wound so that Mr. Jones was enabled to continue the game and play out the set

The ping-pong tournament at the Exmoor Saturday night brought out nearly all of the guests from the Moraine, who were interested in watching the play of some of their own champions. The greatest interest was manifested in the play of Master Fred Thorburn, who vanquished all of his competitors until he finally found himself pitted against Kreigh Collins, the undisputed champion of the west, and from whom Master Thorburn succeeded in winning two games in his set, much to the delight of his many friends, who applauded him to the echo.

If it wasn't popular, if it wasn't saved by the people, why do dealers say: "We have something just as good of the Mcdison Medicine Co's Rocky Mountain Tea." Thing it over. 35c. G. B. Cummins. cg-1

GAD'S HILL.

Monday, August 11, the Gad's Hill encampment will "fold up its tents and steal away," we dare say not so silently as the traditional Arab. The season closes with its fifth week. During that period 550 mothers and children have enjoyed a much needed and much appreciated outing.

Wilmette falling short this season of its usual liberal contribution, through the generous co-operation of the officers and soldiers at Fort Sheridan and the benefit given at Onwentsia by Lake Forest friends the camp was enabled to enjoy another week, making five all told.

During the Winnetka week Dr. Churchill kindly gave his medical services and made frequent visits to the camp.

At the beginning of this season new beds were purchased at an expense of $325. The encampment still lacks $200 to complete the payment. Through the generosity of the Moraine management and its guests the debt on the complete outfit of dining tent and ten family tents and equipment amounting to $450 has been cancelled.

All who have not visited the camp are urged to do so this week, as it will close on the 11th.

Bock, William Witten, William Zimmer, George Zimmer, Max Muffat, Dan Sheahen, Elmer Evans and Olaf Lindstrum. The program was most interesting, consisting of a parade of firemen in uniform, foot races, ladder climbing, novelty hose race, hook and ladder race, various competitive drills—prizes of money being awarded. Each department being ambitious of winning the victory and honors, there were many brilliant and spirited contests.
