

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond M B
May 1, 02

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1902.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 16.

Mrs. Fay will leave for Chicago this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lathrop were guests of Mr. McQuiston, Sunday.

We are glad to chronicle that Albert Larson is getting on finely.

Ernest Gage, of Winnetka, spent Sunday with George Elvey and family.

The Basket Club met Thursday forenoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Yoe.

Local news matter will be found on every page of this week's NEWS-LETTER.

M. Bohl is enjoying a pleasant visit with old friends at Rock Island this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns, of Evanston, visited Mrs. H. R. Green, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Enright and family, of Chicago, visited Mrs. D. H. Sheahan over Sunday.

Henry K. Coale, jr., has safely passed the danger point, and is now doing nicely.

G. H. Green, of Chicago, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. H. R. Green, Sunday.

Mrs. Frank B. LeFebre, of Eaton, Ind., is visiting her parents, Judge Watson and wife.

Mr. Loeb and wife of Chicago were the guests of M. Moses and family over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vail have returned, greatly benefited, from a pleasant trip to Ephriam, Wis.

Dr. Lynch and Dr. Lee Schwarz left Tuesday for a little trip to the seashore at Annisquan, Mass.

Mrs. Thomas Daggitt, of Pen Yan, Mich., was the guest of Thomas Howe and wife the past week.

Mrs. C. W. Hillard entertained at dinner Wednesday in honor of the Misses Lee of Memphis Tennessee.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent.

Mrs. Loeffel, of Chicago, spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Oleson.

The Luncheon Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Paul Smith at her home Thursday.

Dr. Baker, of Ravenswood, and Mrs. Morrison, of Winnetka, were guests of Mrs. Frank B. Green, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Barbour Brown have returned from Kentucky, and for the present are guests at the Ash-ton.

The marriage of Miss Grace Adele Tasher to Mr. Berry, of Evanston, will take place some time during October.

Major and Mrs. Davidson are home from a ten days' canvassing and camping trip in Wisconsin and Michigan.

The Military Academy will open Wednesday, September 17, and the enrollment is expected to be larger than ever.

Miss Margaret Goodrich, of Topeka, Kas., who has been visiting Miss Alice Davidson, left Monday for Michigan.

Ladies looking for gifts in novelties will do well to look over the Ladies' Bazaar stock before deciding their choice.

Avoid the typhoid fever epidemic by drinking freely of Sparkling Spring Water, which is a good, wholesome drink. Phone 984.

Misses Rose Jones and Hill have left for a pleasant trip in Canada, where they will be the guests of Miss Hill's sister, Mrs. Hill, at her summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howe entertained at their home the past week Mr. and Mrs. Burgess and daughter, of Evanston, and Mrs. Barton, of Stockport, England.

Master Dan Cobb, who has been spending a glorious summer in the east, principally in Atlantic City, N. J., and Washington, D. C., is expected home from his trip Saturday.

Miss Elsie Boulton will leave Monday for Wilkesbarre, Pa., where she will visit her friend, Miss Leavenworth, whose marriage to Frederick Boynton will take place some weeks later.

A very pleasant surprise party took place Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. B. Stephens where the many friends of Miss Maria Gapp gave her a "tin shower" in honor of her approaching marriage.

Miss Alice Davidson entertained a house party of seven young lady friends, all from Kansas, last week. They were: Misses Harriet Broad, F. E. Barnett, Fannie Sibley, Ellen Heartburg, Margaret Goodrich, Daisy Griggs and Jessie Ogilvy.

The plan of the Northwestern railroad to build a new line from Mayfair, through the Skokie valley and up to Lake Bluff, to be used for the handling of freight, is meeting with vigorous opposition from the members of the Skokie Country Club.

Colonel Davidson went east on a visit to Vermont and to attend the semi-centennial anniversary of the Chestnut Level Academy in Pennsylvania, where he taught thirty-five years ago. He will probably visit Philadelphia and return in time for the opening of the Academy.

Miss Laura Smith, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Hobart W. Moore, expects to leave for the east in a private car Monday, to be gone an indefinite time. An extensive and most delightful trip is in prospect, and will include a visit to the White Sulphur Springs, Va., and various points of interest throughout the east.

The High School opened Wednesday with a splendid attendance, in fact the number of pupils was so large as to oblige Professor Wilson to secure another teacher.

Mayor and Mrs. R. G. Evans gave a very pretty dinner party Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Evans of Holland Patent, N. Y. who returned to their home this week. The table decorations were in green and white, with white asters. Covers were laid for twelve.

George Brothers, who was arrested Wednesday afternoon while in an altercation with his brother, Edward Brothers, was tried before Judge Hibbard, Thursday, and fined him $20 and costs. Mayor Evans suspended the fine on condition that he get out of town within fifteen minutes, which Brothers agreed to do, and Marshal Rudolph saw to it that he did get out.

Mr. Price of the North Shore Gas company has been the organist at the Presbyterian church since June. His work is extremely artistic and he is proving himself a first class organist and genuine artist. A few sabbaths ago he played an offertory composed by himself that was a rare congregation. The people, of Highland Park, are indeed fortunate in having so finished a musician in their midst.

The pastor's subject, next Sunday morning, at the Baptist church, will be "Worldliness and Other Worldliness." Rally Day will be observed with appropriate and interesting exercises. Miss Bushnell, of the International Baptist Young People's Union, will deliver an address to the children. A special service of the Young People's Society will be held at 7 p. m. It will be an "Echo Meeting" of the great convention held in July at Providence, R. I. The public are cordially invited to all these services.