To Exmoor once more belongs the palm of victory. H. Chandler Egan has thrice this season shown that when a stalwart son of Exmoor goes forth to battle in open tourney, he is more than apt to return the "conquering hero." That the fair daughters of Exmoor are no less formidable was proven on Skokie links yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. W. A. Alexander vanquished Miss Grace Leslie in the finals by 5 up and 4 to play, thus capturing the chief trophy, and Miss Frances Everett won the second cup by defeating Miss Miriam Anthony.

For Sale—An oak bed-room suite; nearly new. Apply at NEWS-LETTER office.
