FORT SHERIDAN.

The department competitive shoot ended Tuesday. Private Weik, who has never been beaten by any other rifleman, carried off first prize. He was given the choice of a fine rifle or a gold medal, and chose the latter; 541 was the score made by Weik. The other prize winners were: Corporals George Roell and F. C. Woodley, Drum Major F. A. Hall, Privates Johannes Sweets, Schuyler Cundiff, S. P. Barre and Houseley Stevenson.

The army competitive shoot begins Wednesday, August 13.

Sergeant Foulkrod, 20th Infantry, from Columbus Barracks is here to compete in the army shoot.

Captain Alvord left Friday for Manistee, Mich., on a leave of a week or ten days.

Chaplain McCleary went to Lincoln, Neb., Thursday, to be absent ten days.

The paymaster was expected at the Post today, but owing to illness was unable to come. He will be out Monday.
