

THE MORAINE.

Major and Mrs. George Fabian are at the Moraine, guests of Mrs. A. C. Walker.

Mrs. S. D. Childs and F. A. Childs, of Evanston, were guests at the Moraine Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woolley, of Chicago, have taken rooms at the Moraine for the remainder of the season.

Rev. and Mrs. Gilman, of Chicago, were entertained at dinner at the Moraine Sunday by Mrs. C. F. White.

Mrs. Lewis S. Reed and Miss Mabel Balcombe, of Omaha, Neb., are among the late arrivals of the week at the Moraine.

The "Old Times" coach is coming into more general favor and is bringing up parties to the Moraine nearly every day.

Mrs. Guth, of Peoria, entertained Mrs. K. Rodgers and Mrs. J. J. Tufts, of Evanston, at luncheon at the Moraine Thursday.

Mrs. G. W. Wall, Miss Armsby, Miss Helen Hazelhurst, Miss Wall, Dr. M. Simpson and E. T. Wall drove out in a party from Evanston Monday and took dinner at the Moraine.

Mr. and Mrs. McArthur, C. A. McArthur and W. McArthur, jr., rode over in their automobile Monday from Delavan Lake, stopping for dinner at the Moraine en route to their home in Kenwood.

Labor Day marked a heavy increase in the register of the Moraine. A popular feature of the day was the number driving and automobiling parties, who came out and dined at the Moraine.

The number of guests registering at the Moraine Saturday came within two of being as many as registered July 4 last, which was the largest number in the history of the house. Sunday was equally a banner day.

A great many driving parties have taken advantage of this lovely weather, and the beautiful Sheridan Road, and are arriving daily at the Moraine, en route to various points on the west and north of Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Magnus, of Winnetka, entertained the following friends at dinner at the Moraine Wednesday evening: Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Butz, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wacker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Hotz, and Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Forming a pleasant party of six Mrs. La Motte and Mrs. Hamilton, of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Richardson, of Louisville, Ky.; and Messrs. F. W. Cushing, Lem K. Cushing and Vincent Walsh, of Chicago, drove over to Libertyville Thursday and enjoyed the sights and attractions of the county fair.

Colonel F. L. Lessard, of the staff of the governor-general of Canada, and G. L. Francis, of Toronto, and J. A. Hesse, of New York, spent Sunday at the Moraine. Colonel Lessard had fifteen months of hard service in the South African war, where he commanded one of the famous Canadian regiments. Colonel Lessard was so charmed with the Moraine that he has promised to come back in a couple of weeks with a large party from Canada.

A number of delightful dinner parties preceded the cotillion at the Moraine Saturday evening. Among the hosts and hostesses at the dinners given that evening were: Colonel and Mrs. Dickerson, who entertained as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lovedale, and the Misses Lovedale; Dr. Casey A. Wood, who entertained Dr. and Mrs. Haskins; George W. Cornwall, who had as his guests Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Johnson, and Miss Perrin; General and Mrs. Drew, who entertained Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fleetwood, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Hotz entertained Mr. and Mrs. August Magnus, of Winnetka; Colonel Fyne gave a very pretty dinner in the Norfolk room, covers being laid for nine; Senator and Mrs. Cullom had as their guest, W. D. Ridgely, controller of the currency.

The cotillion given at the Moraine last Saturday evening has passed into history as altogether the most beautiful and really brilliant event on the North Shore in the season's social calendar. To begin with, the night was perfect, and about 300 guests assembled in the ball room, which, artistically decorated with oak leaves and hydrangea blooms, was transformed into a bower of green, and afforded a pleasing background for the pretty gowns of the dancers. The music furnished by Krell was simply irresistible. The cotillion was led by Mr. Eugene Bourneque and the figures introduced were very pretty and unique, and the favors were exceedingly lovely and dainty. In a word, it was a glorious triumph, everyone had a most enjoyable time and the evening passed all too rapidly. The Moraine once more proved itself a royal host.

FORT SHERIDAN.

About the only event of real moment at Fort Sheridan this past week was the visit of "Teddy" Roosevelt, jr., to the Post last Saturday. Accompanied by Mr. McCullough, vice-president of the North-Western, "Teddy, jr." drove down from Lake Forest to the Fort, where a grand review of the troops was held in his honor. After inspecting all the points of interest in and around the Post the young man was escorted by the commanding officer, Colonel McCaskey, and several other officers, to the station, where quite an informal reception lasting about an hour, was held until the arrival of the train for the city.

CARMELITE MISSION.

The Carmelite Fathers, of Chicago, will give a most interesting mission in Highland Park during the coming week at St. Mary's church. The mission will be opened by the Rev. Paul Ryan, of New York City, at 10 o'clock mass, Sunday, September 7, and will continue through the week. Mass will be celebrated daily at 6 and 7:30 a. m., followed by instruction; Way of the Cross daily at 3 p. m.; rosary, sermon and benediction at 7:30 p. m.; confessions will be heard Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, afternoons and evenings. The mission will close on Sunday evening, September 14, with sermon, papal benediction and benediction of the blessed sacrament.

To all non-Catholics as well as Catholics a most cordial welcome is extended to all the exercises and privileges.

When once liberated within your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Rocky Mountain Tea. G. B. Cummings. 1-cg

EXMOOR CLUB.

Among those who entertained at the Exmoor Monday evening were Mrs. J. M. Cutter, who was hostess at a dinner party of eight; Mrs. Joseph E. J. Ryan, who entertained a party of ten friends; Mrs. W. H. Eagle also gave a dinner, covers being laid for four; Lem K. Cushing was host at a dinner party of seven; Frank Warren, jr., was also a host of the evening and entertained friends at dinner; Mr. Syne entertained at a party of four; and B. F. Cummings also gave a delightful dinner, covers being laid for seven.

Monday was a gala day at the Exmoor Country Club. Representatives from nearly all the local clubs participated in the age limit tournament held on that day, which was one of the most successful one-day open tournaments ever held in or about Chicago. Out of the eighty-seven entries sixty-three qualified. The medal play contest (36 holes) was open to the three classes—those under 20, between 20 and 40, and 40 and 60 or over. Needless to say, the junior cup was won by Exmoor's pride and champion, H. Chandler Egan. His cousin, Walter E. Egan, of Lake Geneva, was awarded the adult cup; and the senior trophy was captured by R. Harvey McElwee, of the Exmoor club. Silver medals were awarded to the runners-up. H. Chandler Egan's score was 156, Walter Egan's 164, and R. Harvey McElwee's 173. Preceded by a number of charming dinner parties a delightful dance with about one hundred present, concluded the day.

Will all the members of the Highland Park Women's Club who contemplate giving books for the traveling library please do so at once, as the time for sending out the next library is September 22. Books can be left at Cummings' drug store, or at Mr. E. H. Brown's residence.

Mrs. Geo. B. Cummings,
Chairman Com.

Dress does not make the person. Nor does a clean exterior indicate a clean interior. To be well all organs of the body must work in harmony. Rocky Mountain Tea does this work. G. B. Cummings. 1-cg

For sale cheap, a 1-horse power Jenny electric motor and starting-box complete. Inquire at News-LETTER office.