

RAVINIA.

Mr. Lynch is much better and again able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McMullin entertained a house party of five Chicago friends at "Coedmore" over Sunday.

Mrs. J. N. Randall and Miss Randall, of Decatur, Ill., were the guests of Mrs. F. R. McMullin during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. McMullin entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Prindiville, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schultz and Mr. Page at a dinner Friday evening.

Mr. Frederick Jones, of Singapore, Ceylon, with his sister, Mrs. George Whitney, of Winnetka, with whom he is spending two months, spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. O. A. Leonard.

The special song service at the Ravinia church Sunday evening was a delightful success, both in point of numbers, for a goodly sized congregation attended and in the quality of the music rendered. The children's choir reflected great credit upon Mr. Rockwell, who has had them in training for the past two years. The people regret they cannot have the pleasure of listening to these sweet-voiced singers every Sunday during the Moody Sunday School Encampment season.

Mrs. Gaylord brought out a relay of thirty little city boys on Monday. Judging from the way they "make the welkin ring" and the woods, with their merry, hearty peals, they are making the most of their opportunities. Also, judging from the quantity of bait they have already "dug up", the majority of them agree with Izaak Walton that "The gallant fisherman's life is the best of any: 'tis full of pleasure; void of strife, and is beloved by many." In addition to the thirty boys there are also ten little maids from the city at the Home this week.

Olivet Camp had thirty guests over Sunday, mostly young people who are engaged in factory work during the week. During the past four weeks the camp has entertained 102 guests. The encampment can only comfortably accommodate twenty-four people at one time. Rev. and Mrs. Barr are anticipating Labor Day with a great deal of pleasure, as it promises to be a record breaker at Olivet Camp, judging from the applications he has already received from his people, the capacity of Olivet will be taxed to the limit. Labor Day falling on Monday, the visitors will be able to come out Saturday afternoon, remaining over Monday. There is no set form of entertainment provided at this camp. Many of the guests being hard-working men and women, some of whom have not had a glimpse of green fields and clear skies for as much as twelve years, and Rev. Barr has realized what they most need is absolute rest and relaxation from all things civilized. A man and his wife who have been spending a week at the camp, have been ever since Sunday trying to tear themselves away and return to Chicago. It has been such an ideal, pleasant experience for them both they are loath to leave. Mrs. Gregory, with her daughters, visited the camp not long ago, bring a graphophone, which afforded much pleasure. Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl is one of the best friends of Olivet Camp and a frequent visitor. This camp is at Ravinia on Sheridan Road. Visitors will always find a cordial welcome.

PROHIBITION PICNIC.

The seventeenth annual picnic of the prohibition party will be held at Wright's grove, Gage's Lake, Thursday, August 21. Exercises will commence at 11 o'clock a. m. Prof. H. D. Patton, of Pennsylvania, and Hon. Robert H. Patton, of Springfield, Ill., and other speakers will be present. First-class music will be interspersed. Amusements for the younger folks have been provided. Ice cream and other good things will be served on the grounds. Don't miss this opportunity at the opening. Everything points most auspiciously to a good time, and an enjoyable day is expected.

Nearly twenty people from Highland Park have already made arrangements to go by trolley to Waukegan and from there to the grove in wagonettes, which leave Waukegan at 9:30 a. m., and will also run between Gray's Lake depot and the grounds. Remember the date, Thursday, August 21.

Makes the fire of life burn with a steady glow. Renews the golden, happy days of youth. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35c. G. B. Cummings. cg-1
