THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The public schools of the Highland Park school district will begin work again next Tuesday morning. Below is the list of teachers:

Cornelia Barlow, first grade; Lila S. Halsey, second grade; Anna F.
Pratt, second and third grades; Amy M. Robinson, third and fourth grades; Annie E. Stephenson, fourth grade; Mary A. Reat, fifth grade; Mollie S. Bottum, sixth grade; Nora Albright, seventh grade; Laura J.
Wescott, eighth grade; Easter Holmes, Port Clinton school; Marian Kavanaugh, drawing; Agnes Benson, music; Jesse L. Smith, superintendent.

The board of education availed itself entirely of Mr. Smith's wide acquaintance among educators of the state in selecting the new teachers for the corps and some very fortunate selections have been made.
Miss Wescott, a daughter of the principal of the Robert Waller high school in Chicago, is a recent graduate of Smith college and a young woman of unusual ability. Misses Reat and Albright come from Charleston and Mount Vernon respectively, both were educated at Northwestern University, and at the time of their selection by our board of education had been tendered for another year their old positions in which they have served with marked success. Miss Kavanaugh is known to art lovers of Highland Park as a water-color artist of decided ability. Her enthusiasm for art and her pleasing personality add emphasis to her unusual fitness for the work she is about to undertake.

The other members of the teaching force are so well and so favorably known that further reference is unnecessary.

Elsewhere it is announced that the board of education will furnish pure spring water for the drinking fountains at the school building. This will meet with strong public approval, and the announcement should allay any anxiety as to the supply of drinking water in the schools.

THE MORAINE.

John Farson brought out a party of five from Chicago Sunday and entertained them at dinner at the Moraine.

C. W. Bullen entertained R. T.
McKeever, of New York, and J.
H. Chandler, of Chicago, at the Moraine over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Morey entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Woodruff, of Chicago, at the Moraine over Sunday.

Mrs. Casey A. Wood gave a very pretty luncheon to seven of her lady friends in the Norfolk room at the Moraine Friday.

Ernest E. Kimball, who has been at the Moraine for some weeks, was taken suddenly ill with appendicitis Thursday night and was immediately removed to the Wesleyan Hospital, Chicago, where he was successfully operated upon Friday.

Among the late arrivals at the Moraine are S. H. Bethea, United States District Attorney, of Dixon, Ill.; Mrs. A. A. Kilduff, of New York City; Mrs. James Lee and daughters, and Mrs. R.
A. Parker, jr., of Memphis, Tenn.; William S. Bryan, jr., of Baltimore, Md.; General and Mrs. C.
W. Drew, Otto Gresham, and Mrs. Walter Q. Gresham, of Chicago.

The road coach "Old Times" seems to be gradually winning its way to public favor, and is arriving daily with more passengers than at any other time during the season. The coach will not run much after the fifteenth of September, and persons who wish to ride and to enjoy this magnificent drive to Chicago will do well to avail themselves of the opportunity.

About 500 invitations have been sent out for the grand cotil-lion to be given in the ball room of the Moraine Saturday evening, August 30. The music will be furnished by Krell, and the cotil-lion will be led by Eugene Bournique. Moraine "affairs" are proverbially charming, and past experience having taught the delights implied in an invitation the most enthusiastic interest is being manifested on all sides, and every one is eagerly anticipating the approaching function, which promises to be by far the most brilliant event of the season on the North Shore.

Marys, Ont.

The Ladies' Bazaar is up-to-date in every department. It carries millinery, corsets, hosiery, in fact, everything a body needs. Mrs.
G. Bohl, Prop. Highland Park

The German Lutheran churches of Glenview and Glencoe will unite and hold their annual missionary basket picnic at Glenview nue, and leave in a body at 8:30 ices will be held in the woods morning and Rev. Brauer in the
