at Skokie, as he is an enthusiastic golf player.

There was no service at the day. Rev. M. W. Darling is in the east and the minister engaged

Mrs. G. Bohl, proprietor. Telephone 302.

Gad's Hill encampment arrived Saturday on schedule time. Everything has been most auspicious thus far and it promises to be a most successful season. Providence must have smiled upon this enterprise, for the cold damp days of a week back would have been perilous to campers out, in fact it would have seemed like flying in the face of providence,

On Saturday, July 5, Miss Gertrude Dupee (Mrs. Parsons), the adopted daughter of Mrs. Emeline Dupee, at great peril rescued a man from drowning at Atlantic City, N. J. The man rescued was a perfect stranger to Miss Dupee.
A few hours after the rescue Miss Dupee was the recipient of a note of gratitude in which was enclosed a check for $200. Miss Dupee returned the check.

On the Fourth at Skokie there noon and a club members' handicap in the afternoon. There were match game Miss Leslie won first prize, Miss Whipple second and Mrs. Jacobs third. The prizes

ing. The qualifying rounds in Monday, eight to qualify under sixteen, and eight to qualify from sixteen to twenty-one. The prize was presented by S. Stargis, of Winnetka.
