FRIDAY, AUGUST 1 1902.

Confident I may lawfully hold the office for the coming term. I hereby announce myself a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the approval of the County Republican Convention.
GEO. N. GRIDLEY.

Announcement.
I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of County Superintendent of Schools, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.
8-10 W. C. MCKENZIE.
Highland Park, Ill., July 14, 1902.

For County Superintendent.
If I have any political friends left in the county since the invasion of opposing candidates, they are hereby informed that I am still a candidate for re-nomination for the office of County Superintendent of Schools, subject to the action of the forthcoming Republican County Convention.
I have no time to canvass.
M. W. MARVIN.

HOME SPIRIT!
In looking over some of our exchanges we find that our fellow townsman, David A. Holmes, has announced himself a candidate for county treasurer.
While the Judge seems to be a boom at home there is little doubt that his many friends will consider the modesty a virtue and stand by him in the coming convention. The republicans may not think it necessary to give Highland Park a representative on the ticket, but it isn't best to overlook even a blind republican town. The Park has several aspirants for "plums."

Prof. W. C. McKenzie has announced himself as a candidate for superintendent of schools, and Fred Rudolph is seriously thinking of trying for the nomination for sheriff. Whatever happens, our candidates can depend on Deerfield's solid support.

PLAGIARISM!

Talk about "honor among thieves!" The Chicago papers don't observe this ancient adage in their thieving operations on the columns of the NEWS-LETTER. Since the day that the first paper was printed in the United States (The News-Letter) it has been a well observed rule for an honorable editor to credit a contemporary for items clipped; but these trust-subsidized (so-called modern) and stereotyped newspapers think it no disgrace to steal news items from the little one-horse "country" papers, and so these model, up-to-date REFORM sheets pitch right in and "swipe" our society items by the column, and when remonstrated with, say: "Its legitimate steal."

The NEWS-LETTER pays its reporter a salary for getting news six days in the week. When you see this society news from Highland Park and the North Shore in the BIG Chicago dailies, remember it has appeared in the NEWS-LETTER almost verbatim from one to two weeks before.

That great, big-hearted(?) Honest Joe's paper, the Tribune, sent a FREE exchange (for one issue) to all the little country it was a souvenir two weeks old) with the idea that the little chaps would give it a free write-up, and sure enough, some of the "camp followers" did waste from one to eight inches of space. Wonder if they expect to get a write-up from the Tribune when they get out an advertising souvenir? Well, guess not!

The Mystic Workers of the World have taken a sudden boom here. The Park Lodge number 366 has grown in three months from about thirty members to over sixty, and is adding from two to six at every meeting. The enthusiasm shown by the members is wonderful, there will be over one hundred members if this excellent work on the part of individual members continues. Most members find it very easy to get an application for membership after explaining that the order pays a part of the insurance carried for a broken arm, leg, or loss of hand or foot, and if totally disabled in semi-annual payments until the full amount carried is paid, as this is the only insurance lodge where women as well as men are received they find a host of ladies eager to join.

THE MORAINÉ.

Nat. M. Brigham delivered one of his interesting lectures in the ballroom of the Moraine Wednesday evening.

Senator S. M. Cullom and wife, and Miss Fisher have secured rooms at the Moraine and will arrive Saturday for the balance of the summer.

Mrs. John B. Mayo, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Walker, of Chicago; Mrs. J. A. Guth, of Peoria, and Mr. E. T. Powers, of Denver, are among the late arrivals at the Moraine.

A large progressive euchre party, consisting of sixteen tables, was held in the new ball room on Thursday evening. The affair was beautifully conducted by Miss Hooley of Chicago and the prizes were worth winning.

Dr. Hans Schweigel gave a very pretty dinner party Monday evening in the Amsterdam room to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Henrotin, Mr. John T. Kitchen, Prince Sapiha, of Austria; Baron Von Schlippenbach, of Russia; Miss Harriet Monroe, of Chicago; Dr. Zoepffel, of Germany; Mrs. Ernest Smith, Miss Kirkland, Mr. C. A. Mason and Mr. Walter C. Hatley, of Chi-

A great deal of interest has been excited by the open tennis tournament held at the Moraine courts this week. There were sixteen entries which included a number of brilliant tennis players. The following participated: J. C. Everett, H. H. Bennett, Charles Lobdell, M. T. Lightner, Lieut. Goodfellow, Corneau, H. Chandler Egan, Howells Coffin, Allan D.

Jones, W. E. Egan, H. Sweetland, Lieut. McCreery, L. Houghteling, J. R. Jones, Gordon Hatley, E. Schlessinger.
