MOTTO OF THE NEWS-LETTER.
Print all the news fit to be printed; the truth without fear, favor or affectation; pure, clean and wholesome matter; fresh ideas, progressive thoughts and reliable information; the opinion of the editor, fearlessly expressed—nothing false, loud or immodest; nothing mean, low or slandrous; nothing for which we are not willing to become responsible; nothing personally offensive, as paid matter or otherwise; nothing that we would be ashamed to read at our own fireside. Print what we believe to be right, regardless of consequences; nothing we know to be wrong under any consideration.

FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1902.

We will speak out, we will be heard, Though all earth's temples crack.
We will not bate a single breath, Nor take a single sentence back.

Confident I may lawfully hold the office for the coming term, I hereby announce myself a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the approval of the County Republican Convention.

Announcement.
I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of County Superintendent of Schools, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

EXMOOR CLUB.

The general exodus from the club this week to Glenview has left Exmoor deserted.

Frank H. Madden, of Hyde Park, was the guest of Archibald Beebe at the club Saturday last.

Frank H. Spearman, of Wheaton, Ill., the popular and well-known writer of short railroad stories, spent Saturday at the club.

The wholesale grocers of Chicago were well represented at Exmoor Saturday. Among those in evidence were Messrs. Archibald Beebe, Harry D. Spearman, Ruthven Deane, Rollin A. Keyes, Walter Chandler and Frank H.
Madden.

WANTED—Cotton rags for washing presses. Will pay 2 1/4 cents per pound leave this week for Ephriam, Wis., for an indefinite stay.

Miss Alice Brand is expected home today from a fortnight's visit at Milwaukee and Random Lake.

Miss Viola Shields entertained a number of her friends at a delightful beach party, Tuesday night.

George P. Everhart, it is expected, will be able to leave the hospital and return home in about ten days.

The junior dance at the Highland Park Club, last Saturday night, proved a very pleasant and pretty affair.

The regular meeting of the Royal Arcanum, Monday night, was well attended.

phere.

Owing to the beautiful moonlight evenings there have been a number of enjoyable impromptu beach parties lately.

Mrs. Small, who is expected home from Green Lake this week, will leave soon for Lake Geneva, to visit Mrs. J. H. Moore.

Mrs. James Wallace, of Chicago, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Pierson, has returned to her home.

Mrs. T. E. Pierson, who was called to St. Louis to see her father, Mr. Larson, who has been dangerously ill, has just returned.

Hon. L. S. Coffin was a guest over Sunday at the Railroad Men's Home. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Chicago, also spent the day there.

The Tuesday and especially the Saturday night Moraine "hops" are looked forward to by all as real events in the weekly social calendar.

Mrs. Orson Smith was hostess at a charming dinner, Thursday evening, in honor of Miss VanSchaick and Mr. Clinch, at the Saddle and Cycle Club.

upon the just and unjust fellow; but chiefly on the just, because the unjust takes the just's umbrella.— Late bishop of London.

Interest is mainly focused on Glenview this week, many parties going over for the day. A popular feature has been the drive home after dinner by moonlight.

C. Chapman was the winner of three prizes at the horse show at Lake Forest. His four-in-hand, his spike and station wagon were all awarded ribbons by the judges.

Everett L. Millard was host at a delightful dinner party at his home, "The Log House," Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for fourteen and the party was made up of Chicago friends.

Last Saturday Rev. Pfanstiehl's class played a great game of base ball at the Academy grounds with the Illinois Medical College of Chicago. The score was 5 to 4 in favor of the visitors.

society of the Ebenezer church will give a lawn social at the residence of G. L. Brand, on Second street, Thursday evening, July 24. All are cordially invited to attend.

The residence of Carleton Mose-ley, which is being handsomely remodeled in old Roman style of architecture, by H. H. Roberts, with the new additions, will be ready for occupancy in about six weeks.

Friday, August 1, Rev. Pfanstiehl will give an informal lecture on "Paris" at the Presbyterian church, illustrating the lecture with slides made from photographs taken by his son, Carl, during their visit to Europe.

Twenty seven young men of the St. Andrews Brotherhood of St.
James' Episcopal church, Chicago, were delightfully entertained at "The Log House" by Everett L.
Millard Saturday week. There was bathing, croquet and tennis in the forenoon, followed by a most tempting spread served in the summer house down on the lake shore. In the afternoon a ball game was enjoyed on the Academy field.
