RAVINIA.

This week there are forty-nine girls and one boy at the Home.

Miss Rosie, of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, was the guest of Mrs. Gaylord last Friday.

Mrs. A. N. Russell visited the Fresh Air Home this week and attended the devotional exercises.

Mrs. Hipwell and Mrs. Owen visited the Moody Fresh Air Home last week and left several bean bags for the children.

The many friends of Will Lynch will be sorry to hear that he is not so well and has been confined to his bed for several days past.

Arrangements have been successfully made to hold a mid-week prayer meeting at the Ravinia church every Wednesday evening. Mr. Rockwell will lead.

Last Thursday week the boys had a hay-rack ride to Fort Sheridan, where they were greatly interested in the target practice and competitive shoot then in progress.

Regular services are held every Sunday at the Ravinia church by Mr. Rockwell, and C. E. Hauck, of Chicago. Sabbath school at 3 p. m.; song and preaching service, 7:30 p. m.; mid-week prayer meeting, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.

Do not forget that Sunday, August 10, the celebrated girls' choir from the Chicago Avenue church, Chicago, will hold its special song service at 7:30 p. m. at the Ravinia church. A delightful program has been arranged and will include "The Holy City." The choir consists of fifty well trained voices. Do not miss this beautiful service. All are welcome.

One afternoon last week the little girls from the Moody Home for repeating ourselves, but inadvertently we paid tribute to a mythical man, by misspelling the name of a very modest gentleman. We want him to see this. After all it is the little things of life that contribute most to the grand total of happiness. Mr. Burkett always has such a kindly, cheery way with the children. Why, if he should forget his pleasant 'good morning and friendly wave of the hand to these little fresh-air guests, the day would be incomplete to them, for Mr. Burkett has found the snug corner of all their little hearts.

she sat reading on the veranda and gave her a delightful impromptu serenade. She was much pleased and upon invitation the little folks gave quite a concert. The last song was "Nearer My God to Thee," Mrs. Winchester joining in the refrain. Mrs. Winchester, surrounded by these sweet little singers, made such a beautiful picture that Mr. Rockwell could not resist taking a snap-shot of the group, just as they were, with his kodak.
